MARSHFIELD BANDON FOUR STORES MYRTLE POINT POWERS

INITIATE EAGLES ROMANCE IS OUT

LOCAL DELEGATION OF 50 INITIATE 36 AT POWERS

Have Big Time at Metropolis—Horse Races Included in Program of Excitement

Close to 50 Coos Bay Eagles were in the delegation that swooped down on Powers yesterday and, before departing, added 36 new Eagles to the local Aerle. All arrangements had been made ahead of time and the members set to work with a vim on their big initiation. They returned home on the afternoon train.

The new Eagles have been invited here and expect to come down some Saturday evening to a special meeting, bringing the rest of the applicants who were unable to be initiated yesterday. They probably will have a club room at Powers. While standing in front of the Gaenon Hotel, some of the visitors spied five girls and boys dressed in the preferred cow-girl and boy costumes, and straightaway a race was featured.

Chas. Flanagan picked the steed belonging to Miss Josephine Hayes. A purse was put up, and, though he weighs about 190 pounds, he proved a good jockey and brought home the bacon from the entire field. The purse was turned over to Miss Hayes.

Richard Hayes, a brother, rode in another race and secured second place, despite the fact that his horse went "hog wild" and included the front porch of the hotel in his course. The fact that the street had just been graded and graveled only added to the fun.

At noon the Eagles sat down to a big chicken dinner at the Hotel Gaenon, conducted by Mr. and Mrs. George Craig. They were very much pleased with the manner in which they were treated.

CITY DADS GATHER

Agree To Make Personal Service in First Street Injunction—Port Has Pleas to Make

Two weeks have the city fathers reated. This evening they again take up the reins of government. It is expected that the matter of the Southern Pacific motor franchise and also the taking over of the Mill Slough drainage system will be up for discussion.

The councilmen have agreed to take personal service in the injunction granted C. R. Peck by Judge Watson in the First street improvement controversy and this, it is believed, will mean no discussion along this line for the session tonight.

At the last meeting of the council the Port came seeking the unloading of the further responsibility for Mill Slough and the matter was deferred because there was hardly a "corporal's guard" of the council present.

MISS FLOSSIE LATTIN TO BECOME BRIDE OF E. B. MARTIN

Couple Brought Together When Young Woman Sells Smoke to Prospective Husband

Miss Flossie B. Lattin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Lattin, will be married at seven o'clock this evening to E. B. Martin, of Portland according to friends who are on the inside of the romance that had its inception when the popular young woman attended the cigar counter at the Chandler Hotel met her future husband, traveling for the Pacific Coast Syrup Company with headquarters in Portland.

Mr. Martin left in the car of A. S. Hammond shortly after noon today for Coquille where he was accompanied by Don Gardner, A. S. Hammond and D. J. McGee. And furthermore whether or not the prospective groom will be allowed to come back in a hurry is another phase of the question that is worrying still other friends.

For many years Mr. Martin has been coming into this territory and he has made a host of friends to wish him well. His territory now takes in part of Idaho, Washington and Oregon. Miss Lattin was raised on Coos Bay and is very popular here.

A GOOD SHOWING

POSTOFFICE RANKS WELL IN POSTAL SAVINGS LIST

Deposits Total About $57,000 and Greeks Have More Than Any Other Nationality

Depositors born outside the United States hold nearly three-fourths of the total postal savings deposits at Marshfield, according to interesting figures dealing with the nationality of postal savings depositors just compiled by the Post Office Department. On July 1st, there was on deposit at the Marshfield office $36,390, of which foreign-born owned $26,451, and the American-born $9,939. The Greeks lead all other nationalities in deposits with $10,220 to their credit, then follow the American-born with $9,939, the Finns with $3,490, and the Turks with $2,730. Eleven other nationalities are represented among the depositors. Twenty-two depositors have reached the $500 limit and can deposit no more, despite their appeals to do so. Of this number, 19 are foreign-born.

