TWO STORES:
MARSHFIELD
NORTH BEND

First opened its doors to the people of Coos County. The growth and development, progress and prosperity of this store is part of the history of this community. The principles upon which the business was founded, Service and the Square Deal to every man at all times and absolutely one price, have won for us a permanent place in the regard of the people who purchase clothes. The basis of all solid, reliable, lasting and worth while trade is "Confidence." We inspire confidence by giving quality merchandise and greater value. We handle only merchandise we know from experience is worthy of our promises. We stand ready to make good any dissatisfaction by refunding the purchase price.

We make no attempt to dictate what you should wear or the price you should pay. We do know, however, that every suit we handle is worth the price we ask and whether you pay $8.50 or $30.00 for a suit you are getting full value for every dollar you invest.

Bend Sunday, August 8, a son, their third boy. Mother and child are doing nicely. Mrs. Gebhart was formerly Miss Susie Eickworth.

Get Contract.—Simmons and Lupton have been awarded the contract for the new bungalow which Louis L. Gorr is erecting in Perham Park.

Go to Arizona.—Sidney Bernitt, employed in the Marshfield postoffice, has about completed arrangements for being transferred to the postoffice at Globe, Arizona, October 1.

Builds New Home.—Alex Pederson has started the erection of a fine, modern bungalow at the corner of Tenth and Boulevard, First Addition. Mr. Pederson is employed at the C. A. Smith Mill.

Hill Engineer.—James Bennett has selected Walter Hill to take charge of the engine room at the C. A. Smith company's big mill while Mr. Bennett is taking a thirty-day vacation.

Sunday School Picnic.—The Christian Church Sunday school is enjoying a picnic at Piper's Grove today. W. A. Reid, superintendent of the Sunday school, is in charge of the affair.

Big Picnic.—Capt. Monson of the Messenger reports that about 300 people attended the Socialist picnic at the McCulloch ranch on Haynes Inlet Sunday. There was a speaking program and general good time.

Plan for Assembly.—The members of the First Baptist church will arrange and complete plans Thursday evening at the midweek service for the Coos Bay Baptist Assembly which will be held in Marshfield soon. A large attendance is expected.

Reduce Fares.—Gorst & King have finally decided to reduce the Marshfield-North Bend auto fare to straight ten cents. They have been charging twenty-five cents for the round trip and selling twenty tickets for $2. These commutation books will be reduced still more later.

Junior Ball Teams.—The South Marshfield boys baseball team of which Albert Bassford is captain, defeated the West Marshfield boys, captain by Ned Patterson, at Eastport Monday by a score of 21 to 7. The South Marshfield boys will play the Eastside boys' team Wednesday.

Has Operation.—Dr. A. L. Houseworth returned this morning from Gardiner where he was called to operate on F. W. Varrelman for appendicitis. Mr. Varrelman was stricken with an aggravated attack Saturday night. He is getting along nicely at the Gardiner hospital.

Catch Many Fish.—W. W. Langworthy who returned this morning from the beach says that Vince Pratt and Chas. Jensen yesterday caught fifteen salmon and six blacksnappers. The ocean is so calm that they can go out in a canoe almost any time. The salmon are the blue back variety.

Wood Brothers.—R. M. Kyle of South Seventh street this morning entered protest to Marshal Carter that some one in that vicinity was blocking the alley between Seventh and Eighth street with a wood pile. The city ordinances requires wood to be removed from the street within twenty-four hours.

Priest Improving.—Rev. Father McDevitt went to North Bend this morning to visit Rev. Father Hughes of Portland who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at Mercy hospital. He is recuperating nicely but complications which set in will delay his departure from the hospital for some time.

Open Restaurant.—Mrs. David Alexander and Mrs. Louis Englund will open the former Union Coffee House on North Front street, near Going & Harvey, in a few days. Mr. Alexander will leave next week on an extended trip, having become interested in a patent medicine company with Mrs. Stutsman and J. M. Houseman.

Attaches Money.—Constable W. B. Cox today attached about $100 which S. C. Rogers was owing the Coos Bay Iron Works to cover a judgment for $85 which Justice Pennock recently gave the Balfour-Guthrie company against the Coos Bay Iron Works. Mr. Rogers came down today to pay the bill and Constable Cox served the papers on him as he was en route to the office of the Coos Bay Iron Works.

On Auto Trip.—Chief Engineer James Bennett of the C. A. Smith mill and Mrs. Bennett will leave Thursday in their auto for a thirty day tour of California, visiting the San Francisco and San Diego expositions and other points of interest.

Mr. Bennett has received a number of personal invitations from exhibitors to visit their display at the Exposition, the Standard Oil Company and Westinghouse people being especially urgent for him to come. They will go via the interior route and have a fine banner showing their car is from Coos Bay.
