

In Society

CONTRIBUTIONS concerning social happenings, intended for publication in the society department of The Times, must be submitted to the editor not later than 6 o'clock p. m., Friday of each week. (Exceptions will be allowed only in cases where the events occurred later than the time mentioned.)

PERSONAL notices of visitors in the city, or of Coos Bay people who visit in other cities, together with notices of social affairs, are gladly received in the social department. Telephone 133. Notices of club meetings will be published and secretaries are kindly requested to furnish same.

DORCAS CLUB

Mrs. Ernest Smith of Catching Inlet very ably entertained the Dorcas club at her home last Wednesday at the usual sewing and social session. As a special favor, Mrs. R. M. Sarter had provided a bountiful supply of her delicious ice cream. In two weeks the club ladies, their husbands and families will enjoy a picnic to the Life Saving Station and this is being looked forward to by all.

Among those out were: Mrs. Capt. Donaldson, Mrs. J. C. Gisch, Mrs. Gisch Sr., Mrs. J. C. Colver, Mrs. Clarence Colver, Mrs. T. M. Colver, Mrs. Wm. Bonebrake, Mrs. P. D. Blake, Mrs. Ed Noah who was a special guest of the Alert Club of North Coos River, Mrs. Harvey Russell, Mrs. Harry Russell, Mrs. J. W. Russell, Mrs. Dan Matson, Mrs. John Matson, Mrs. E. Strickland, Mrs. Wm. Lackstrom, Mrs. L. L. Hazelton, Mrs. E. Smith, Mrs. H. Smithgall, Mrs. R. H. Van Auker, Mrs. Mary Kaino, Mrs. Parker and Misses Martha Donaldson, Irene Holm, Nettie Smith, Gladys and Alberta Colver, Edith Donaldson, Ruby Colver, Marjorie Hazelton and Harold Russell, Oren Parker, Oren Hazelton.

MINNE-WIS CLUB

Mrs. G. N. Bolt, Mrs. W. T. Waugh and Gertrude and Virginia Brown were special guests at the meeting of the Minne-Wis Club Thursday afternoon when Mrs. W. E. Hoagland acted as the charming hostess. Real enjoyable was the time passed in sewing and friendly conversation and shortly before departure, the hostess, assisted by Miss Ruth Hoagland served a delectable repast to the special guests and the members present who were: Mrs. F. H. Dresser, Mrs. A. Z. Downs, Mrs. Chas. Davis, Mrs. Chas. La Chapelle, Mrs. W. S. Brown. The club will meet again in two weeks with the place as yet unannounced.

BAY CITY AID

At a meeting of the Bay City Ladies' Aid Wednesday with Mrs. J. D. Hemmingway, Miss Bruce Kelley was elected president for the coming year, Mrs. Fred Moore vice-president and Mrs. J. P. Moloney was re-elected secretary and treasurer. The usual sewing and social hour followed the business session and a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess at an appropriate hour. At the next meeting which will be on the 8th of September, the Misses Rose Moloney, Joyce Foster and Olive Moore will be hostesses to the aid members. Present this week were: Mrs. L. W. Langdon, Mrs. H. R. Brinkley, Mrs. Fred Moore, Mrs. L. B. Kelley, Miss Bruce Kelley, Mrs. J. P. Moloney, Mrs. A. L. Foster, Mrs. W. N. Lyon of Marshfield, Mrs. W. Matson and Rose Moloney and Joyce Foster.

HONOR BRIDE-ELECT

Complimentary to Miss Lillian Daigle, who on the twenty-fourth of this month is to become the bride of Bartlett Knox, was a surprise shower given by her friends at her home in Bunker Hill last Monday evening. The home was tastefully arranged in yellow and white and presented a very pretty scene for the evening of jollity and best wishes for the popular bride-elect. Games and music added to the pleasure of the evening at the close of which light refreshments were served. Those present were Misses: Gertrude Scaife, Lillian Thorwald, Marie Vasey, Madge Simpson, Winnie

Ed Duncan, Mrs. G. Johnson, Mrs. A. B. Snow and Mrs. H. M. Abbe. In two weeks, the ladies of the club will meet with Mrs. Snow.

CHRISTIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL

Piper's Grove last Tuesday was the scene of a delightful picnic participated in by the members and friends of the Christian church Sunday School, who left for their destination on the Allee H. about 8:30 o'clock. Sixty or seventy took advantage of the occasion to spend a pleasant outing and all report "one big time." A chicken dinner seemed to be the drawing card about noon time and this held full sway until every appetite was more than satisfied. The younger folks delighted in swimming and wading and other out door activities and the homeward call was responded to with reluctance. The picnicers reached Marshfield about 5:30 o'clock.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Last Wednesday, the children of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Endicott of Myrtle Point joined in helping them celebrate their fiftieth or Golden wedding anniversary, the affair being a surprise to the elderly couple. It was a very happy reunion, and at noon a sumptuous dinner was heartily enjoyed by all. As a token of love the family presented the mother with a pearl and diamond sun burst and the father with a signet ring. A daughter in Los Angeles had expected to be present but is now unable to make the trip until the last of the month. The other members of the family present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lyons and children Thelma, Frances, James and Audrey, of Marshfield, Dr. and Mrs. Endicott and daughter Della of Bandon, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Johnson and daughters Florence and Alice Bell of Bandon, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Endicott and son Charles of Coquille, Dr. and Mrs. K. A. Leap and little son Kay of Myrtle Point, Mrs. Lily Fish and Mrs. W. A. Roberts of Myrtle Point and Mrs. Gwen Endicott of Coquille.

