Kyle that complaint was made against him for leaving wood in the alley between Seventh and Eighth streets. Mr. Kyle says he wishes to state that it was not his wood and that he did not put it there.

Freak Cucumber.—Geo. E. Cook was today exhibiting a freak cucumber which he had received from Jack Nowlin, the well-known North Coos River gardener. It was a twin, two cucumbers growing together at the stem and forming a right angle. Both were good sized.

Married in California.—Miss Minnie Giesch of Catching Inlet who left here on the last Speedwell for California was married on July 31st to F. J. Andrews in Santa Ana, Calif., where the couple will make their home, Mr. Andrews being employed there as engineer in the sugar refinery.

Bultmann Coming.—H. E. Bultmann in a card from San Francisco said that he and Mrs. Bultmann were just leaving for home after a visit with his relatives and taking in the Exposition. He says the Fair is great. He also added that afternoon a meeting of the "Defunct Coos Bay Outing Club" was scheduled.

Opens Next Month.—John Biasca, clerk of school district No. 36, was in the city today. This is the district which was consolidated and has the new school, at the forks of the river. The principal will be R. W. Tavenner and the teachers Miss Sprague and Mrs. McLeod. The school will open September 13.

One Offender.—The first occupant of the hotel Carter has had in a week was escorted there last night or rather at 12:35 this morning by Officer Shoupe. He registered as Andrew Jones and an inventory of his effects showed $11 exclusive of several dollars worth of liquor which he is thought to have contained. The usual $5 fine was collected.

Coos Convict Hurt.—Harry Morgan of Coos County, sentenced in May, 1914, to an indeterminate sentence of from three to fifteen years for robbery, was one of the convicts hurt in a crossing accident near Salem. Morgan was riding on an auto truck en route back from a wheat field when a passenger train struck them. Morgan's injuries are internal, but not serious.

Gives Crawfish Supper.—Frank Horton entertained a few friends last evening at a crawfish supper at the Chandler hotel. Mr. Horton recently was at Tenmile and when he returned home he brought back a big supply of crawfish which C. M. Byler cooked for him and which made an especially fine supper. Those in attendance besides Mr. Horton were Miss Grace Miller, Miss Dodge, Miss Florence Remer and Miss Zeigler and Messrs. George Rotner, Ferd Painter and Dr. D. C. Vaughan.

Finds Conditions Good.—D. W. Hellman of Portland who represents Libby, McNeil and Libby, the packers is in the city on business. This is his first trip here but he expects to make regular trips in the interests of the firm as this territory will now be given more careful attention. Mr. Hellman says that he had heard much of Coos Bay and finds things quite as prosperous here as anywhere in the state and that everyone in a business way thinks that the railroad is to greatly assist the Coos Bay country and its scope of business.

Visits Camps.—Ed McKeown left yesterday to visit the Smith-Powers camps near Powers and see some of the boys with whom he formerly worked. He will leave soon for San Francisco.

Elks Picnic.—A large number of Elks and their wives will leave on the Rainbow this afternoon for the Goodwill place on South Coos River where they will enjoy a moonlight picnic and dance.

Go Hunting.—Harry Rohm and Clem Wells are expected to leave Saturday for the Eden Ridge country where deer are reported plentiful and tame. They expect to return in a couple of days with the limit.

Start Mining.—Parties from Bandon report that the big black sand dredge which Mr. Bradford and others put in at Whiskey Run has been almost completed and will be ready to start operations in a day or two.

Many at Picnic.—The annual picnic of the Coos County Veterans, G. A. R., Spanish-War and Sons of Veterans at Simpson Park today is being well attended. Major Zeek came over from Bandon and others from various parts of the county are in attendance.

Not His Wood.—It was stated that the police had notified B. N.

W. J. LEATON came down from Allegany this morning. He is now on a ranch there with his father.

JOHN PORTER came down from Allegany this morning to attend the Veterans picnic at North Bend.

MRS. F. W. BERTRAM and son have returned from San Francisco where they attended the exposition.

DAN McDONALD was here from North Bend today. He is just recuperating from a severe attack of illness.

J. T. HARRIGAN and wife and Mrs. Effie Farringer left this afternoon for an auto trip to Brewster Valley.

DR. J. L. MASSON came over from Myrtle Point today to inspect some horses that are to be shipped on the Santa Clara.

CARL McCULLOCH and wife came in from Haynes Inlet today and will go to the Gould ranch above Allegany for a visit.

LES LANGLEY, wire chief at Bandon for the Coos & Curry Telephone Company, who was here on business, returned home today.

MRS. HART who has been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Houseworth will leave tomorrow for her home in Guthrie, Okla.

A. N. GOULD, former Coos county surveyor, came over this morning and will go to Allegany to visit at the home of his father, Geo. A. Gould.

MISS BERTHA ADELSPERGER of South Bend, Ind., left today for her home after a short visit at the home of her brother, A. E. Adelsperger.

DR. J. T. M'CORMAC, who has been spending the summer on the Bay, expects to leave on the Kilburn the first of next week for Berkeley, California.

KARL KAUFMAN, who is now assistant cashier of a bank in Montana, is spending a few weeks vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Kaufman.

HERBERT LOCKHART and Mel Duncan will leave next Monday on an extended eastern trip to dispose of some of Mr. Lockhart's realty holdings in this section.

A. S. MASTERS and wife came down from Catching Inlet this morning to bid farewell to their daughter, Clara Masters, who is returning to San Francisco after a few weeks visit here.

