Events To-night

Good roads convention at Coquille tonight to discuss bond issue.
 The choir of the Episcopal Church will meet at the church tonight.
 Miss Winifred Simpson, of Bunker Hill, will entertain tonight.
 A reception will be held at the Methodist Church for Gerald Hunt, who will take charge of the choir.
 The City Council of Eastside will meet tonight.
 Attention and many autoists today announced their intentions of leaving this evening for the county seat. They will take well filled machines, the idea being to have as large a representation as possible from Coos Bay. President Morrison expects to make a new selection of the Good Roads committee personnel.

PERSONAL MENTION
 JUDGE JOHN HALL was a legal visitor in Coquille this morning.
 W. T. STOLL and D. E. Hodge were in Coquille today on legal business.
 C. F. McKNIGHT was among the attorneys going over to the circuit court this morning.
 CAPTAIN JOHN SWING was a visitor up from Empire last evening for a visit with friends.
 C. S. McCULLOCH, civil engineer of Coquille, was a visitor here today on a short business trip.
 T. S. ROBINSON, an attorney of Portland, went to Coquille this morning on legal business.

Seeking Scholarship—C. M. Bixby, a young man from Eugene, is in the city. He holds the Pacific Coast amateur championship for the running high jump and is therefore well known among amateur athletes. He is now traveling in the interests of a magazine seeking to win a scholarship in a college and has already tramped over several hundred miles. He expects to stay in Coos Bay for about two weeks.

And So The Game Goes—The wrestling game is somewhat like Oregon weather—uncertain and never a sure thing. Charles Rentrop, the pride of Europe and thrown about by the wrestling buskies of Coos and Curry and several times dumped headfirst on his "bean," is now being advertised in Portland as the man who won "all his matches in southwestern Oregon." He meets Eddie O'Donnell in the Rose City tomorrow evening.

Old Home Patriotic—R. C. Graves has just received a copy of a paper published in Newton county, Indiana, his old home, telling of a tablet dedicated to the memory of the Civil War veterans. The article states that during the war the county had 539 legal voters and that it sent 458 volunteers. There are still a great number of old soldiers lying, among them being several of Mr. Graves' relatives. His father is a veteran and is now 86 years of age.

Boatmen Heed Warning—Two warnings evidently were heeded by the boatmen of the Coquille is the belief of Inspector H. F. McGrath. He went over there two days ago to find that the news of his coming had preceded him and most of the boats were either tied up or had been put in ship shape to conform with the laws. The result was that he found but few cases of law violations. He expects to finish his work on Coos Bay tomorrow.

Wait for Word—Word must be received from the government radio officers to the effect that the site for the wireless station on Coal Bank Inlet has been accepted before funds for the land will be collected, is the statement of R. M. Jennings, chairman of the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce. He states that in all probability the note of the Port Commission for one year will in some way be reduced to cash. Mr. Jennings believes that the remaining $400 plus can be secured and that the main issue now is to have the site accepted.

Raise Big Corn Here—Continuous and persistent stories about the wonderful corn that grows over in the Coquille valley has led Nels Monson to dispute the theory that corn as good or even better can be raised on Coos Bay. He brought to the Chamber of Commerce yesterday two stacks of fodder corn that are 12 feet six inches in length and the owner adds that possibly, had he not cut them, they might have grown to any length. He has three acres under cultivation on the Ten Mile which is owned and farmed by him.

Honor New Superintendent—The pupils of the North Bend Schools have planned a reception for the new school superintendent, Prof. Coe and wife, who have come here from Joseph, Oregon. The affair will be given tomorrow evening in the assembly room of the high school.

Honor Gerald Hunt—This evening, the members and friends of the Methodist church are giving a reception for Gerald Hunt of the Gjerdrum Conservatory, whom they have engaged to take charge of their music beginning Oct. 1st. The affair will be held in the league hall.

New Millionery—Miss Mable Magee, an expert trimmer and milliner of Portland, arrived here today to take a position in the new millinery which Mrs. Max Timmerman will open in the Timmerman building on North Front street, opposite the matson store, in a few days. The building has been remodelled especially for her and she has received an exclusive stock for the fine store which she will conduct.

Still are Battling—It's the "rubber" that the Methodist Brotherhoods of Marshfield and North Bend are expecting to play off tomorrow afternoon at Simpson Park when their respective nines flay the willows. So far this season each team has managed to take a game, there have been two, and both sides are confident that there will be nothing to it tomorrow but one horrible slaughter.

To Talk Good Roads—The Good Roads meeting for this evening in Coquille has attracted considerable