YELLOW AND WHITE STREAMERS

Yellow and white streamers were suspended from the chandelier to a table where were placed the many useful and pretty gifts for the honored young lady.

KENTUCK INLET PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Whit of Kentucky Inlet were happily surprised one evening this week when a number of friends called to spend the evening hours with them. After sewing and telling stories light refreshments were served to the following guests:

CLASS OUTING

Miss Alice Tickell and her Sunday School class of girls of the First Baptist church made a trip to Sunset Bay last Tuesday in D. L. Rood's car and passed a delightful day at Coos Bay's charming Summer Resort. Of course, the dinner was the principal event of the day followed by an afternoon of wading and other outing sports. Owing to sickness all of the class were not able to go. Those who went were: Misses: Naomi Daniels, Ruth McLaughlin, Leona Post and Miriam Wright.

GIVES LUNCHEON

Last Thursday Mrs. A. Abbott of Powers gave a luncheon in honor of Mrs. H. Perkins and Miss Holmes of Marshfield who are visiting at Powers. Covers were laid for ten and the rooms were beautifully decorated with sweet peas and huckleberries.

ALPHA DELPHIAN SOCIETY

"Egyptian Civilization" was the topic studied by the Alpha Delphian Society with Miss Myrtle Downer as chairman last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. F. E. Wilson, and the interest was intensified by the following papers:

THEIR DEAD

"Their Dead" - Miss Myrtle Downer. "Nile Worship" - Miss Ellen Rudnas. "Religious Ceremonies" - Mrs. Harriett Kellog.

THE MORALITY OF THE EGYPTIANS

The talk on "Indian Worship of Niagara" were made topics of general discussion for the evening. After the discussion, the critic's report was given, also during the evening, Miss Ellen Rudnas was elected vice-president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Elvira Frizeen.

CATCHING INLET SURPRISE

Chester Colver was given a surprise party last Thursday evening at his home on Catching Inlet by a party of his friends, the occasion being in honor of his sixteenth birthday. Soon after their arrival, the young people had a huge bon-fire burning and around this they played games, sang songs and had a real good time in general. At a late hour, refreshments were served in the house. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Colver, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Colver, Mrs. E. W. Smith, Misses Irene Holm, Helen Smith, Gertie Gunnell, Edith Kaino, Estrid Holm, Elvira Lackstrom, Gladys Colver, Nettie Smith, Zoe Dolan, Ruby Colver, Enid Colver, and Alice Colver, Walter Kaino, Albert Gunnell, Charles Smith, Mildred Shepperd, Julius Gunnell, Fay and Gordon Collier, Clare Cavanaugh, Alvin Lackstrom, Chester Colver, Fredoth Holm, Ralph Colver, Arthur Holm, Oren Parker and Arthur Moore.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

Very prettily was the auditorium of the North Bend Presbyterian church arranged in blue and white last Monday when the 7th convention of the County W. C. T. U. met there for several sessions during the day. The State president, Mrs. Jennie M. Kemp, was in charge. Hydrangeas and the W. C. T. U. pennants figured largely in the decorating scheme and produced a charming effect. C. R. Barrow of Coquille spoke on "The Dangers that Menace Our Sons and Daughters," and Miss Edith Raab accompanied by Mr. Brown sang a selection. There were present delegates from Marshfield, Bandon, Coquille, Myrtle Point and North Bend.

FAREWELL PARTY

For the pleasure of a number of Bay City people who are leaving Coos Bay, their friends entertained last Wednesday evening at a big bonfire party, about one hundred guests being present to enjoy the affair. A supper of sandwiches, cake and coffee was served around the fire. Games and singing and victrola music added materially to the pleasure of the evening. Among those leaving are:

Mrs. H. R. Brinkley and Children, Vernon, Violet and Gladys who will go tomorrow on the Breakwater for Kansas City on an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. Mortenson, sister of Mrs. L. S. O'Conner will also leave Sunday on the Breakwater to visit with friends and relatives in Portland. Mrs. Stewart left last Tuesday on the stage for a trip to Southern Oregon and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Chapin leave next Thursday on the Kilburn for Madras, Oregon.

ELKS MOONLIGHT EXCURSION

Perhaps one of the most enjoyable affairs of the outing season this year was the moonlight excursion given at Goodwill's on South Coos River, Wednesday evening by the Elks lodge for their wives and families. The Rainbow conveyed the party, numbering one hundred and thirty-eight in all, leaving Marshfield at 4 p. m. and returning about 1 o'clock Thursday morning. The fore part of the evening was spent swimming in the river by most of the excursionists and later a bountiful supper was spread, which was followed by dancing in the pavilion. Everybody expressed themselves as being delighted with the affair, and were enthusiastic over its big success.

MOTOR TO SUNSET

Mrs. Amanda Rose, Mrs. R. P. Harrington, and little son, Everett, Mrs. D. D. Ross and "Aunt" Sally and "Uncle" Henry Black were guests to-day of D. L. Rood on an outing at Sunset Bay, the party making the trip in his car, and returning this evening. A delicious picnic dinner and strolls about the beach made up a delightful day.

Mrs. J. S. Hanson and children will return tomorrow from a weeks outing at Goodwill's.

NOW! IS THE TIME TO PAINT

For exterior work, this is the best season of the year as the wood is thoroughly dried out and will take the lead and oil, preserving the life of the building as well as adding to the length of service for this paint. It is also a good time for interior work, varnishing, etc. We carry the world famed W. P. Fuller line of mixed paints, the Phoenix, in all colors and shades and in various sized cans. In varnishes, we have the famous Standard line. We will be pleased to show you these lines, estimate quantities required, and give suggestions on colors and shades.
