Auto to California.—A. T. Haines and son, George, left in their auto last night for California and will make a tour of the bay producing districts to buy a winter's supply.

Gravel on Road.—Gravel is being placed on the lobby road just beyond First Addition, several loads having been hauled in there and autoists say that with this spread out and rolled down, there will be a decided difference in the highway.

Begets Suit.—Deputy Sheriff A. P. Davis today served notice on Mat Anderson and wife, Ida S. Anderson, of a suit begun by the First National Bank to foreclose a mortgage for $1000 on their property on South Broadway and in First Addition. Besides the mortgage and interest, due last February, a $400 attorney fee is added.

Many Go Blackberrying.—Evergreen blackberries in woodland dell and swale called forth dozens of blackberrying parties, most of whom returned to the city with well-filled baskets and buckets and sundry scratched arms and faces. The berries are said to be as thick as usual this year and many a housewife is already at work canning the delicious wild harvest.

Back to War.—Parties in front of Beaver Hill Saturday night said that two former Beaver Hill men were now at the front fighting with the Canadian troops. A third one got mixed up in the alleged violations of neutrality by the British Consul recruiting at San Francisco. He was Pat Devellin and was brought back from New York to San Francisco as a witness.

Hearing September 20.—Judge Schildebrede has assigned September 20 at 10 a. m. as the time for the hearing of Manassa and son, of Bandon, in the bankruptcy court.

J. Thurston, Mrs. Jean Brown, Miss Vivian Craig, Miss Ellen Thorrrose, Miss Emille Miller and Jim Hansen.

Start Long Trip.—In the machine of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Putnam, of Seattle, Mrs. W. G. Chandler, with her mother, Mrs. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Tremaine, of Vancouver, B. C., left this morning via Myrtle Point for the north. Mrs. Tremaine and Mrs. Chandler expect to spend several weeks at the summer home of Mrs. Tremaine's uncle in Washington.

Had Close Call.—Art Smith, the aviator whose daring feats at the San Francisco Exposition during the early summer caused many Coos Bay visitors to marvel, had a close call Saturday evening at the Iowa State Fair when his machine struck an electric wire 30 feet from the ground wrecking the aeroplane. Smith was not hurt.

Slip Over the Edge.—William Farrell and Louis England, the latter claiming no relation to King George in any way, slipped over the briny edge on Saturday night and fell in up to their necks in the Slough of Despond from whence Chief Carter rescued them. At the Carter Hotel they were given rooms but nary a fiber hit the general fund.

Picnic on Coos River.—Arthur Daigle, of Bay Point, Cal., is here visiting with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Daigle, of Bunker Hill, and yesterday the Alice H. was chartered to take the entire family up south Coos River for the day. Mr. Daigle, who is an employee of the C. A. Smith company, expects to leave Wednesday for the south again. He visited here at Christmas time.

Now Pour Concrete.—Ben Ostlund has returned from Bandon where he was for several days looking after the work on the new B. B. block. He says that the concrete will probably all be poured into the moulds by Tuesday or Wednesday and the men will then immediately get to work finishing up, though this is expected to take several weeks yet. The building may be completed by the latter part of October and ready then for occupancy.

To Hold Special Meeting.—A special meeting of the Port Commission will be held on Wednesday evening when the members will meet with Claude Nashburg, representing the Nashburg Land Company, to make a settlement in the question of a dredge fill amounting to about $4,000. It is said that an agreement will be made so that suit will probably not have to be brought for the collection.

To Talk Pictures.—A committee from the local Elks lodge and the advertising committee of the Chamber of Commerce will meet with representatives of the North Bend chamber this evening there to talk over the taking of moving pictures during the Bridge Carnival, October 8 and 9. It is proposed to take these pictures in connection with the film recently taken in the Elk's Day at Bandon, all of which are later to be used as advertisements of Coos county.

Last Day for Sailors.—When September morn dawns on Wednesday, the season for straw hats is off. This is the official "drop" of the fashion centers and it is even intimated, though quite rudely of course, that anyone seen with a straw lid after that date is out of date. However Dad ought to have a chance to get full wear out of the sailor he bought late in the season. 98 cents off, and Willie may have a trifle more than the brim left on that 25 cent "sunflower" he bought in May and so there may be a few straw hats at large after September 1, though it may be unethical.

Brothers Long Apart.—Jacob Mattson, a well known resident of Marshfield, was given a joyous surprise Saturday evening when his brother, Nick Mattson, of Portland, dropped in to visit him. The brothers had been separated for thirty-five years and had not heard from each other. They came from Finland to Michigan where they separated. Jacob coming to Coos Bay. Nick went to Portland and is working there but did not know his brother was so near him. Recently he had word from his family in Finland that Jacob Mattson was on Coos Bay and he came at once and they are having a fine visit.

Greeks Eat Lamb.—When John Flanagan and J. C. Kendall, chefs for the annual Sigma Chi picnic, rang the official bell yesterday shortly after noon on the greensward at Goodwills place the lamb had been roasted to a beautiful brown on the long spit over the fire. The men had gone up the night before to put everything in readiness. They were unable to find any crawfish however. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. John Flanagan, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nashburg, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butler, Mrs. Charles Hall, Mrs. Goebel, Genevieve Souzatenken, Frances Williams, Madge Barry, Grace Kruse, Tom T. Bennett, I. R.
