WEATHER FORECAST

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
OREGON—Partly cloudy, northerly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD

For the 24 hours ending at 4:13 a. m., Sept. 25, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorologist:
Maximum 64
Minimum 50
At 4:13 a. m. 51
Precipitation00
Precipitation since Sept. 1, 191572
Precipitation same period last year 9.16
Wind: Northwest; partly cloudy.

BORN

BIASCA—To Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Biasca of Coos River a ten pound son. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Not in the Confederate Navy—Inadvertently a mention was made, in connection with the wrecking of the Northwest, that Captain Alfred Matson, of this city, had been in the Confederate Navy during the Civil War. It was a misunderstanding for Captain Matson is a prominent veteran of the G. A. R., having spent four years under the Stars and Stripes during the war. He was a member of the crew that rigged the Northwest when she was first built.

A Card of Acknowledgment

On this, the last day of my connection with the business life of Marshfield, I desire to express my gratitude and appreciation to all the good people of this city and especially to my friends and customers for their generous patronage during the years I have been in business here.

While severing my business connections I still retain an abiding interest in the welfare and future growth of Coos Bay, its progress and prosperity will ever be one of my fond wishes.

I bespeak for my successors, Ollivant & Nasburg, the same kind treatment and generous patronage you have always given me. Again I thank you all.

Fine Opening.—The opening of Mrs. Max Timmerman's new millinery store "The Panama" on North Front street was largely attended and the fine display of new fall and winter millinery elicited much praise.

Looks Over Seattle.—Fred F. Brinton, representing the Vessel Fire Register Co., returned home this morning to Seattle after a trip here to inspect the dredge Seattle, which is insured by his company. He found everything in good order, he reported.

Jetty Progress.—Verlin Parker came up from Empire this morning where he has been assisting C. R. Wright, government engineer, in making a survey of the bar and the work of the dredge Michie. Parker says that the jetty work at Bandon is progressing.

His Paddy Aggins.—After an absence of some time from the City Hotel Paddy O'Shea let his foot slip last night and again came back for a visit with the officers. He was without the wherewithal to make an appropriation to the general fund and was turned loose.

Picnic Up River.—The students of the Marshfield high school held their annual picnic at the Goodwill place on the south fork of Coos River today. They left about 9:15 this morning in the Alice II and the Hope, both vessels taking about 100 picnickers for a good time.

Has Wonderful Garden.—The garden of William Sullivan, who lives in the northwest part of the city, is one of the most wonderful in this section. This morning he brought to the Chamber of Commerce armfuls of enormous beets, carrots, pumpkins, squash and cucumbers almost as big around as they were long. They have attracted a great deal of attention.

Go To Ten Mile.—Mrs. O. W. Simpson, wife of Dr. Harry Simpson who was killed in a fall recently at Riverside, California, arrived yesterday from San Francisco. She was met by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Simpson and Miss Isabelle Stearns and this morning the party left on a special boat for a visit at Ten Mile for a few days before going down to Shore Acres.

Close Store.—Mme. Galbraith who has been in charge of the Parisian store, handling men's furnishings and women's ready to wear clothing, has decided to close out the store in Marshfield. She will return to Spokane where the firm has another store as well as one in Lewiston, Idaho. A. J. Mendel of the Hub has had a lease on the Parisian's quarters in the Irving block for some time and will move there about October 1, bringing his men's furnishing store adjacent to the Hub Dry Goods Store.
