BORN

GRUBBS—To Professor and Mrs. J. F. Grubbs, of North Bend, yesterday, September 6th, a ten-pound girl at Mercy Hospital. Mother and child are doing nicely. Mr. Grubbs is principal of the North Bend schools.

NICHOLS—To Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols, of Ferndale, Tuesday morning, September 7, 1915, a daughter. This is their third child and mother and daughter are doing very well.

Will Speak Sunday.—Miss Lura Hefty, the missionary who recently returned from China, will speak Sunday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church.

Saw Bear.—D. L. Foote came down from Allegany last evening and reports that the car which took the Marshfield city officials and Frank Catterlin out Sunday nearly ran over a bear. He said that Catterlin wanted to get out and catch the bear, but they would not let him.

Mel Among the Mormons.—The Times is in receipt of a card from Mel G. Duncan who is now in Salt Lake City, ordering the address of his copy of The Times changed in care of the Moose Club. Mel says there are just two classes in Salt Lake City, Gentiles and Mormons, but neglects to add to which class he belongs.

Methodist Silver Tea.—The ladies of the Methodist church will hold a silver tea to-morrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Perkins. There will be several musical numbers and Miss Lura Hefty, the returned missionary from China will give a talk, which promises to be very interesting.

Deer are Scarce.—Al Jensen has returned in his machine from Gold Beach where he went on one of his regular trips, being accompanied by C. F. McGeorge. At Corbin they spent most of a day in the brush but found no deer, and they said the country in there is too dry at this time of the year.

Entertained in Portland.—J. D. Mills had with him as guests last Thursday night at the Hotel St. Paul in Portland the following from Coos Bay: Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Lambeth, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hite, Miss E. McDonald, E. P. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Stinson, Miss Katherine Keveney, C. H. Haines, Al Baker, and Bert Folsom.

Subpoenas Served.—Grand jury subpoenas were served today by Constable Cox on C. B. Fundbaum, of North Bend, and Edgar Williamson, of Marshfield. The latter is called as a witness in connection with a theft in a local rooming house, an act for which a former cook on the Santa Clara is now in the county jail.

Party Get a Deer.—Isaac R. Tower, Ray Kaufman and Midge Welch returned last evening in Mr. Tower's car, from a week's trip to Curry county. They went back into the Sixes country and brought out a deer as a trophy of their hunt. They said that many does were seen but the bucks have taken great care to get under cover.

Apples Attract Attention.—Several large unusually good looking Gravenstein apples are attracting attention in the windows of the Chamber of Commerce, having been brought down yesterday by A. H. Powers from the ranch of Dr. George Dix and Ben McMullen, near Bridge. It is said that they have many boxes of the fruit this year, all of this good variety.

Too Much to Carry.—E. D. Speron started out last night under a handicap, having too large a load for such a narrow thoroughfare as Front street, and he was thankful when he reached the Hotel Carrier, where an enjoyable evening was spent, with breakfast this morning served in the tea room. He had 43 big iron dollars, coin of the realm, and five of the aforesaid trickled to the general fund, through the aid of Judge John Butler, who meanwhile declared strenuously that he "hated to do it."

Council This Evening.—According to Mayor Allen the council will meet this evening providing the three members return in time from Portland, otherwise the gathering will have to be postponed until tomorrow night. The city fathers are scheduled to arrive home this evening from a whirlwind trip to Portland, having left here Sunday morning, to view the incinerator there. Inasmuch as the Portland plant is now seeking stokers and giving the muscle tests that would put most strong men to shame, it is said there may be a chance later here for some of Coos Bay's huskies to try their skill.

Mahoney Toastmaster.—C. J. Mahoney, formerly of Marshfield but now practicing law at Florence, was toastmaster at the big banquet tendered the other night complimentary to the officers of the Grace Dollar, the largest vessel ever brought into the Siuslaw. The banquet was tendered Friday night and among those responding to toasts were Captain Preston, of the Grace Dollar; P. Schillerstrom, H. A. Starret, J. A. Wilkinson, D. M. Kemp, Captain T. J. Neely and W. H. Weatherson were among the speakers. The Grace Dollar loaded from the Point Terrace Mill which is principally owned by Paul Schillerstrom of North Bend.

Play Sunday.—The Bunker Hill boys team will play a Marshfield team next Sunday. Last Saturday they defeated the Bunker Hill Married Men's team a second time by a score of 13 to 6.

Club Day Changes.—The D. M. C. Club of North Bend will hold its first meeting of the season with Mrs. Ira Weitzel, on Thursday afternoon instead of with Mrs. William Vaughan on Wednesday.

Camp Accident.—Condron and McDonald's logging camp west of town is closed down for a couple of days as a result of blowing out a cylinder head of one of the engines. The damage was small except for the delay.

Leaves Tomorrow.—Deputy United States Marshall MacSwain expects to leave in the morning overland for Portland, taking with him William Shook who is bound over for a hearing before the federal officers on the charge of white slavery.

Here from Bandon.—R. A. Cortelli who has been at Bandon where he was engaged in putting a roof on a building, is home for a few days. He will return the latter part of the week to Bandon to commence another roofing job.

May Start Mill.—L. C. Reynolds of North Bend who recently completed work at his saw mill on South Slough, has the machinery stored and is now at the Siuslaw river country where he expects to go into the shingle manufacturing business if he finds conditions favorable.

Brother Dies.—Rev. Father H. J. McDevitt has received word of the death of his brother, Joseph F. McDevitt, aged 53, at Portland. The deceased is survived by a wife and one son. He lived at 244 Dixon Street, Portland, and the funeral was held there.

Close Temporarily.—Owing to Mrs. O. E. Sulley having sustained a badly wrenched ankle and foot which will confine her to her room for a month, Mr. Sulley and her husband have decided to temporarily close their delicatessen on North Broadway. They will reopen it as soon as she is able to resume work.

To Sell Bibles.—Rev. G. Le Roy Hall left today for Myrtle Point where he will have a booth on the Fair grounds for the disposal of bibles in connection with his religious work. He says that this time he will be careful about carting in suit cases of bibles. Last year he was stopped on the road, some one believing his suit cases to be part of a bootlegging outfit and one man wanted to know where he expected to put up.

Druggists Meet Tonight.—The Coos County Pharmaceutical Association will meet this evening for a business session and at nine o'clock in the Guild Hall of the Episcopal church will be held a banquet. Several visitors from the Valley are expected here. W. S. Wells, of Bandon and C. J. Fuhrman, of Coquille, arrived this afternoon. At Bunker Hill this afternoon was scheduled to be held a baseball game between the local druggists and those from the outside.
