Exchange Property.—I. S. Smith exchanged his Cooston Ranch of 163 acres to Mrs. J. A. Ensminger, for some property in the City of Lakeview, Oregon, the deal being closed today. The property involved has a value of about $4200.00.

Who Wants Some VENISON

THE PALACE MEAT MARKET would like to sell you some, but it's against the law to do so, but we keep a good supply of first-class meats instead. Come and see us. We are making a special price on lard for this week only, 5-pound pail at 65c; and 10 pounds at $1.25. This lard is absolutely guaranteed. If not satisfactory, money refunded.

PALACE MEAT MARKET

Has Big Load.—Joseph Kerner spent last evening a guest of the city resting up after packing about an extra large liquid cargo. He put up a fever for the performance.

Here from Coquille.—Fay Jones and wife, J. J. Lamb, Miss Emily Harlocker, and Mrs. Charles Harlocker of Coquille were Marshfield visitors yesterday.

Invitations Out.—Mrs. Chas. Q. Van Duyn has issued invitations for an at home Wednesday, August 25, complimentary to her mother, Mrs. J. C. Roberts and Mrs. T. P. Crosthwait.

Dance at Shore Acres.—About 30 couples, mostly from Marshfield and North Bend, were present at a dance last evening given by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Simpson at Shore Acres. A very enjoyable evening was spent. The members of the party returned to their homes in machines at a late hour.

Sprains Ankle.—G. A. Bonebrake of the Union Market who has been enjoying a vacation on his Catching Inlet ranch suffered a sprained ankle yesterday and was brought to his home in South Marshfield. He slipped on a flight of stairs.

Remains Here.—Tom Williams who has long been making the Coos Bay territory, arrived here last evening. He was recently offered the Portland district of the Diston people but after looking it over decided to remain in his old position which will be gratifying to the many friends he has made here and who would miss his regular visits.

To Wrestle in Curry.—Ed. O'Connell, instructor in wrestling at the Multnomah Athletic club, arrived yesterday on the Santa Clara from San Francisco. He expects to go down into Curry County for a series of bouts with "Smiling Dutch" and with Lutsey. He was in there several weeks ago at Langlois.

Powers' Peaches.—A. H. Powers came in from Powers today. He brought a box of peaches from Tom Hayes' ranch. They were about the best ever seen here, excelling the imported ones in size and color. Eight of them filled an ordinary shoe box. They were grown on the ranch of Tom Hayes, one of the progressive ranchers of that section, and they will, through Mr. Hayes' courtesy, be placed on exhibit at the Chamber of Commerce.

Will Haul Logs.—A. Hakanson of the North Bend stables who has the contract for hauling the logs from McDonald & Condon's new logging camp on the Coos Bay Water company's tract in West Marshfield was here this morning and expected to take out the first loads of piling today. He will build a barn near the logging camp. He will get a big auto truck to haul from the end of the Central Avenue hill to the mill.

Go After Deer.—J. O. Langworthy and Cal Langworthy left on the early morning train for Powers. They were well armed and took a good supply of provisions with them and declared that neither one would return until he had a good sized buck to his credit. J. O. Langworthy said that he had an animal spotted there and all he has to do is pull the trigger.

Too Close to Machine.—The Eastport jitney, driven by Charles Knox, last evening brushed against Dr. Straw who was in the middle of the street at the corner of Market and Front streets and knocked him to the street. He was uninjured and Chief Carter, who was near, made no arrest but told the driver to take a trifle more leeway hereafter.

Painter Improving.—H. W. Painter who went to Portland last week to consult specialists writes that the cause of his ill-health has been located in his teeth. Twelve were pulled and rigorous treatment given the others, the roots having become infected and poisonous to his system. Mrs. Painter and Wayne are with him and they will remain until he gets greater relief.

Appraise Property.—E. T. Busselle, an expert of the Oregon Public Utilities Commission, is here making an appraisal of the value of the Coos and Curry Telephone Company property. He is now auditing the company's books and expects to complete the work in a few days and will leave for Salem where he will compile his report. The value fixed on it will determine the schedule of rates to be allowed the company at its hearing this fall.

Back from Exposition.—Robert Dillard returned on the Santa Clara from a month's stay at the Exposition.

MILDEN MORRIS
Who Died August 12, 1915
Aged 14 years, 9 months

Weep not for me, my loved ones dear I am not dead, but sleeping here. I was not yours, but God's alone. He thought it best to call me home.

CARD OF THANKS
To the kind friends and neighbors, who by their gentle sympathy and thoughtful kindness, lightened the burden of our sorrow, in the loss of our beloved son, Mildren Morris, we wish to extend our heartfelt thanks. May Almighty God bless them and theirs.
MR. AND MRS. J. P. MORRIS AND FAMILY.

tion. He says that even in a month's stay he did not get to see all of it. He attended the Coos County Day doings at the Oregon building and regretted that there were no moving pictures of this section to be shown to illustrate the lectures. Although Mr. Ward had cheese sandwiches served by Coos county women, many of the recipients thought it was Tillamook cheese because of the Tillamook moving pictures shown there.

Come in Machines.—C. M. Stafford, brother of D. Y. Stafford, and wife, with an aunt, Mrs. Rowena Tidball, of Decatur, Illinois, and accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Dixon and Mr. Vaughn, of Portland, arrived here this morning from the Rose City. They came in via the Drain and Allegany road. After a short visit here they will camp for a few days at Sunset Beach and then take the road to Crater Lake for a visit before returning home. Mr. Stafford is superintendent of the Woodlawn school in Portland.

May Bring Others Here.—A letter was received today by W. A. Reid from A. C. Going, who is now in Portland and who with his son C. C. Going has just purchased the corner at Anderson and Broadway, saying that he may interest others in Portland in Coos Bay property. He says that now the money market is very slow and that but few investments are being made, everyone wanting to hold onto what money they have until business picks up again.

Rescue Truck From Briny.—The first officer of the steamship Santa Clara was much perturbed about 10 days ago when a truck was lost overboard as the ship was being loaded. He bided his time and this morning went fishing with a large iron hook. Up and down along the dock he worked, dragging his hook and soon found his quarry. The truck again came to the surface and in a few minutes was back again on the job, all clean and shining after its long bath.
