

A WOMAN'S IMPULSE to appear at her radiant best must be obeyed. From the tip of her fetching hat to the dainty tips of her toes, her costume should mirror the freshness and beauty of the season. And it can.

Krippendorf-Dittman Shoes

For Women

Embodiment in footwear the spirit of the Fall. They are beautiful shoes—perfect in line, tasteful in ornamentation, and of the style-look of the large city.

$3.50, $4.00 $4.50, $5.00

Hub Dry Goods Co.

'SMART WEAR FOR WOMEN' Corner Broadway and Central Ave. Phone 361

SOCIETY GOSSIP

(Continued From Page Three)

ELKS DANCE

Chairman Catterlin, of the Entertainment Committee of the Elks Lodge of Marshfield, announces that the lodge will give the first of a series of dances a week from next Wednesday evening at the Masonic hall. It will be for the Elks, their wives, families and sweethearts, and the series will probably continue at regular intervals through the winter.

DORCAS CLUB

The Dorcas Club members held their regular meeting Wednesday September 22, at the home of Mrs. Kaino.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent in chatting and sewing.

The hostess, assisted by her daughters, Misses Edyth and Eleanor and Miss Gunnell, served delicious refreshments to the following members: Mrs. D. Mattson, Miss Ida Mattson, Mrs. T. M. Colver, Mrs. C. Colver, Mrs. W. A. Colver, Mrs. F. Messerle, Mrs. Lackstrom, Mrs. E. Smith, Mrs. J. C. Gish, Mrs. F. Gish, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. P. D. Blake, Mrs. Bonebrake and Mrs. Van Auken. The children attending were Edyth and Elle Johnson, Gladys and End Colver, Nettie Smith, Merle Van Auken, Forest Glach and Robert Ross.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Lackstrom on October 13.

ALPHA DELPHIAN SOCIETY

The Alpha Delphia Society met with Miss Alice Curtis on Monday evening. The lesson entitled "Era of Judges" was covered by special topics, as follows: "Israel Under the Judges," Alice Curtis. "Story of Deborah," Grace Johnson. "Jeptah's Daughter," Ellen Rudnas. "Why Israel Chose a King," Dr. Mattie Shaw. "Hebrew Customs Revealed in the story of Ruth," Myrtle Miller. Present were Mrs. Olive K. Brown, Ellen Rudnas, Alice Curtis, Ellen Breuer, Mrs. Kate Lando, Mrs. Harriett Kellogg, Myrtle Downer, Myrtle Miller, Irene Preuss, Agnes Kunkel, Dr. Mattie Shaw and Grace Johnson. The next meeting will be held Monday evening with Myrtle Downer.

PROGRESS CLUB MEETS

The initial meeting for the Progress club for this year was held last Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. W. Powers, on South Fourth street. The topic for discussion being "Women in Politics." Very interestingly and ably were the following subjects handled: "Mayor and Councilmen".....

Mrs. R. H. Corey "Members of the School Board"..... Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger "The Food Inspector and Competent Policemen"..... Mrs. Henry Sengstacken

The hostess served appetizing refreshments to the following ladies: Mrs. Adelsperger, Mrs. Corey, Mrs. B. R. Chandler, Mrs. A. B. Gidley, Mrs. Chas. Hall, Mrs. J. S. Hanson, Mrs. D. E. Maloney, Mrs. R. W. Morrow, Mrs. W. S. Nicholson, Mrs. H. Sengstacken, Mrs. Otto Schetter, Mrs. Wm. Stoll, Mrs. F. A. Tiedgen, and Mrs. C. W. Tower.

MINNE-WIS CLUB

Mrs. E. A. Harris delightfully entertained the Minne-Wis Club at her home Thursday afternoon at their regular meeting. Beautiful dahlias carrying out the color scheme of pink gracefully adorned the parlor of the hostess' home. The ladies sewed and chatted and later partook of a dainty luncheon. Mrs. F. E. Hale was present as special guest of the club and the members out were: Mrs. A. Z. Downs, Mrs. E. E. Kelley, Mrs. C. W. Davis, Mrs. F. H. Dresser, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Mrs. O. W. Briggs, Mrs. W. S. Brown, Mrs. W. E. Hoagland, and Mrs. J. Dashney.

