BORN

WALL. — To Mr. and Mrs. James Wall, a daughter, their second child.

More Deer.—Joe Josephson is the first deer hunter of the South Inlet section to report bagging a big buck.

Rafts in Bay.—E. W. Bernitt brought own a big raft of logs Thursday from the Ubeck camp for the Courtney mill. Geo. Herron and Levi Smith took a raft from Henryville to the Swayne & Hoyt mill at North Bend last night.

Talks Good Roads.—There were about ten business men present at the Business Men's luncheon at the Coos Bay Hotel, who spent several months here last winter in the law office of John D. Goss, has been appointed attorney for the administrator in the estate of Pat Eagan, in Curry County. The estate is said to be worth about $75,000. Mr. Buffington is a young attorney and already has won a name for himself at Gold Beach.

Gets New Car.—Glen Rozelle and Al Nichols came up from Empire this morning to get the fine new Reo Six which Mr. Rozelle bought from Ed Steele.

Goes After Deer.—J. E. Cooley left today for North Coos River where he and the family will enjoy an outing at the A. Kardell ranch and incidentally he will try and get a deer.

Gets Two Pointer.—George Wasson came up from South Inlet this morning bringing a two-point buck that he shot there yesterday. He said that several deer have been secured in there already this year.

Called Away.—Rev. G. L. Hall left early Thursday morning for Hermiston, Ore., called there by the death of his father D. A. Hall. Owing to this Mr. Hall's engagements around the Bay will have to be called off until his return which will be perhaps in a few days.

Big Picture of Gathering.—John C. Kendall today received a large picture from San Francisco showing the gathering there two weeks ago of the Sigma Chi fraternity. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nasburg and Mr. and Mrs. Kendall are the local people shown. There were in all 161 delegates and more than 390 members of the fraternity were present.

Out Door Service.—The Norwegian Lutheran churches of Marshfield and North Bend will hold an open air service at Port Barnum, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. S. P. motor car will leave North Bend at 9:30 and will stop at Marshfield and Bunker Hill on the way up. All bring baskets.

Give Dance.—The Summer Orchestra will give a dance tonight at the Finnish hall in Marshfield. It is expected that there will be a large attendance as a good time is assured and the proceeds go to the benefit of the organization.

Buy Auto.—Mr. Divilbiss, of Port Orford, came up yesterday and got a 1915 Buick from Geo. Goolrum and left for home. Divilbiss brothers recently sold their mining property on The Sixes, each of the three brothers getting about $15,000 and each buying an auto.

Purchase Ford.—The Book & Prescott Grocery Company of Eastside, has purchased a Ford from J. B. Tower. This is a direct result of a Times Want Ad inserted by Mr. Book in one issue of The Times.

Soon to Break Camp.—Out of the 18 or 19 tents pitched at Bastendorf beach earlier in the season only about three now remain. Jas. Cox and family and Gordon Smith's family expect to move up from there on Tuesday after several week's stay. Dr. R. H. Walter and family may remain a few days' longer.

Has Big Estate.—Word has been received here that Collier H. Buffington, who spent several months here last winter in the law office of John D. Goss, has been appointed attorney for the administrator in the estate of Pat Eagan, in Curry County. The estate is said to be worth about $75,000. Mr. Buffington is a young attorney and already has won a name for himself at Gold Beach.

Marriage is Rumored.—It was rumored today from pretty good authority that Miss Mary Reed, of North Bend, on Tuesday will be married to Floyd Galbraith, a Gorst & King driver. The couple are expected to make their home in North Bend. Mr. Galbraith's parents reside in Eastside.

Wait for Funerals.—Fred Wilson says that Marshfield should adopt an ordinance prohibiting vehicles or pedestrians crossing a street through a funeral procession. Most of the larger cities and in fact the towns have regulations making it an offense to "cut through" a funeral procession.

Two Accidents.—The three and one-half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Freese, of South Coos River, fell while playing yesterday and broke his right arm. Taylor Siglin, of Isthmus Inlet, road supervisor and well-known pioneer, sustained a broken ankle in a run-away accident near his home.

Store Explosives.—Capt. Pete Olson of the Rustler, announces that he will make a trip to Portland next week to bring a special shipment of about 25 tons of dynamite, powder and explosives, which the Dupont people will store here to supply the trade in this section. They are putting in a warehouse on Isthmus Inlet.

Here 48 Years.—"Uncle Henry" Ploeger of Myrtle Point who stopped over here yesterday while en route hom from Portland recalled that he arrived on Coos Bay forty-eight years ago June 25. He says that John Bear and Chas. Lindgren are the only residents of Marshfield living here now who were here when he came.

Take Hike to Beach.—Hal Wheeler, Charles Frodelius and Howard Kelly left yesterday afternoon for Sunset Bay on a hike. They expect to return from there tomorrow evening. The young men took with them blankets and provisions for camping a couple of nights in the open.

Goes as Agent.—C. B. Landers, accompanied by his wife, left this morning for Powers, where he has been appointed station agent. He will relieve C. R. Dindinger who, with his family, expects to move back here again and will be employed in the storehouse and the office of the Coos Bay, Roseburg & Eastern. Mr. and Mrs. Landers expect to camp for several weeks, taking a tent along with them.

Attended Buyer's Week.—Henry Ploeger, of Myrtle Point and wife, Mrs. Ploeger, returned on the Breakwater Friday from Portland. Mr. Ploeger attended the Buyers' Week meetings, being about the only person present there from Coos county. He said there were about 500 merchants and it was estimated that they purchased in that time about $1,000 worth of goods. The weather was very warm and he was glad to get back. They will return home today.

Aid For Band.—It is expected that steps will be taken soon to raise funds by popular subscription to maintain the Coos Bay concert band until the next general election when it is proposed to submit a measure providing for a regular levy for the organization in the tax, making it a regular municipal band. Fred Wilson, former manager, is in favor of this plan and will probably take active steps to carry it out.

Slashings Cause Smoke.—The burning of slashings up Coos River is causing most of the smoke that for a couple of days has hung heavy over the bay. William Cox says that a slashing fire is burning about three miles above Allegany at one of the Clarence Gould logging camps. Fire wardens are in the vicinity, but it is not thought the fire will spread. Mr. Cox said it has been extremely hot lately at Allegany and even at Golden Falls.

Put Logs Across Road.—Gordon Smith, who came up in his machine from Bastendorf beach this morning, said that a party of hikers some time last night passed down the road pulling down practically every sign they came to, throwing the boards in the road, with the nails sticking up. In several places big logs had been rolled across the road, big enough to require a couple of men to take them away. The fact that ever and anon a "dead soldier" was found by the roadside is taken as an explanation of the lawlessness.

ELKS NOTICE.—The boat Ranger will leave the Market street dock at 8:30 Sunday morning for Camp Killarney, W. P. Murphy's summer home. All Elks wives will bring lunch baskets. Party returns in the early evening. Free transportation. COMMITTEE.
