Takes Over Hotel.—It is said that Charles Baxter has taken over the management of the Baxter Hotel in Coquille and will run it now permanently, keeping the Eagle Saloon here too, until the first of the year.
M. M. Young has been proprietor of the hotel for some time.

To Elect President.—There is a special business meeting of the Millicoma Club this evening, called for the purpose of electing a president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of D. Y. Stafford. The regular election of the club is always held in March.

Visited Portland.—From Portland
it is reported that Tom T. Bennett, of Marshfield was a guest last night at the hotel St. Paul. T. L. Greenough of Bandon arrived in Portland and was with J. D. Mills at the St. Paul.
He goes to Astoria to meet his family and return here with them.

Goes Home.—Judge Skipworth left on the stage this morning, returning to Eugene after two weeks on the bench here in place of Judge Coke, who was disqualified in hearing some of the cases. Judge Skipworth will return in December. He was favorably received by the attorneys of the county.

Another County in Line.—Now comes the word from Wasco that that county is starting a campaign for the securing of $300,000 in road bonds to build much-needed highways through the county. The two thoroughfares under consideration will give ready access to The Dalles.
Coos has gone them one better in asking for $370,000 in road bonds.

Finishes This Week.—Judge James Watson was here last evening, returning this morning to Coquille. He said that all complaints have been received by the Board of Equalization and that many matters are now before them for decisions. He expects that all questions will have been cleared up by the end of this week.

Asks For "Way Bill."—There came a letter this morning from the middle west, written by a man wanting a desert claim on which he could raise vegetables and fruit and he asks that a "way bill," meaning booster literature, be sent him. He will be replied with a letter saying that Coos has no desert claims but most everything else he could wish for.

Raincoats Blossom Out.—Father and mother, little Willie and his sister, Sue, brought out raincoats from dark closets this morning, took mothballs out of pockets and started the raincoats on their long task that will probably last for the next seven months or so, all according to the whims of our friend Jupt. Pluvius, who is again in our midst.

Kimball Answers Critic.—Coun-cilmanship Harry J. Kimball says that the party who wrote the letter to The Times Tuesday about the Flanagan & Bennett logging wagons being kept off the streets in front of the property of the councilmen, so that they would not suffer from the damages to the paving, says that the party evidently did not know as much as he thought. Mr. Kimball says that the logging wagons traverse in front of the Zimmer estate property on North Front street, in which he is interested. The Zimmer estate has seventy-five feet of frontage where the Smith & Wade Garage is located.