Mrs. Chas. La Chappelle will be hostess to the club in two weeks.

EASTSIDE SEWING CLUB

Mrs. F. S. Bock was hostess at the home of her sister Mrs. Lloyd Prescott Thursday afternoon of this week to the members of the Eastside Sewing Club, who have decided that hereafter the name of the club shall be the Eastside Social Club, owing to the change in the nature and time of their meetings. The parlor and dining room of the Prescott home were quite artistically arranged with a choice selection of sweet peas and woodland greens. The fore part of the afternoon was given over to a general discussion of the club work for the coming year, with the following results: on one afternoon in every month, the ladies will meet at the home of one of the club members for the usual work and social hour, and also, on one evening each month, the ladies, their families and friends, will gather in the school, which has been made a civic center of Eastside. At the latter meeting, there will be a supper and program, committees having been appointed to arrange these affairs, announced next week.

After the business session, the ladies enjoyed a social time, Mrs. Hadlock and Mrs. Carl West contributing several piano selections. Later in the afternoon, Mrs. Bock served delicious refreshments to her guests who included: Mrs. J. Swanson, Mrs. Sarah Jordan, Mrs. Robert Kittson, Mrs. Carl West, Mrs. Ben Wright, Mrs. I. Hadlock, Mrs. Prescott and Misses Hilda West and Stella Pederson.

NORTH BEND GUILD

The regular business and social meeting of the North Bend Episcopal Ladies' Guild took place Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. C. M. Byler, who, at the conclusion of the former session served light refreshments to the following who attended: Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Geo. Stevenson, Mrs. Dennis Hull, Mrs. A. E. Morten, Mrs. J. A. Lennon, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Richard Marshall and Mrs. Chas. Metlin. Mrs. Smith will be hostess to the guild members in two weeks.

NORTH BEND AID

At the meeting of the aid of the North Bend Methodist church Thursday afternoon in the church, it was decided by the ladies to serve lunches during the three days of the Bridge Carnival next month, Oct. 7, 8, 9. The ladies will also serve a dinner to the business men of North Bend next Wednesday evening at a meeting in Loggie's hall.

As Oct. 1st, 1915, is beginning a conference year in the church, election of the Aid Society officers will be held at the next meeting which will be at the church in two weeks.

The ladies attending this week were: Mrs. W. H. Chappell, Mrs. C. H. Everist, Mrs. J. B. Harris, Mrs. Henry Hoeck, Mrs. E. Laird, Mrs. Wm. Neilson, Mrs. A. G. Raab, Mrs. F. W. Stevens, Mrs. J. Taylor, Mrs. C. A. Wilson and Mrs. A. S. Hisey.

CHURCH SISTERHOOD

The annual bazaar given by the ladies of the Christian Church will be held this year the first week in December. This was decided last Wednesday at the meeting of the Sisterhood with Mrs. W. A. Reid. The ladies sewed in preparation for the affair, those in attendance being: Mrs. H. W. Painter, Mrs. J. C. Jones, Mrs. S. J. Immel, Mrs. Mattie Blain, Mrs. W. B. Cox, Mrs. Chas. Powers, Mrs. H. E. Rainer, Mrs. Walter Hill, Mrs. Erwin Yake, Mrs. H. E. Hendrix, Mrs. R. A. Copple, Mrs. W. A. Reid, Mrs. Samuel Gregg, and Mrs. Volkman. They will meet again in two weeks at the church parlors.

WED IN NORTH BEND

On Tuesday of this week in North Bend, occurred the marriage of Miss Helen Bailey, daughter of Mrs. J. S. Kennedy of Langlois, and W. Raymond Capps, son of Postmaster and Mrs. J. S. Capps of Denmark, Ore. Rev. Father W. R. Hogan officiating. The young couple left the following day on the Santa Clara on a three weeks' honeymoon trip to the exposition.

On returning, they will make their home on a farm in Denmark where they are well known and highly thought of by a large circle of friends.

