EXTRA TROUSERS

are a good investment—but if they are DUTCHESS TROUSERS, a SPLENDID investment.

We are now showing the new Fall Styles—a tremendous variety of these nation-famous, warranted Trousers.

You will note some exceptionally smart models among them—styles that could not ordinarily be duplicated at double the price. Dutchess values are more marked than ever.

Observe Labor Day.—The banks were closed today and the post office open only between 9 and 10 a. m. and there were no deliveries in the city because of this being Labor Day. These were practically the only observations in Marshfield of the legal holiday.

Brings New Car.—Lynn Lambeth returned last evening from Portland, where he went with his Winton trading it off there for a new 1915 model which he will use in his charter work. He had a quick run down with no delays. This morning Roy Ruffner left in his Winton for Portland where he expects to trade it in on a new car.

Huckleberries Plentiful.—There are probably several dozen huckleberry pies scattered through the homes of the city as the results of yesterday's labors in the highways and byways. There were many parties out picking the berries and the results in most cases were very good for at this time of the year the "huckles" are at their best and are very plentiful.

Motor to Brewster Valley.—A delightful trip was enjoyed by a party that yesterday motored out to Brewster Valley to picnic for the day. Those included were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harrigan, Miss Harrigan, Marjorie Cowan, Myrtle Cowan, Alice Curtis, Eva Dresser, Rudolph Cople, William Curtis, Frank Curtis and W. A. Ackerman. They returned on the road through Coquille last evening.

Gets Two Bucks.—Jesse I. Terrell returned with his last evening tom Powers where they have been on a week's vacation. While there Mr. Terrell hunted with "Bud" Schoffner and between them, they secured two good sized bucks. Terrell even tells the story on himself, of how he demonstrated his shooting ability in front of a gang of loggers and how the deer finally walked off into the brush and disappeared from sight.

Go Via Drain Route.—Members of the City Council, Carl Albrecht, Carl Evertsen and George Cook, with City Engineer A. B. Gidley, Frank Caterlin and Stewart Lyons left yesterday morning via the Allegany & Drain auto stage to Portland where today they are inspecting an incinerator. They went in D. L. Foote's auto and also are expected back tomorrow evening over the same road. The Council meeting is set for Tuesday evening.

Fish Are Scarce.—The Tallant cannery on North Front street has not yet opened operations because of the scarcity of salmon. It is said the fishermen in the lower bay are selling their catches on the local market, in this way receiving a higher price for the fish. Manager John LaMure is now receiving fish from up Coos River, the launch Alice H bringing them down and these are being packed for shipment to Astoria. The cannery here will be opened as soon as the run warrants it.

Kingfisher, Own Captive.—Several days ago, last week sometime, a kingfisher sailed out of the bright blue sky and into a door in the Smith Terminal Dock and since then it has remained there, its own captive, for it fears to leave the ceiling and will not descend to any of the doors or windows. So for days the bird has flapped back and forth along the ceiling. Men on the dock have thrown sticks and stones at it, trying to drive the bird from the ceiling, but it refuses to go and may starve itself to death under the roof.

Celestial Takes Oath.—Claiming that a fellow countryman had gotten away with about $13.50 in cash a Chinaman called up the police station early this morning, demanding what could be done. He believed the man expected to leave on the early morning train for the Valley. Chief Carter went to the train, searched through the cars but found neither Chinaman nor money. The alleged loser claimed to be a laundryman on north Second street and said that the other man had been working for him.

Tells of Frank Case.—Constable Cox has received from Thomson, Georgia, several copies of The Jeffersonian, a weekly published by Tom Watson, and the issue is given over entirely to a review of the Leo Frank case. The stand is taken that Frank was guilty and the editor is made that he did not deny his guilt when asked about it, just before his hanging. "The law forfeited this man's life for a horrible crime, and he has paid it. That's all. Now let outsiders attend to their own business and leave ours alone." is a final statement.

New Thought Cult.—Austin M. Harritt of Kansas City arrived here a few days ago with a view to starting a Spiritualist or New Thought Cult on the Bay. He is a friend of Mr. Cole of Delmar.

Cut His Hand.—Leonard Brookler aged 8 years and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brookler residing near the Eastside mill, is suffering an injured hand which he hurt with a hatchet.

Auto Truck Arrives.—The new Buick auto truck arrived at Goodrum's Garage yesterday and later in the day was taken to Bandon by M. D. Sheppard. It was purchased by Mr. Davidson and will be used in the mail service between Bandon and Gold Beach.

Ben Willey Here.—Ben Willey formerly engaged in the plumbing business here as a member of the firm of Willey & Schroeder, but who left the Bay about eighteen months ago to locate in Canada, has returned here. He says he expects to remain on the Bay. Conditions in Canada are very bad and Seattle is also feeling the business depression keenly.
