GAME WARDEN ROUTED SMALLPOX OFFENDER

Related Story of Deer Hunter Who Rushed the Open Season for Deer Told By Gold Beach Paper

The following belated story of how a game warden was scared out by a Curry County man who killed some deer before the season legally opened is told by the Gold Beach Globe:

"A story is going the rounds in sporting circles in Gold Beach and vicinity substantially as follows: A gentleman well known in these parts went to the country to have it out with a bad attack of smallpox, and being of a genial turn of mind he and the dreaded pest were soon on speaking terms which ripened into genuine friendship. In company with small pox he took long rambles into the forest. On such occasions from force of habit he took his gun. On one of these trips it is related that when returning with a load in his gunny-sack he came face to face with the game warden. The warden recognized him and vanished, but he failed to understand what was said. The sound of flying footsteps died away the two friends were alone. Leisurely lighting his pipe, he picked up his parcel which had been dropped and was happy on the way, and now he strongly recommends small pox as an antidote for game warden contamination.

FRANK E. ALLEY IS PLACED IN JAIL

Former Prominent Roseburg Man Surrendered by Bondsmen at Portland on Federal Indictment

PORTLAND, Aug. 21.—Frank E. Alley, Roseburg attorney, who is under federal indictment jointly with Carlos Byron, a Seattle timber man, for alleged subornation of perjury, was surrendered to the federal marshal by his bondsmen, of whom Frederick Kriba is one. No explanation for the surrender is made. Alley's bonds were fixed at $2,500. Alley was recently released from jail at Seattle, where he was held charged with grand larceny.

Mr. Alley is also wanted in Roseburg, where he is charged with the crime of non-support. On account of the fact that Mr. Alley is under federal indictment he cannot be returned to this city for trial.

GOOD ROAD PLAN

Dora, Oregon, Aug. 16, 1915. Editor Coos Bay Times:

Will you please allow me space in your valuable paper for just a word about our public roads, and a system which I believe would bring about good roads as well as satisfaction to all interested within a reasonably short time.

First. Place the county in one road district.

Second. Vote a special road tax every two years at our regular times of election—whatever levy might be decided on at the primaries by a vote of the people. Then set aside four centers of the county, say Marshfield, Bandon, Coquille City and Myrtle Point; begin at each center on all roads leading therefrom, and build the roads in proportion to each road's representation, under a systematic system and under the supervision of one competent road builder.

Now there seems to be a great deal of dissatisfaction in regard to the petitions now being circulated asking for a vote on bonding the county for $270,000 to build roads. To begin with, I, with many others, do not believe in this move for several reasons. The first is that this amount is entirely too small. Second, by the special tax system we could apply the interest on the bonds in building roads. Third, we would have help from the timber resources of the country, which are being fast removed, where under the bonding system we would receive but little help.

Yours for better roads under a better system.

M. J. KRANTZ.

NINETY DESCENDANTS PRESENT

In 1871, Samuel Robison, a native of Lancaster, Pa., settled in Coos county. He brought his wife and children with him and the latter like the family in Wordsworth's poem numbered seven, only these were above ground. The descendants of this family to the number of ninety met at Fishtrap last Sunday at a family gathering. There are 107 all told but the remaining 17 being detained by business more or less important.

The old folks are dead, Mr. Robison dying in 1892—he was born in 1805—but of the children four sons and one daughter were present. These are Rock, Frank, Tennessee and Price Robison. George Robison, who lives at Rogue river was not able to be present. The only surviving daughter, Mrs. Martha J. Averill, was also present, having come from Corvallis to attend the reunion.

There were three generations there and a count showed 12 babies in arms. The oldest present was under seventy. It is the family boast that all the descendants are normal. There are no fools, no cripples, no insane and none of them are or ever were in the penitentiary. All have clean records.—Bandon Recorder.

