N. RASMUSSEN DEAD

NELS RASMUSSEN DIES AT MERCY HOSPITAL LAST EVENING

For Years in Business in Marshfield—Came as Young Lad to American from Denmark

Nels Rasmussen, well known on Coos Bay from the time of his arrival here in 1889, died shortly before five o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Mercy Hospital. A week ago he was operated on there and was getting along fine until an attack of pneumonia, unexpectedly developed Monday and this proved fatal. He was 61 years of age, and a native of Denmark, coming to America when he was a young lad.

The deceased leaves a wife and one son, Gordon C. Rasmussen, to mourn his loss. There is a brother, Jacob Rasmussen, a prominent orchardist of Woodlawn, California. It is believed that there were no other relatives.

Mr. Rasmussen was a wheelwright by trade. He came from Denmark, possibly in the late '60s, and was in San Francisco along in the '70s. It was there that in 1886 he married Miss Jennie C. Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Larson, of Marshfield. In 1889 the couple moved to Marshfield and here Mr. Rasmussen, together with Chris Peterson, now of North Bend, bought out John Norman and established the P. K. Saloon. Later Mr. Peterson was bought out. Until 1907 Mr. Rasmussen was in business and in that year he sold out, the site going for the Flanagan and Bennett Bank building, corner of Front and Market streets.

Mr. Rasmussen then retired from active business and since then has spent most of his time either at the family residence at 276 Birch avenue, or at his ranch on Haynes Inlet.

Lived Much in Open

He was extremely fond of out of door life and spent much of his time in the open. This accounted, to a great extent, for his splendid physique. Up until two weeks ago when he was first taken sick Mr. Rasmussen had always been quite hale and hearty.

In his years of business here Mr. Rasmussen was quite successful. He invested in property with good business judgment. Especially by the old residents here was he particularly well known and he leaves a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Rev. Stubbelfield of the Marshfield Presbyterian church will conduct the services.

BIG LEAGUE RAGES

BROOKLYN SETS NEW PACE IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

Braves Show Little Indication of Reaching Top Rank—Three Close in American

BOSTON'S NEW PARK
(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
BOSTON, Aug. 18.—"Braves' Field," the greatest baseball park in the country, seating 43,500, was opened today as the new home of the National League Club. The world pennant, won last year, was unfurled.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Brooklyn set the pace in the National League during the week just ended and is strongly pressing Philadelphia for the leadership in the senior major league organization. The Superbas won six out of the seven games they played last week, regaining a strong hold on second place and putting themselves in a position to displace the leaders should the latter show any signs of faltering.

The Phillies, however, do not appear to be in a faltering mood. They dropped only one contest during last week, putting three to their credit and playing the steady game that has kept them at the top or near it for the greater part of the season.

The Braves are not having a very successful time in working toward the top. Last year at this stage of the race they were in the full stride of their march to a pennant and a world's championship. Now they are hovering around the .500 mark, with no evidence of the climbing power they displayed in 1914.

The American League contest is an altogether different affair. Long ago it became apparent that only three teams had a chance for the pennant. The games of last week seem fairly to have measured the chances of the trio. The Boston won seven games and dropped one. Detroit and Chicago each played four games, winning three and losing one each. The Red Sox, of course, were playing on their home grounds, but they have proved an extraordinary good team this year.

Kansas City had a disastrous week of it in the Federal League, dropping enough to plunge them from first place to fourth during the week ended Saturday. The first five clubs, however, remain closely bunched, with changes among them possible as the result of a day or two's play.

DECIDE DREDGING

PORT OF COQUILLE EXPECTED TO KNOW TOMORROW

Julius Larson Awaits Decision Regarding His Dredge—Work May Be Put Off For Year

Dredging of the Coquille River between the south fork and Myrtle Point will probably be decided on tomorrow, according to Julius Larson, who owns the bucket dredge Oregon and the Beaver. He expects to know then whether or not the work is to be done and he shall take one of his dredges to the Coquille.

He says the Port of Coquille now is short of money and may have to defer the work until next year. The work to be included in the proposed project is the taking out of shoals and snags along about a two-mile stretch of the river where navigation is now practically impossible.

Boats are now unable to get up as far as Myrtle Point and those that are freighting from Coquille are now said to land almost a mile below Myrtle Point and from there the freight is hauled in wagons into town.

MONEY TO LOAN

Arrangements have been made with the Bankers Mortgage Corporation of this state to lend several thousand dollars on improved farm lands. Only requirement is that a small percentage of the loan be invested in stock of said corporation after being satisfied such is a good investment. No Commissions charged for negotiating the loan. Quick action.

5,000 EAT CHEESE

FREE SANDWICHES GREAT STUNT SAYS VISITOR

Miss Frances Frause Tells of Coos County Day at Exposition Where Advertising Hit Was Scored

Five thousand visitors to the Fair ate sandwiches of Coos and Tillamook cheese on the Coast Counties day, according to Miss Frances Frause, who returned last evening on the Santa Clara and who aided in the serving that afternoon. Others from Coos Bay who served were Mrs. Carl Albrecht, Mrs. D. L. Rood, and Miss Adnee Palmer, who taught here a year ago.

The fact that sandwiches were being served absolutely free was a feature in itself, said Miss Frause, but the fact that they were made of cheese which made everyone ask, "Where did it come from?" and where can we get some?" was distinctly one of the best advertising features this county could have had.

On Coos county day there were many present and former residents who registered at the Oregon building. Many met there with former friends they had not seen in years and enjoyed chats that afternoon.