D. M. C. CLUB

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Chas. Williams entertained the North Bend D. M. C. Club, at a few hours of sewing, social chat, and music, and towards evening served her guests a sumptuous luncheon, being assisted by her special guest, Mrs. George Windsor.

The members out were: Mrs. Steward McDonald, Mrs. L. A. Loomis, Mrs. N. G. Hames, Mrs. Henry Kern, Mrs. Ira Weitzel, Mrs. Lester Eaton, Mrs. Ted Evans, and Mrs. Roy Brainard with whom the club will meet in two weeks.

EPISCOPAL LADIES' GUILD

But a few ladies attended the meeting of the Episcopal Guild in the guild hall, on Tuesday afternoon, being the first meeting of the year, and a purely business session. The annual rummage sale was talked at length, and the date set for October 13th, 14th and 15th. The resignation of Mrs. Otto Schetter as president, was accepted with regrets and a new one will be elected at the meeting next Tuesday, when Mrs. E. G. Perham and Miss Agnes Hutchison will be hostesses.

HONOR BRIDE-TO-BE

A miscellaneous shower was given Miss Jennie Refsland at her home in Bunker Hill Thursday afternoon, by a number of her friends. This charming young bride-to-be has not apprised her friends of the exact date of her wedding, but it is understood to be an event in the near future. A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed, and at its close a dainty luncheon was served. Those present were: Miss Dena Mortensen, Mrs. John Pitman, Mrs. Kai Branner, Mrs. Earl Howe, Mrs. C. G.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Alpha Delphia Society with Miss Myrtle Downer. Coos Bay Women's Club with Mrs. D. A. Jones.

TUESDAY

North Bend Catholic public card party in Taylor's hall. Episcopal Ladies' Guild in guild hall.

WEDNESDAY

North Bend Pastime Club with Mrs. E. J. Arms. Presbyterian Auxiliary in church. Auction Bridge Club with Mrs. J. S. Lyons.

THURSDAY

Rainbow Club at Club house, on South Coos River. Alert Club with Mrs. Eugene Terry on North Coos River.

A. N. W. Club with Mrs. Eugene O'Connell.

FRIDAY

Ladies' Art Club with Mrs. Henry Hoeck in North Bend. Norwegian-Lutheran Y. L. A. in church hall.

Thimble Club with Mrs. H. E. Burmeister in North Bend. Reception for the North Bend teachers in Taylor's Hall in North Bend.

SATURDAY

Family Circle with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Duncan.

Magnus, Miss Mamie Gulovson, Miss Edna Johnson, Miss Elsie Larson, Mrs. G. Steen, Mrs. John Berg, Mrs. E. Refsland and Mrs. R. O. Thorpe.

CLUB WILL MEET

The Coos Bay Women's Club will meet Monday afternoon at three o'clock with the president, Mrs. D. A. Jones.

FAREWELL PARTY

Mrs. Peter Scott on Thursday evening entertained a few of her lady friends at a farewell party at her home. Mrs. Scott will leave soon for Portland where she will visit and from there will go to Seattle and expects to return to Marshfield in December. A few friends were invited in to spend the evening. One of the chief features of the entertainment was the supper which was served in the dining room from a prettily decorated table. Mrs. Scott was assisted by Miss Ietta Wasson. Her guests included Mrs. H. Hyden, Mrs. Anna Hanson, Mrs. Elizabeth Parker, Mrs. James Wasson, Mrs. David Alexander, Mrs. Louis Englund and Mrs. Effie Heslett.

KENSINGTON CLUB

Mrs. A. O. Rogers charmingly entertained the Kensington Club on Friday afternoon at its first meeting of the new season, having as special guests, Mrs. Bert Doremus and Mrs. Ruprecht. Sewing and social chat occupied the afternoon hours until the serving of dainty refreshments by the hostess. The members out were: Mrs. J. H. Lupton, Mrs. C. S. Hoffman, Mrs. C. F. McGeorge, Mrs. N. S. Mattson, Mrs. J. S. Lyons, Mrs. W. H. Kennedy and Mrs. C. W. Cumbers. The ladies will meet again in two weeks with Mrs. L. L. Thomas.