BIG RUN OF FISH

ROGUE RIVER FISHERMEN MAKE FROM $20 TO $100 PER DAY

High Prices Paid by Canneries Enable Them to Make Biggest Earnings in History of Industry

GOLD BEACH, Ore., Aug. 21.—During the past week a big run of salmon has been coming into Rogue River, and, owing to the high price paid the fishermen have been making the biggest earnings in the history of the fishing industry here.

The Wedderburn Trading company pays 50 cents for salmon caught in set and drift nets, while the Seaborg Cannery pays 75 cents. One day the seine turned in to the Wedderburn company 1,600 salmon, and the gill nets about 600, and Sunday night the gill net fishermen delivered 1,300 fish to the Wedderburn company and about 700 at Seaborg's, some of the drift boats catching as high as 150 salmon.

There are 25 men on the seine crew, and their earnings amounted to $800. Two men are in each drift boat, and the high boat one night earned about $175.

The Wedderburn cannery has been crowded to its full capacity. Last Sunday, to clean up a pile of 2,500 fish, the cannery ran from 5 o'clock in the morning until after 10 that night.

NORTH INLET PEOPLE ENJOY ALLEGANY TRIP

Residents of Hauser and Vicinity on Excursion to North Coos River in Capt. Galloway's Boat

(Special to The Times) HAUSER, Ore., Aug. 20.—Last Sunday, the friends and neighbors of Capt. Ned Galloway, at his invitation took possession of the good launch "North Star" and with the Captain at the wheel, started for Allegany on an outing.

An early start was made owing to the condition of the tide, but everyone was on deck at the appointed time. A stop was made at Marshfield to take aboard a freezer of ice-cream which Capt. Galloway generously furnished his guests.

The party landed at the Noah ranch, and dinner, of which there was a bountiful supply, was partaken under the trees by the waterside.

Several good pictures of the group were taken by Mr. Ed. Archer, the official photographer of the party, after which they once more embarked for the homeward trip, arriving at Hauser in the early evening, all voting the trip the best ever. The party was as follows: Capt. and Mrs. Ned Galloway, Master Roland Galloway, Mrs. Sarah E. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Archer, Miss Violet Archer, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stretch, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Howard, Mr. Davis Howard, Miss Gladys Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Small, Mr. Purdy Scott, Mr. Percy Gibbs, Miss Priscilla Gibbs, all of Hauser, Mrs. Laura Everett, Washington, Miss Eva Phillips of Sacramento, Cal., and Mr. Harvey May and Mr. J. Van Acker of the Southern Pacific Engineering Department, Miss Actaria Sprague of Schofield.

MILLER'S DOUBTFUL ALIBI

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Miller are camping for a fortnight near the Arizona Inn at Corbin. It was reported several days ago that an officious game warden had caused John R. trouble, but J. R. says that the report was incorrect and that the stains that were on his clothing a day or two before open season was from a cut finger, and he sticks to the story even though the finger tells another.—Port Orford Tribune.

GOLD BEACH NUGGETS

Collier H. Buffington has been employed as attorney by Mrs. Eliza Miller, the newly appointed administratrix of the estate of P. G. Egan, deceased.

The resignation of John Adams, deputy state game warden of Curry County, has been accepted by the state fish and game department.

White Brothers, who purchased the farm of Elvin Miller, were in town Saturday. They have all the air of old times. They have put on fourteen cows, are taking their milk to the Wedderburn cheese factory and bringing eggs and other good things to eat.

Dr. C. S. Campbell, of Coffeyville, Kansas, is a guest of Dr. Dunlap. They are old schoolmates and for a long time Dr. Campbell has planned to spend a vacation with Dr. Dunlap. Dr. Campbell is the proprietor of a large hospital in his home town.

MYRTLE POINT WILL ADD TO WATER SUPPLY

Purchases Mullen Spring and Will Connect it With System—Council Plans for Sewage System

MYRTLE POINT, Aug. 21.—The Myrtle Point city council has accepted the deed from Geo. Mullen and wife to the city for the right of way and the water right to what is known as the Mullen Spring, the committee in charge of the matter having agreed to pay Mr. Mullen $200 for said right of way and water right. The water committee was instructed to arrange for the construction of the pipe line connecting the Mullen Spring with the city water system.