The postal savings service at Marshfield has been seriously handicapped from the start by unfortunate restrictions in the original postal savings Act, which forbid the acceptance of more than $100 a month from a depositor and $500 as the maximum amount that may be accepted from him. The restrictions have proved particularly disappointing to the foreign-born who often insist on depositing their entire savings at one time and can not understand why the United States Government, in which they have implicit confidence, is willing to safeguard a part of their savings and not all of them. Thousands of dollars, earned by honest labor in Marshfield, have thus been driven into hiding and lost to local channels of trade.

In a recent report to the Post Office Department, Postmaster McLain said:

"A number of times we have had prospective depositors come to the window with over a thousand dollars and when they found out that the limit was $500 would not deposit any. Our constant experience is along these lines."

PENNANT IS WON

EASTSIDERS VICTORS IN 12 INNING BATTLE YESTERDAY
Beaver Hill Puts Up Hard Scrap—Tigers Shove Hatchery Into Cellar at North Bend

In a 12-inning pitcher's battle Eastside yesterday at Beaver Hill defeated the miners, who put up a plucky battle for the pennant of the Coos Bay League 7 to 4. At North Bend the Tigers brought away a 3 to 1 victory over the Hatchery in a spirited contest, with Fisher and Johnson the star performers in the twirler's box.

Beaver Hill and Eastside both bolstered their line-ups with imported players. A large delegation went to Beaver Hill from Coos Bay in machines, and many visitors were there from up the river.

In the ninth frame, with the score standing 3 to 4 for Beaver Hill, Howell, center fielder for the Eastsiders, leaned out and grabbed a three hagger, Collier, pitcher, singled and the score was tied, 4 to 4.

For two innings both teams played air tight ball and then in the 12th chapter Beaver Hill's centerfielder allowed the ball to zip through his legs and down the diamond while the Eastsiders ran in three tallies and the pennant had been won.

Beaver Hill ran her bases well often taking chances that were dangerous, but the players got away with it while it was noticeable that Eastside took no chances.

Roy Gill started pitching for Beaver Hill but at the end of the first frame went to short stop, giving his place up to Echus, of Myrtle Point.

The lineups follow:
Eastside Position
Collier Pitcher
Tuttle Catcher
Maloney First Base
Dooley Second Base
Comstock Short Stop
Robison Third Base
Oerding Left Field
Howell Center Field
Telfison Right Field
Hits, Collier 4; Gill, Echus, Scorby 15.
Umps—West and Russell.

A bunching of hits in the eighth frame was responsible for the Tiger's victory at North Bend. Up until that time they had been kept well scattered and the score stood 1 to 1 with one of the best pitcher's battles of the season on Between Fisher and Johnson.

There were close to 200 at the game, many coming down from Coos River for the last game of the year. Kissam, for the Tigers, had an "on" day for several times he made wonderful put outs with one hand catches and once he ran out into right field and grabbed a sizzler that had several runs marked all over it.

The lineups follow:
Hatchery AB, H, R, E.
G. Johnson C. F. 3 0 0 0

WRESTLER IS HURT

Charles Rentrop, at Port Orford, Put Out by Lutsey—O'Connell Loses Match to Lutsey

O'Connell, who during the summer months travels about taking on matches, said that he was given $150 as a guarantee before coming in here. On July 3 he managed to throw Lutsey and was invited back. He said most of the men were afraid to bet this time and that there was little money up.

O'Connell secured the first fall Friday night, but hurt Lutsey's leg. Lutsey secured his falls on clever holds. The first fall was in 26 minutes, the second in two minutes and the third in 18 minutes.

Thrown Over Head
In the match of Saturday night Rentrop, who was rated there as the middle-weight champion of Europe "before the war," was thrown over Lutsey's shoulders and landed on his head. A doctor and nurse were in attendance and for a time it was believed he would not come to.

Clarke Fensler was here Saturday and stated that probably George Karrington, rated as the light heavy weight "champ" of the world, might be in here for the Myrtle Point Fair securing matches.
