

How Do You Stack Up

Are you as well dressed as any other man in your set? If not, why not? You can be and you should be.

Style, appearance and fit are not altogether a matter of how much you pay for clothes—it's how well you choose them.

Kuppenheimer Clothes

and you get the best and most dependable all-wool fabrics, too, at a moderate price within the reach of any man.

You can have only one excuse for not being as well dressed as any of your associates.

That excuse is that you haven't been here.

WEATHER FORECAST

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
OREGON — Fair, variable winds.

Service at Powers.—Rev. G. Le Roy Hall announces that he will hold services in the Loggers' Chapel at Powers tomorrow.

Auto to Fair.—Ward M. Blake, Jack Merene, L. Isaacson and Frank D. Cohan left today in the Blake auto for the Myrtle Point fair.

Go to Fair.—Mrs. John Snyder Sr. Mrs. Beanson, Nick Reichert, Mrs. Harold Bargel, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wright, were among those going from Coos Bay to the Myrtle Point Fair yesterday.

North Bend Teachers.—Miss Margaret Shaw sister of Mrs. R. W. Morrow, and Miss Wolverton of Hood River, sister of Mrs. R. E. Larnway have been elected teachers at North Bend and will start in next Monday.

Recovers Pin.—Miss Ruth Golden has claimed the pin found the other evening by Elizabeth Flanagan, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Flanagan, who promptly advertised it in The Times. Sometime ago, she found a watch charm, the owner of which advertised for it in The Times and gave her $5 reward.

To Teach in Cooscon.—Miss Ethel Stubblefield and Miss Byerly, of Ensidle, have gone to Cooscon where on Monday they take up their teaching duties. This morning Rev. Mr. Stubblefield went over to aid them in getting their quarters arranged for the school year.

Brass Not Stolen.—Chief Carter yesterday took A. B. Gidley to the North Bend Foundry to see if he could identify a supply of brass that had been bought there from some young boys. It was thought this might be the same as was stolen several months ago from the equipment of Perham and Gidley, contractors, then working on 10th street. About $300 worth disappeared at that time. Mr. Gidley could identify none of it and two boys taken up showed the officers that they had collected it lawfully. The police say they have information that the brass in question was shipped out of here by boat.

NOTICE TO ELKS

All members of Marshfield Lodge, No. 1160, B. P. O. E., will meet at the Masonic Temple at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning, September 12, to attend the funeral of our late brother, Dr. C. C. Taggart and to pay a final tribute of respect to his memory.

J. W. HILDENBRAND,
Exalted Ruler.

Sells Many Bibles.—Rev. G. LeRoy Hall writes from Myrtle Point that he has had excellent success with his bible sales, getting rid of them at 17 cents apiece. These are sold by the Baptist church and the proceeds go back into the regular bible fund and the selling Rev. Hall has made part of his own work.

Bring Watermelons.—Two wagon-loads of Roseburg watermelons were brought in this morning over the Coos Bay Wagon road from the Valley. They were disposed of mostly to the local grocers. The melons were large and luscious looking and the drivers stated there is a great supply of them in Roseburg.

They Too Have Site.—Crawford point would like to have the government wireless station. A telegram this afternoon from the Portland, Eugene and Coos Bay Land Company of Portland offered five acres free over there across the bay, but the news came too late. At any rate the requirements of a railroad or the wire service would have been lacking.

Found Owner Quickly.—Ralph Smith lost a valuable little receipt book showing dates and amounts of payments on some Richmond, California property. It was found by James Cowan and brought to The Times office. The insertion of a small want adv. quickly found the owner, Ralph Smith of Coos River. It's reaching all the Coos Bay section with "today's fresh news today" that secures such splendid results from The Times little news adv.

That was an interesting story of the wealth of Curry county and Gold Beach which appeared in The Times last evening. I was particularly interested in the statement of the large per capita of wealth that exists there but I suppose it is just the same in Curry as it is over the rest of the country and I have always found that the trouble with the per capita wealth of the country is that it circulates to just a few per capita.

Now a Police Matron.—Of considerable interest to the former students of the University of Oregon is the information that Miss Bertha Dorris, a graduate of that institution is now police matron for the city of Eugene. Miss Dorris is a young woman who always has been interested in problems of labor and sociology. It was in this latter subject that she took a master's degree last year at the University. She is very well known by many former students in this city.

Wants Case Fought.—Charlemagne Tower is here from Horton where he has been working for several months, coming down to attend the funeral of his sister who was buried in North Bend a few days ago. He says that he wants the case against him for assault with a revolver brought to trial as he claims that the night he abducted Mrs. Tower in an auto and took her to Roseburg he was not armed with a gun and denies that there was even one in the party. It is understood that the grand jury will make an investigation of his case some time next week.