CHAS. MAGARY and family returned to their home in West Marshfield this morning after spending a few weeks at the J. B. Davis ranch while Mrs. Davis was enjoying a trip to San Francisco.

A. J. MENDEL returned last night from Powers, coming in Len Lambeth's new car. They made the trip here in about three hours and a half, the running time from between Coquille and Marshfield being one hour and ten minutes.

MRS. J. L. LAIRD of Sitkum is spending a few days here shopping and visiting friends. Mrs. Laird is a telegrapher and aids in keeping up the Western Union Line by locating the trouble. It has been some months since she was here.

C. W. McKEAN, of Portland, representing the Remington U. M. C. Co. is calling on the Coos Bay trade this week. Rumor has it that his present trip was a result of information that Harry McKeown's hunting trip to Reedsport would result in placing of large orders.

ROY LANDRITH came down from his North Coos River ranch this morning. His brother, Phil, who is at Monrovia, Calif., with his mother and sisters is reported to be getting along nicely. Mr. Landrith has just finished reclaiming seven acres of bottom land which will add materially to the productivity of his ranch.

J. H. FLANAGAN and wife, Mrs. C. F. McCollum and Mrs. Herbert Lockhart and W. Ross Smith arrived home last night from an auto trip to Crater Lake and vicinity. Mrs. Flanagan joined them at Medford, coming up from San Francisco where she attended the Exposition. They encountered some very warm weather but had an enjoyable trip.

JERRY HAINES, the Eckley pioneer left for home this afternoon after a short visit on the Bay. Mr. Haines is now about ninety years old and is one of the oldest living residents of Coos county. He is still hale and hearty. He spends much of his time at Myrtle Point and at his old home ranch at Eckley which is now being conducted by his son-in-law, Mr. Hampton.

CLAUD H. GILES, a prominent young attorney of Myrtle Point, is in Marshfield today on business. He returned Sunday from an auto tour of California with his father-in-law, N. G. W. Perkins of Myrtle Point. They went as far as Tia Juana, Mexico, and he is an enthusiast over the California roads. He had hastened home but Mr. Perkins and the balance of the party will arrive in a few days.

TAKES ROANOKE'S PLACE Kilburn Will Have Her Freight and Passengers for Portland

Agent Stuhr, of the North Pacific lines, has received a telegram from the San Francisco offices stating that the Kilburn is taking the Roanoke's passengers and freight from San Francisco to Portland this week. The Roanoke is on dry dock. The Kilburn will make her usual stops at Eureka and Marshfield, but she will be crowded with both freight and passengers. The Kilburn is due in here Thursday morning.

AMONG THE SICK

Mrs. Geo. Ross of Catching Inlet who recently underwent an operation at Mercy hospital for appendicitis is improving, to the gratification of her many friends. The nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis, of North Bend, is reported quite ill of appendicitis. She was taken to Mercy Hospital last evening for an operation. She had been ailing for several days before the cause was ascertained.

LAST SUNDAY WAS A DAY OF ACCIDENTS

A Number of Sudden Deaths, Two of Which Were Here, are Reported. Last Sunday was a fatal day in the northwest. There were a number of accidental deaths on that day, two of which occurred in Marshfield. The deaths of Sunday were: Miss Margaret Platt, aged 16, of Portland, died at Sunset Beach of heart failure after rescue from surf. Glenn Pattilo, of Grants Pass, drowned in Willamette River at Portland. George Lecocq, age 22, drowned in Coos Bay. Helen Lecocq, age 13, drowned in Coos Bay. MANY MOOSE TO GO

MARSHFIELD LODGE ARRANGES FOR EXCURSION TO BANDON

Messrs. Langley, Gibson and Munck of Bandon Lodge Extend Personal Invitation

At a meeting of the Marshfield Moose Lodge last evening, Messrs. Langley, Gibson and Munck of Bandon were present and urged a big turnout from the Bay for the Coos County Moose Day doings at the city-by-the-Sea next Sunday and Monday. They said that the Bandon Moose had made elaborate plans to entertain the visitors.

The local lodge committee reported that a round trip rate of $1.55 had been secured, the tickets being good for two days. If one hundred tickets are sold, the evening train will be held at Coquille Sunday and Monday evenings to bring excursionists home.

An unusually fine feed was enjoyed by the members. Dr. Straw attempted to take the credit claiming that the competition he inspired made Will Sullivan exert himself more than usual. Chert Sullivan said, however, that Doc was merely trying to ride at the head of the procession in someone else's auto. Mr. Sullivan says that simply because Doc Straw is press agent for a San Francisco hotel is no reason why he should pose as a critic of good cooking.

ON LONG AUTO TOUR

EARL RALSTON AND B. G. WORTHINGTON ARRIVE HERE

Will Proceed Down Coast to Eureka and Home via Grant's Pass Route

Earl Ralston, a former well known Marshfield man and his wife and B. G. Worthington and family arrived here this morning in their auto on a long outing trip. They came in via Allegany, camping at Golden Falls last evening. They will proceed down the coast to Crescent City, returning via the Grants Pass route. They left Medford last week and visited at the home of Mr. Ralston's people near Roseburg. They have encountered little difficulty so far.

Mr. Ralston is now pressman for the Medford Sun.

Mrs. Ralston and Mrs. Worthington attracted much attention on the streets here this morning as both were garbed in overalls. They decided that as they were on an outing and "roughing it" the sensible thing to do was to discard skirts for trousers and while their unusual dress caused much comment, many declared that they showed good judgment in adopting the overalls on such a tour.