PARENT-TEACHERS CLUB

Yesterday afternoon in the school building, the Parent-Teachers Club of Eastside met and discussed plans for further activities. There will be a meeting on the fourth Friday afternoon of each month, and the club has also planned to give a Halloween party on Saturday night, Oct. 30th, in the school building.

TO HOLD FIRST MEETING

The first meeting of the Bridge Club this year will be on Wednesday, October 6th, with Mrs. J. W. Bennett.

MRS. A. D. WOLCOTT ENTERTAINS

Yesterday afternoon, Mrs. A. D. Wolcott very pleasantly entertained at a sewing party complimentary to her daughters-in-law, Mrs. Herbert E. Wolcott and Mrs. Chester W. Wolcott. Towards evening, luncheon was served to her guests who included besides the guests of honor, Mrs. M. R. Smith, Mrs. Jos. Knotts, Mrs. Howard Largent, Mrs. W. G. Deubner, Mrs. Burton Preston, Mrs. Victor Rudnas, Mrs. V. L. Ebbecka, Mrs. A. J. Savage.

DAHLIA CLUB

Yesterday afternoon, the Dahlia Club of Eastport, formerly the Lucky Thirteen Club, was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. Cameron, the affair being a surprise shower for Mrs. L. M. Stromberg, one of the club members who leaves soon for California. After a pleasant time of the usual social activities, the hostess served refreshments to the following: Mrs. E. Yake, Mrs. J. E. Cooley, Mrs. H. E. Wainer, Mrs. Oleman, Mrs. L. M. Stromberg, Mrs. M. C. Wood, Mrs. C. O. Gosney. Mrs. Conner will be hostess at the home of Mrs. Yake in two weeks.

NARCISSUS CLUB

The Narcissus Club meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the home of

Pay Us a Friendly Visit

You will enjoy going through our store and you will learn

THAT when it comes right down to actual low price, Perry & Nicholson can't be equalled.

Of course our Furniture and our Draperies and our Rugs look better—everyone with two eyes sees that. But they don't cost one cent more—that's what we mean to prove to you.

We want to demonstrate to you that low cost Home Furnishings can be had at our store, that are beautiful. It is not how much you pay, but what you get, and how you treat it that counts in making a home beautiful.

The best way and the only way to get the best results is to see Perry & Nicholson before you buy. Come in for a friendly visit and talk over your Home Furnishing needs.

And by all means get our terms—we make a specialty of low prices, don't forget that.

Perry & Nicholson

Noble Theater Building, Central Avenue

Marshfield

FRIDAY OCTOBER FIRST

—THE—

Marshfield Florist Co.

will open a FLOWER STORE at 73 Central Avenue, in the side of building now occupied by the Wiley B. Allen Bank. There will be a nice stock of cut-flowers, choice plants, etc. you are cordially invited to inspect the new store. We shall try to have a good supply of cut-flowers and other florist stock, and out-of-town patrons may phone or write for things that is in season and feel sure of getting what they want.

We have been in this business over nine years, so we want to handle your orders satisfactorily for any design work, landscaping, landscape work, or anything in flowers.

There will be a special sale on some cut flower, plant, etc. every Friday and Saturday, and with us SPECIAL SALE means per cent to 33 1-3 per cent discount. Watch for these specials they are regular stock at reduced price. You should visit us the first two days, as our specials are things you will want. Shall be glad to meet you October First and Second.

Marshfield Florist Co.

EDWIN G. SCOTT, Proprietor.

Telephone Editorial Number 2.

Service First

The business of a telephone company is to render service to the public. Service is the only commodity we sell. The better quality we can put into our product the more of it we can sell. This company is attempting to give the best possible service. Most of the faults of service can creep in with our knowledge. Notice of them and suggestions for improvements are gratefully received from our subscribers.

NOTICE

I wish to notify the public that my wife having left me I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her. Signed, T. E. WILLEY.

Coos & Curry Telephone Company

Save the Pieces

BROKEN LENSES DUPLICATED WHILE YOU WAIT With our own lens-grinding plant we can replace any style lens in a few minutes. Just bring or send us the pieces and we will do the rest.

Red Cross Optical Dept.

SIGHT SPECIALISTS

Phone 122

Marshfield