week there has been no occupant in the city jail and Recorder John Butler is thinking some of having the jail sold for scrap iron and put the proceeds into the general fund. He says that now Oregon is going dry, there's going to be no more need of an official city hotel.

Information Is Sent—Information and data regarding the need of the Coos Bay Coast Guard station for more funds to properly finish the new station, has been sent forward to Senators Lane and Chamberlain by the Chamber of Commerce. They asked, when here, that this be sent in writing for submission to the department in Washington.

Bible Class Tonight.—"The Teachings of Genesis About Man" (Chaps. 1 and 2) will be the subject of the Bible discussion in Guild Hall this evening. This week the class assembles at 7:15 instead of 7:30 in order to finish the discussion before the mass meeting at 8 o'clock.

Chamber to Meet.—The regular meeting of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce is called for this evening at eight o'clock in the council rooms. This afternoon the Executive Committee met and considered several matters of importance that will be brought up this evening for settlement. All members of the Chamber of Commerce are urged to come out tonight.

Works for Sunday.—Copies of the Lord's Day Leader, a bi-monthly published in New York City in the interests of securing one day a week for every working man, that he may rest, have been received here. The name of Rev. G. W. Grann's, D. D., of Irwin, Cal., is contained as General Field Secretary. Rev. Grannis is the father of Prof. Grannis of this city.

Sue for Trespass.—District Attorney Liljeqvist went over to Coquille this morning where he is to hear a trespass case of Jones versus Brummett. The latter is foreman of a tie camp near Fishtrap on the Coquille, and it is alleged that several months ago he was called to the door of his cabin one night by Jones and severely beaten up. The latter contended he had money due him which he could not collect. Jones was arrested and now in turn brings a trespass case claiming Brummett stacked ties in his orchard.
