NEW FALL COATS AND SUITS

FOR WOMEN

A complete showing ahead of scheduled time-partly because the mode is now assured and partly because all signs point to an earlier than usual demand for these. Fall styles and we wished to let you see them as soon as possible.

The showing is worthy of your attention in every way. We do not exaggerate when we say that it is equal to those of the larger cities. These garments possess a peculiar charm that the artistic woman will sense at once. They are highly original in style-they are made for grace and becomingness,

You are invited to be present at this showing and to select while the choice is so wide,

CITY COUNCIL MEETING POST- LYNN LAMBETH MAKES RUN PONED UNTIL THIS EVENING

Only Members Present-Pine Street up Again

There was a meeting of the city sen and Ferguson were the only ones ment was taken until this evening. Pine Street Question

The next step in the proceedings will es and calling for bids.

According to a report last evening, the parties urging the improvement are now willing to have it made according to the property lines inplat survey which would raise havoe with the residences along the west side of the street.

City officials who have been inclaims against the city in case of the embankment caving in. It is proposed, if the improvement goes ahead, to merely pave the street twenty-two feet wide, allowing a more gradual slope. This would eliminate the sidewalks until the property is brought down to grade.

There promises to be a lively discussion of the matter tonight.

Charley was trying to negotiate Market avenue in his car and the D. Goss is appearing for the Oregon constant string of jitney busses, street cars and automobiles made the crossing difficult.

After waiting for a chance to get through without a collision, Charley saw a fine opening. The traffic policeman had stopped the vehicles to allow the rigs in the other street to get through. Immediately Charley shot his car across the opening before the traffic which was supposed to be crossing the other way had a good start. The policeman blew his whistle, but Hickox kept on going and in a few minutes the bluecoated officer caught up and jumped it. After some time elapsed he receivon the running board.

'Don't you know the traffic regulations?" queried the officer. "No, do you?" retorted Hickox.

"Sure," responded the policeman. "You're just the man I have been looking for," burst out Hickox, a broad smile lighting up his countenance. Meanwhile he kept his car going and was nearing the garage where he wanted to go. "Say, I wish you would stay with me until I reach this garage, so that I won't do anything that will cause me to get arrested," Hickox continued in an innocent tone. "Up in our town
