Thimble Club to Meet.—The members of the North Bend Thimble Club will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Virgil Watters.

M. E. Bonfire.—The Epworth League of the Marshfield Methodist Church is planning to have a bonfire Wednesday evening at Eastport. Every one is invited.

Meet Thursday.—The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Norwegian Lutheran church of North Bend will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. L. Liljabo.

Picnic Today.—Mrs. J. C. Jones is entertaining the Christian Women's Board of Missions at an all day picnic at her home on North Tenth Street, Perham Park, today.

Auto Collision.—Sunday morning Mr. Peterson of Arago collided with another auto at a sharp turn in the Marshfield-Coquille road. His car was damaged considerably and the other slightly damaged. He did not learn who owned the other car. The Petersons were en route to Empire to visit at the John Morgan home and were able to get through with their car.

Fined for Assault.—In Justice Shuster's court today in North Bend Alex Stonelake who is employed by the water company pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and was fined $10. The case was the result of some

One Offender.—John Hamlin was the only offender who landed in hot bed last night. He was listed as "drunk and without money." The usual fine of $5 was assessed against him and he promised to pay later.

Water Pressure.—Gordon Smith is keeping a record of the water pressure at the city hall as requested by the Railroad commission lately. It varies from 69 to 80 pounds which is a big improvement over a year or so ago.

Will Have Outing.—The members of the Ladies' Aid society of the Swedish Lutheran church will hold an outing tomorrow at the Alex Mattson ranch on Catching Inlet. The boat Hope with the party will leave Marshfield at 9:30 o'clock.

Case Tomorrow.—The case of Smith and Conrad vs. Mrs. Gunelle Burns and Geo. A. Lyons is scheduled for trial at Coquille tomorrow. They are seeking to obtain possession of a forty-acre tract on Coos River which Mrs. Burns claims under a tax title.

Expect Railroad Man.—It is possible that J. D. Farwood, vice president of the O. W. R. and N. railroad will be present on the occasion of the big bridge celebration at North Bend this fall. He has been invited and it is probable that he will attend, it is said.

Rebekahs to Meet.—The members of the Daughters of Rebekah, Lodge No. 143, of North Bend, will hold a social next Saturday night at Taylor's hall. The members of the lodge and their husbands and many young people are expected, a general invitation having been issued.

Divorce Case.—Judge Coke this afternoon will hear the divorce case of Mrs. Eva Barnard vs. D. F. Barnard. It is understood that they have made a property settlement out of court. The grounds are cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Barnard was formerly Miss Eva Wilson of Sumner.

Grandmaster Coming.—Grandmaster Miller of Oregon Masonry is expected here a week from tomorrow to visit the local lodges and a big session is being arranged for him. Mr. Miller is a member of the Oregon Railroad Commission which will be here at that time to conduct a hearing in the water cases.

Saw Big Bear.—D. L. Foote and the other drivers on the Allegany-Drain auto line are endeavoring to get a big black bear that has been sighted along the road near Golden Falls several times. Last year, D. L. Foote killed a big bear on the road and says he will get this one this year. Other hunters are also after the bear.

Auto Collision.—Sunday morning Mr. Peterson of Arago collided with another auto at a sharp turn in the Marshfield-Coquille road. His car was damaged considerably and the other slightly damaged. He did not learn who owned the other car. The Petersons were en route to Empire to visit at the John Morgan home and were able to get through with their car.

Fined for Assault.—In Justice Shuster's court today in North Bend Alex Stonelake who is employed by the water company pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and was fined $10. The case was the result of some trouble between Stonelake and Baxter Robinson, the latter being a city inspector of the sewer work. It was alleged that Stonelake assaulted the other man.

Home Coast Route.—According to word received here Chas. Hickox and party and Mrs. F. M. Friedberg and party left San Francisco Saturday in their autos for home. They are coming up the coast route. With Mrs. Friedberg are Mrs. Hazard and Mrs. Kelly. The trip was hard on Mrs. Friedberg who suffered an attack of illness near San Francisco. They are expected home Friday or Saturday.

Two Sisters Died.—Mrs. Bert Cox and Mrs. Carl Cox who returned today state that their oldest sister, Miss Bertha Haines, was buried at Elkton last week. They were called there by the death of another sister, Mrs. Bunch, and a day or two after Mrs. Bunch died, the other sister succumbed. There were thirteen children in the Haines family, who are pioneers of the Elkton section, and these were the first two deaths.

Frederick Bone.—The Larson dredge Oregon will probably complete the South Coos River work today or tomorrow. They have dredged out the channel to the Camp I dock so that it will probably not be necessary to put in a new landing there. Capt. Geo. Smith who has been inspector of the work will resume his run on the Rainbow and Tom Smith, who has been running the Rainbow in his absence, will resume his old position.

Traffic Heavy.—D. L. Foote says that traffic on the Coos Bay-Allegany-Drain auto line is increasing rapidly. Yesterday they had ten outgoing passengers and ten incoming passengers. The road is in good shape and the auto arrived at Allegany from Drain at 4 o'clock. The road supervisors on the Douglas county part of the road are getting a special appropriation for dragging the road and when this work is completed the highway will be in the best shape it has ever been in.
