Into New Studio.—Prof. Glerdrum today moved into the fine new Conservatory which Mrs. Christine Kruse built on Eighth street between Central and Commercial for him.

Suit is Dismissed.—The attachment suit brought by George Goodrum against F. Stein in Justice Pennock's court has been dismissed, Mr. Stein stated today.

Take Booth House.—W. J. Conrad and wife have taken the house on Eleventh street which has been occupied by R. K. Booth and wife. The house was sublet furnished.

On Auto Trip.—Dr. Wm. Horsfall and son, William, expect to leave tomorrow or next day on their auto trip to California, joining Mrs. Horsfall, George and Marion at San Francisco.

Made Fast Run.—I. R. Tower arrived last evening from Portland, having made the trip down in about fifteen hours running time. He left there early yesterday morning and came in via Allegany. He says the roads are fine.

Cut Hand.—W. V. Langworthy who is camping with his family at Sunset Beach cut his hand rather severely yesterday. He was cutting wood for the camp fire when the axe slipped, the blow striking the back of his hand. The injury is painful but not serious.

Schilling in Hotel.—J. E. Schilling, formerly of Marshfield and more recently proprietor of the Myrtle Point hotel, is now in charge of the hotel St. Regis at San Francisco, according to a report received here. Alton Sengstacken, formerly of Marshfield, is also one of the clerks there.

At New Dock.—The steamer Rainbow will hereafter land at the new dock at the foot of Central avenue. The boat formerly landed at Market avenue but will change to the new dock for the small boats where there are better accommodations for handling the passengers and freight.

Made Quick Trip.—A. J. Mendel returned from a business trip to San Francisco and made the trip here from San Francisco in about twenty-eight hours. He says that the attendance at the Exposition is increasing and the hotels of San Francisco are now crowded with guests.

To Sell Lumber.—It is understood that Messrs. Hoeck and Samuels of the Courtney mill who went to San Francisco are planning to close a deal with the Hardy Lumber company to handle their output. Owing to their limited dockage room, they will have to secure prompt shipping facilities.

Concil Tonight.—The Marshfield field city council will meet this evening to take up various matters. The water case, for which the Railroad Commissioners are coming here, and some street matters will be up. It is not expected that any action will be taken on the Motor car franchise question.

Seek Missing Articles.—Marshal Carter is making a vain hunt for a valise belonging to the man charged with robbing the Bascom boarding house on Broadway near Market. He has not been able to find a $12 hair switch belonging to Mrs. Clarence Harris which disappeared when the house was robbed.

Will Continue Revival.—The revival meetings which have been held by Rev. and Mrs. Wayne have been highly successful. The meetings have been in progress for three weeks and will continue for another week. A number of additions to the United Brethren church have been made as a result of the meetings.

Old Friend of Firm.—A. E. Koehler was surprised last evening when he went to the Noble theater to see the leading character in one of the films "The Million," a boyhood chum, Bob Gill. A. J. Mendel and Koehler and Gill lived near each other in Meadeville, Pa. Gill has jumped into the front rank of moving picture actors.

One Offender.—John Smith of Powers, got cantankerous yesterday and was landed in jail. Marshal Carter in explaining the charge said that Smith had drunk fifteen cents worth of beer and made fourteen dollars worth of noise. He had $20.60 when arrested and later put up $5 for his offense in disturbing a restaurant crowd.

Plan Hunting Trips.—Dr. Vaughan and Ferd Painter plan to leave in about ten days for Curry county to be ready for the opening of the deer season August 15. They will take Louis Machino along to look after their culinary department. Clem Wells and a party of friends plan to leave about the same time for the Eden Ridge and Rock Creek section.

Will Wed Soon.—Miss Myrtle Lund, daughter of O. O. Lund and a former well known Marshfield girl, has resigned her position as stenographer in Sheriff Johnson's office at Coquille and Aug. 5 will become the bride of Owen Knowlton, a prominent young Coquille druggist. Mr. Knowlton is associated with his father R. S. Knowlton in the Coquille pharmacy.

Midshipman Here.—Milton Carlson a midshipman from the U. S. Naval academy, has arrived in the city to visit his parents Mr. and Mrs. August Carlson. He came to the Pacific Coast on the vessels which carried the midshipmen and cadets on their practice cruise and got a leave of absence to come to Coos Bay to see his parents. He came with the fleet through the Panama Canal and said they made it in fine shape. He left the fleet at San Diego and will be here until about August 10.

Taxes Soon.—Deputy Sheriff A. P. Davis who was here from Coquille yesterday said that in another week the sheriff's office would be ready for the semi-annual tax payment rush. The second half of the taxes are due before October and in case the first half has not been paid a ten per cent penalty is collected if it is not paid before September. For the time being, no appointment will be made to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Miss Myrtle Lund in the sheriff's office Saturday.

May Buy Timber.—George Loud who has been in the Coquille Valley for several days, is expected back to Marshfield Monday. Mr. Loud is from Bay City, Mich., and is a member of congress from his district and is here on a visit. He is connected with large lumber interests. Not long ago a plant in which he was interested was burned. He has some timber holdings in this locality and it is said that he will likely invest more money in coast timber in this part of the state.

Old Cedar Post.—Saturday, Pat Hennessey had Enoch Holland take a Port Orford cedar post out of the old Libby mine that had been doing service for forty years. It was said to be in a perfect state of preservation. It was desired by W. U. Wheelock, sales manager of the C. A. Smith Lumber company, as an exhibit to demonstrate the lasting qualities of Port Orford Cedar. It may be exhibited at the San Francisco Fair. The post was a stand post, seven feet long and Mr. Hennessey says it was put in by the late Pat Flanagan when he first started the Libby mine years ago.

To Serve Suit.—Sheriff Johnson brought over with him Saturday night papers in the case of Anna Rusk vs. R. R. Montgomery to serve. She is asking for damages for personal injuries which she alleges she sustained a year ago last winter when she fell through a hole in the wharf near the Wasson fish market. She tried to make the city one of the defendants but the court overruled this. Mr. Montgomery is expected here from his home in Decatur, Ill., in about a month and the papers may not be served until then, or possibly they may be forwarded to the Sheriff at Decatur and be served there.

Coos Bay Baptist Assembly.—Among some of the prominent speakers who will attend the Coos Bay Baptist Assembly to be held in this city on August the 27th to 29th will be the following: Rev. O. C. Wright, State Superintendent of Missions on the Pacific Coast, Dr. J. D. Springston, Head of the Sunday School work, in this State, Dr. H. B. Foskett, State Convention Pastor, Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Short, of Roseburg, Dr. W. H. Eaton, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Roseburg; Rev. J. P. Murphy, pastor of the Junction City church, Miss Carrie O. Millsbaugh, Pacific Coast Secretary for Home Missions and Miss Ruby T. Weyburn, Secretary for the Woman's Baptist Home Missionary Society.
