EUROPEAN WAR ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

Sept. 21, 1914. The west wing of the German line is thrust back by the allies during forty-eight hours fighting.

During the combat along the Aisne, Oise and Woerter rivers the adversaries, in many instances, came to hand to hand clashes and the bayonet was used extensively.

The Germans have captured the village of Bethany in their advance on Reims.

Emperor William has taken up his quarters at Luxemburg, according to reports.

After several days battle near Kronpani in which 250,000 Austrians were engaged, the latter are reported to have fled in utter defeat.

The Russians in Galicia have captured 15,000 Austrians, including 150 officers and munitions.

The fortress of Jaroslau is being bombarded and Przemysl is being surrounded.

A Montenegrin army of invasion advances to within ten miles of the capital of Bosnia.

Two of the important forts at Thing-Tao are destroyed by Japanese aeroplanes.

NEED ROAD SIGNS

ROADS leading from the main highways in the interior of the state to Coos county points should be properly indicated by signs. The plan was suggested by this paper some time ago. It is a matter of very small cost and is a very important step which should be taken.

WITH THE TOAST AND THE TEA

GOOD EVENING In all departments of activity, to have one thing to do, and then to do it, is the secret of success.—Melander.

MAKE-BELIEVE

Take a pair of chickens snowy. Harness 'em with bits of string. Drive 'em out across the meadow. Where the first blue violets spring Make believe that you're a princess.

All the world is bright to greet you. When your snowy chargers prance Out across the dusty roadway. All the daisies seem to dance. Every blade of grass is bowing. Every cowslip bell is rung. Just to give you joy and pleasure. (Yes, it's easy—if you're young.)

When the spruetime of your fancy Melts away to winter gleam; When the leaves of youth are childhood Plutter from the highest ebb— Take a pair of memory chickens. Harness 'em with strands of gold. Make believe—'em' make it easy. If you're young or if you're old! —Margaret E. Sangster.

An optimist is the guy who points out the silver lining to the cloud and then borrows your umbrella to go home with.

Dancing on the village green nowadays has degenerated into dodging Dr. Houseworth's auto on Central avenue.

When a Coos Bay girl smiles at a man he always forgets that he is carrying his wife's picture in his watchcase.

When a Coos Bay man has cramps in his stomach and a ball on the back of his neck he thinks he knows something about dancfort. But he will never be able to realize how a fat woman feels when she is wearing a straight-front corset and sitting in a rocking chair.

When a Coos Bay man stands around and brags that he is boss in his house you can bet that when he is at home he has to go down in the cellar when he wants to chew tobacco and go out in the back yard when he wants to smoke.

And it often happens that the Coos Bay woman who has twelve buttons on her kid gloves has a husband who has to hold up his pants with a safety pin.

It isn't what a Coos Bay woman knows that worries her; it is what she would like to know.

When a guy hugs some Coos Bay girls they immediately get up in arms about it.

Some Coos Bay young men have sand enough to propose marriage but are short on "dust."

OH, VERY WELL

Said E. L. Bessey: "While I hate to blow so, I can sow seeds, my friends, and I know so.

The right way to sow is to sow in a row, You must sow seeds just so, not just so so."

THE OLD GROUCH SAYS

"No use to have money without health—no use to have health without money—neither one good without the other."

Many Coos Bay people look their best when they are looking for someone who owes them money.

A Coos Bay woman may forget the vows she made at the altar, but she never forgets to jack her husband up about the vows he made in his love letters.

What Cures Eczema? We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in Dr. D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend Dr. D. D. Prescription.

Drop into our store today, just to talk over the merits of this wonderful Prescription.

THE PATRIOT

AFTER Paradise was flighted, the Maker of all good found between the Palace of Truth and Hope and Courage and the Triumphal Arch which is dedicated to the memory of "Those who do things" and is the main entrance to the park of Success, a quantity of unused material. The substance was the residue left from the making of Love and laughter of the skies, the sun and dew, the breath of myriads flowers, the light of rosy dawn and golden sunset splendors and was scintillated with the intelligence of the boy of promise. He took these and mixing with them some steadfastness of a Mother's Love, the devotion and courage of an allegiant standing for God, Home and Native Land; for free schools and free speech and shaped it into a Patriot. He gave him a countenance lightened by the hue of rosy mornings, eyes accustomed only to the loveliness and possibilities of valley, plains and hills and the best of everything; a heart responsive to the rippling laugh of a child and to the sigh of the sick, the disappointed and the discouraged; a backbone of the principles of truth, honesty and square dealing, and in purpose as pure and free from tittle as a mother's initial kiss to the lips of her first born. He sent him to earth with a will of determination to do everything he can in every honorable way he can, to promote all the good he can for his family, his home, his community, his state and his country. This was God's idea of creating a Patriot. Is there one of us, had we the power, who could create a better being with the material at hand? —W. B. C.

"Queenie," Baby Zebra, Poses for Mutual Weekly

First Baby Zebra Born in Central Park Zoo. From the Mutual Weekly, No. 31, Released on the Regular Mutual Program.

Keeper "Bill" Snyder, of the Central Park (N. Y.) Zoo, where one of the world's greatest collections of wild animals is on exhibition, is the proud guardian of a baby zebra, most of his kind to be born in the Zoo. "Queenie," as she has been christened—posed in true feminine fashion recently, for a Mutual Weekly photographer and is presented to Mutual audiences in Mutual Weekly No. 31, released in the regular Mutual program. Keeper "Bill," who speaks with authority, avows that "Queenie" is one of the most beautiful of her species in captivity.

More Reason to Push Harder

Speaking of business conditions recently John Wamamker said: "People today are buying only four things—Food, automobiles, wearing apparel and shoes. They are buying the first because they must eat to live; the second because they are cheap, and shoes and clothing because they must be replaced." Then he made the telling point that if manufacturers of other lines are to meet this condition they must push harder. They must follow the aggressive methods of the large stores. They must advertise.

Full Lubricating Efficiency In fact, the highest lubricating efficiency—so declared the Jury of Awards at San Francisco and San Diego Expositions. Zerolene is made from asphalt-base crude, declared by many well-known authorities on gas engine lubrication to make the best lubricating oils. STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California) Marshfield. ZEROLENE the Standard Oil for Motor Cars

SEPTEMBER MORN Somehow it seems to be the birthday of those twin sisters—Work and Worry. Playtime is over and the things to be done loom very large. The school bell will remind grown-ups as well as "kiddies" that the long grind is near. In a business way the signs are encouraging—the times look like more work and less worry. And the new impulse for energy naturally suggests the meeting ground for help—and help—the advertising columns of The Coos Bay Times. It is the place where those already after business are making themselves known and where those with wants to be filled are finding answers to their questions.
