MISS JENNIE TANNER BECOMES BRIDE OF J. H. CORRIGAN

Auto to Exposition—Second Car Takes Load of Marshfield People to San Francisco

Newly married, J. H. Corrigan and bride this morning left in their machine for San Francisco on a honeymoon trip. Old shoes of every available size and description adorned the car making necessary the big sign "just married" in the rear of the auto. In a second machine, driven by Charles Knox, went Mr. and Mrs. William T. Gale, Miss Russell, of Beaver Hill; Earl Chisholm and Stella Williams.

Keeping the matter pretty much to themselves Mr. Corrigan and Miss Jennie Tanner went quietly over to Coquille yesterday afternoon and there secured their license and were married. They returned to the St. Lawrence Hotel last evening.

This morning friends were waiting at the car. There was a deluge of rice, old shoes and the young couple were wished good luck on their trip. Mr. Corrigan is well known here as the driver who established the Eastport jitter line. He is in partnership with the Knox Brothers. It is possible that he will remain in California for some months on a stage line before returning here again.

The bride is a sister of Mrs. G. A. Bonebrake and has for some time been employed in the Right Cafe.

SEA WEDDING HALTS FEAST

Roseburg Pair Are Married With Ocean Ride Unusually Rough

ROSEBURG, Ore., Aug. 19.—Burr Jones and Mrs. Jennie Kendall, of Roseburg, were married on the high seas off Newport. They took passage on the Ollie S., and, upon reaching the three-mile limit, were united in marriage by Captain Carner. The sea was unusually rough, and a wedding feast was scarcely in order when the newlyweds and their friends reached the shore.

REV. HALL'S FATHER DIES IN HUNTINGTON

Parent of Marshfield Minister Succumbs to Old Age After Long Illness—Was Highly Respected

Rev. G. LeRoy Hall received a telegram last night announcing the death of his father, Daniel A. Hall, at Huntington, Oregon. Death was due to old age, Mr. Hall being about 82. He had been ill for a long time.

Mr. Hall was a native of New York but spent most of his life in Northern Pennsylvania, coming from there to Oregon ten years ago. He had been engaged in agricultural pursuits most of his life. Besides Rev. G. LeRoy Hall, he is survived by a wife and two daughters, Misses Mattie and Clara Hall, who resided with the parents.

Mr. Hall led a remarkably upright life, having no bad habits. Sometime ago he expressed a desire to have his son baptize him and was planning to have the baptismal service this fall. Rev. Hall visited home a few months ago. The deceased lived at Pendleton for several years.

FISHING TROUBLES OF ROGUE RIVER COMING TO HEAD

Five suits on Court Docket for Settlement Next Week—Attorneys Depart Well Groomed

Five suits in connection with the Rogue River fish war clutter the circuit court docket at Gold Beach. The session opens there next Monday and probably will last longer than usual. C. R. Peck, representing the Macleay estate left for Gold Beach today; John D. Goss expects to leave tomorrow there to aid in representing the Seaborg interests. He will work in conjunction with C. H. Buffington, an attorney at Gold Beach and who was here for several months last winter.

Four of the five suits have been instituted by the Macleay people. One of them is brought about by the present location of the Seaborg cannery, the claim being that the building is situated partially within the Macleay property. Another is an injunction suit against B. A. Seaborg and eighty fishermen, the claim being that they maliciously interfered with the nets of the Macleay fishermen and also that they trespassed on the tide lands said to belong to the latter.

A third suit is the contempt proceeding brought against a man named Spencer for the alleged violation of a perpetual injunction.

The Seaborg people have brought suit for $500 on bond put up by the Macleay interests at the time they were granted a temporary injunction which was soon dissolved. They claim they were damaged to the extent of $850 but the bond was only $500, thus limiting them.

Possibly with the coming of the court, law and order in the fishing on Rogue River will be restored and constant allegations of unlawfulness on both sides with threatened bloodshed can be averted.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Bids will be received by Andrew Stora, August 21st, 1915, for the clearing of school grounds in district No. 36, at the Forks of Coos River. Right reserved to reject any or all bids.

CLEM WELLS AND HARRY ROHM BAG FIVE ANIMALS

Have to Shoo Game Out of Camp With Sticks and Stones in the Eden Ridge Country

Five deer in three days hunting is the record of Clem Wells and Harry Rohm, who returned yesterday with well-filled packs. Both complained that the deer were too plentiful and one night they had a hard time "shooting" an old doe out of the grub boxes. The men brought one fresh deer and about 70 pounds of jerked venison.

On Saturday they went about 20 miles back of Bridge into the Eden Ridge country and were out at sunrise on Sunday. By nine o'clock they had secured a five-pointer. Rohm says the deer were so plentiful that they could hunt only two or three hours a day. Every one of the three days in that country the men saw bands of 15 and 20 deer, and on the way out they passed eight more.

Altogether they shot three five-pointers and two spiked bucks. One of the five-point deer was stunned by a bullet that barely grazed the base of its horns. This stunned the animal and the men arrived in time to cut its throat. There was not a wound on its body and it was just about coming to when Rohm grabbed it and held it fast while Wells used the knife.

Boone Gets Five
James Boone, Mike Boone and Claire Swaine returned to Powers yesterday from a trip to the Eden Valley country where they secured five nice bucks.

Several deer have been killed close to Powers.
Kruger Gets One
Bob Kruger returned last evening from Daniels Creek where he secured a nice spike buck. There used to be quite a few deer in the Daniels Creek country but the last few seasons it has been hunted pretty thoroughly.

GET ONE DEER

Enoch Holland and son Enoch Jr. and Don Lawyer went on a hunting trip up Isthmus Inlet last Saturday. Mary Holland and Kathleen Fitzgerald accompanying them for an outing. Don Lawyer returned to town Monday morning, the rest of the party staying until Tuesday evening. Enoch Holland Jr. was the only one of the party who killed a deer.

CHINOOKS BEGIN TO RUN IN LOWER BAY

One Boat Reported to Have Caught 60 Last Night—Cannery to Open About September

Fishermen report that the Chinooks are beginning to run well in the lower bay and it was reported today that one boat last night secured 60 large fish. Manager La Mure of the Tallant Cannery on North Front street said this morning the cannery would probably open September 1.

He is accepting fish at present and will salt them down. This year he expects to employ young women in the cannery instead of a Chinese crew.

The Chinooks are said to be principally in the lower bay so far this season and have not yet, in any numbers, started up Coos River.

PORTLAND, Aug. 19.—For the second time in succession the Bees administered a drubbing to the Portland Beavers when they stung them yesterday with a 1 to 0 score. Inasmuch as both days the final result tabulated the same, it is proved that the Beavers have worked hard, and though beaten, the visitors have had little to crow about.

At San Francisco yesterday the Angels bested the Seals, 11 to 9, a score that sounds like the opening shots at the first of the season. The scores of yesterday follow:

NORTH BEND NEWS

North Bend have returned from their outing at their South Coos River home.

F. W. Olson and Wm. Richards and wife returned from Coos River yesterday bringing some venison back with them.

Mrs. C. W. Martin and son, Oliver, left yesterday for Alturas, Calif. where they expect to engage in the furniture business. Mr. Martin will probably remain in charge of the North Bend store for the time being.

County Fruit Inspector Nick Johnson was here from Coquille yesterday inspecting fruit in the local markets. He found quite a few infected apples and notified the dealers that they must get rid of it at once or be prosecuted for violating the state law. He does not want to work any hardships on either grower or dealer but wants the law adhered to.