An ordinance regulating the licensing of peddlers was adopted.

In accordance with the report of the sewer committee the City Attorney had prepared an ordinance providing for the establishment of what will be known as Sewer district No. 1. Coming up for passage, this ordinance received the unanimous vote of all the councilmen present. This district takes in all that portion of the west or "down town" part of the city that can be taken into one drainage plane.

MAY MOVE BANK TO POWERS SOON

PORT ORFORD, Ore., Aug. 21.—E. J. Loney is understood to be figuring on moving his bank from Port Orford to Powers owing to the greater field that community offers. He has extensive tie interests here and will probably continue that business in Port Orford.

CORN GROWS TALL IN COOS COUNTY

J. G. Miller of Myrtle Point Has Field With Stalks Over Twelve Feet High

That corn for ensilage can be raised in the Myrtle Point section we understand has been demonstrated many times but it is brought out very strikingly by a field of the forage crop being raised by J. G. Miller on the Lafferty place near Norway this season, from seed that was shipped here from Indiana. Mr. Miller brought a couple of stalks to town this week leaving one that measured 12 feet, 10 1/2 inches in height at the Bank of Myrtle Point, and another that is but three inches shorter at the Barklow grocery.

Miller states that a number of men who have looked at the field estimate that it will make close to forty tons of ensilage to the acre.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

MYRTLE POINT SCHOOL TAX IS TWENTY MILLS

Voters Approve of Directors Proposal for Big Levy to Redeem Warrants and Care for Improvements

MYRTLE POINT, Ore., Aug. 31.—At the special school meeting held at the Grammar school building the 20 mill tax proposed by the board of directors was endorsed by the voters of the district by a vote of 15 to 3. This millage, it is believed, will bring in ample funds to take care of outstanding warrants, meet the interest on the bond issue as well as to enable them to keep the Myrtle Point high school in the rank of standard high schools.

LONG AUTO TOUR

N. G. W. Perkins and family arrived home Tuesday from an auto tour of Southern Oregon and California, and which took them as far south as Tia Juana, Old Mexico. During the trip they visited Crater Lake National Park as well as the expositions at San Francisco and San Diego.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

W. C. T. U. OFFICERS

At the last regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Adell Herriott, president; Mrs. Ella Guerin, vice-president; Mrs. Myrtle Rackleiff, secretary and treasurer.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

RETURN FROM CALIFORNIA

Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Johnson returned last Sunday from their auto trip to the Exposition City. During their stay in the city the doctor spent the greater part of his time in doing post-graduate work in the medical school in that city.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

IF YOU WOULD BE POPULAR

Be sociable. Be useful. Be generous. Be a good listener. Never worry or whine. Study the art of pleading. Be frank, open and truthful. Be kind and polite to everybody. Be self confident but not conceited.

Never monopolize the conversation. Take a genuine interest in other people. Take pains to remember names and faces. Never criticize or say unkind things of others. Look for the good in others not for their faults.

Forgive and forget injuries, but never forget benefits. Cultivate health, and thus radiate strength and courage. Rejoice as genuinely in another's success as in your own.

Always be considerate of the rights and feelings of others. Have a good time but never let fun degenerate into license. Have a kind word, and a cheery, encouraging smile for every one.

Learn to control yourself under the most trying circumstances. Be respectful to women and chivalrous in your attitude toward men. Meet trouble like a man and cheerfully endure what you can't cure.

Believe in the brotherhood of man and recognize no class distinctions. Do not be self opinionated, but listen with deference to the opinions of others.

Never utter witticisms at risk of giving pain or hurting somebody's feelings. Be ambitious and energetic, but never benefit yourself at the expense of another.

Be courteous and agreeable to inferiors as you would to your equals or superiors. Do not bore people by telling them long tedious stories, or by continually dilating on your own affairs.
