Wind: Northwest, clear.

Building Farm House.—Eugene Robinson is building a new farm house on his ranch on North Inlet which he expects to rent.

Baptist Church Services.—Mrs. G. Hall will speak Monday morning at the First Baptist church and Rev. Hall in the evening at which time there will also be baptismal services.

Service at Powers.—On next Tuesday evening G. Le Roy Hall will conduct religious services in the new Loggers Chapel at Powers according to an announcement made today.

Father Dead.—Joel Ostlund and Ben Ostlund have received word of the death of their father, a piano manufacturer, in Sweden. He suffered a stroke of paralysis sometime ago.

Hold Joint Services.—The Norwegian Lutheran churches of North Bend and Marshfield will hold joint services in the North Bend chapel

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All bring baskets.

Reception This Evening.—The members of the Presbyterian Church are giving a reception this evening for the teachers in and around Marshfield at the church parlors. There is to be a special program.

To Adjust Insurance.—Judge John Hall has been given by Rev. Samuel Gregg power of insurance attorney to adjust all business and settle all claims. The Gregg residence carried $2,000 insurance and the furniture $600 additional.

Mrs. Seaman Better.—A. E. Seaman has received word from St. Helena Sanatorium, in the Napa Valley, California, that Mrs. A. E. Seaman has rapidly improved in the last ten days and there is now strong hopes of her ultimate recovery.

To Have Rest Room.—At the suggestion of the principal of the Central School, Miss Helen Sprague, one of the vacant rooms in the building is being fitted up as a rest room for the teachers. The fittings are all being donated by interested patrons of the school.

Will Wed.—According to a San Francisco paper received here, Miss Thoria Lund of Eastside is soon to become the bride of William Baker, a contracting painter there. Miss Lund has been in California for some time and the paper states that she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan at 2243 Geary street.

Goes to Vancouver.—While the Breakwater is being repaired in Portland Captain T. J. Masgenn has gone up to Vancouver, B. C. to see about the publishing of his poem, "Britannia and Her Boys". He has sent a beautifully lithographed copy of the war poem to Field Marshall Lord Kitchener. The Breakwater comes again to Coos Bay next Friday.

Cranberries to Rise.—According to the reports that have come here from Portland the Oregon raisers of cranberries are this year to receive higher prices than ever before. This is because the crop on the bogs of Cape Cod are not so good this year. It is expected this will be an exceptional opportunity for local producers to come to the front with their products and show what can be done in this section in our cranberry bogs.

Asks Sheriff's Aid.—Mrs. Charles Erickson, after applying to the local police and getting no response in her search for her husband who disappeared about two weeks ago from Daniels Creek, has now taken the matter up with Sheriff Johnson. The man went away and said he expected to go to Bandon and since that time has not been heard from and the wife is quite desirous of hearing something of his whereabouts.

To Marry At Powers.—Miss Eva Lewis on Tuesday morning will become the bride of William Preston in the new Loggers Chapel at Powers. The ceremony will be conducted by G. Le Roy Hall. Both of the young people are well known in Powers and have many friends to wish them success and happiness. They will make their home there. Mr. Preston is employed in the logging camp.

Go on Wrong Night.—A misunderstanding in date with the Moose of Coquille took a delegation of about 12 members from Coos Bay to the county seat last evening under the belief that they were to install a new lodge there. They arrived to find that only a meeting of the Moose there had been called for the purpose of making arrangements for the installation in about three weeks and the charter had not yet arrived. The members from Coos Bay, however, were not too much disappointed, for they had a chance to attend the good roads meeting.
