GOSS TO TAKE DEPOSITION IN BIG LAND CASE

Title Suit of Merchant Estate Involving Lots in Heart of City Coming Up

To secure depositions from old residents and parties interested John D. Goss will spend a share of his time while in California securing evidence for the defendants in the case of the Merchant Estate versus the Marshfield Realty and Trading company, a case now pending and which involves title to many thousands of dollars worth of property in the heart of the city. Mr. Goss called this afternoon on the Adeline for San Francisco.

Testimony in the case which has attracted considerable local interest will be taken here in November before a referee, said Mr. Goss this morning, and submitted to the court on briefs. Suit in this case was filed in the spring. The land involved is what is known as Dean & Co's. Addition to Marshfield.

Appeal Case Up

The appeal in the case of Benfit and Wittick versus the Smith-Powers logging company will require Mr. Goss' attention in the U. S. district court of appeals and on October 22. In Portland, will be tried the $30,000 damage suit being brought by Mrs. Edna McDonald Walls against the Smith-Powers logging company for the loss of a leg.

At the same time again comes up the case of Martilla (deceased) versus the Coos Bay Pulp and Paper company, an appeal from a decision of damages.

HEAVY FINE IMPOSED

Selling Liquor Cost Tom Hall at Roseburg About $300

(Special to The Times.) ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 1.—Thomas Hall, an auto stage driver, was found guilty in the Justice Court of violating the local option law. This was his second trial, the jury at the first trial disagreeing. Justice Riddle fined Hall $250 and assessed the costs against him which amounted to about $50. It was alleged that Hall sold two bottles of beer to Allan Brown, of Glendale, on September 13.

MRS. L. SMITH DIES

DEATH MARKS END TWO MONTHS ILL HEALTH

Was Long A Resident of Coos River And Marshfield—Leaves a Host of Friends

Mrs. Levi Smith died at her home on North Fifth street late yesterday afternoon, following an illness of the past two months. Her death came as a shock to her many friends and relatives on the bay for she has been here since 1876, living first on Coos River and later in Marshfield. The funeral will be held tomorrow and interment will be at the Coos River cemetery.

The deceased was born in Iowa in 1859 and was 56 years of age. She was Miss Dottie J. Flook and when a young woman came west where she met her future husband and they were married in Douglas county in 1878. That same fall they moved to Coos county and for years lived on their farm on Coos River.

John G. Flook, a brother, arrived here yesterday from Portland, having been summoned at once when his sister's condition was known to be critical. There is another brother, Henry Flook who resides in Salem and a sister, Mrs. Annie Newland in Douglas county. Mrs. Smith leaves a husband and three sons, Ernest W., Frank W., and Edwin Smith, all of them residents of Coos Bay.

In the years that Mrs. Smith has lived in this vicinity she has endeared herself to a host of friends. She was liked by them all and her passing is viewed with deep regret by every one. The Rev. Stubbfield will have charge of the services tomorrow morning.

NOW FACE ISSUE

TOWNS OF COUNTY EXPRESS THEMSELVES ON BONDS

Good Roads General Topic of Discussion—Coquille and Bandon Favor Issue

To feel out the sentiment of the people of Coos on the proposed permanent road bonds meetings are being held this week in the five cities of the county. There was an enthusiastic gathering in Coquille last evening and a meeting will be held this evening in Myrtle Point. Bandon and North Bend have already considered the matter. On next Wednesday evening the executive committee of the Coos Good Roads Association will meet here in the office of President Charles Hall to line up the meeting of next Thursday.

Coquille is in favor of permanent roads and the bond issue, said Mr. Hall and J. E. Montgomery this morning. They both attended last night.

Resolutions were adopted recommending to Vice-President A. T. Morrison that he vote at the Good Roads Meeting in favor of a permanent highway from Empire, through North Bend, Marshfield, Coquille and to Myrtle Point. Bandon will be taken care of. It was the expressed opinion, by an appropriation to build her road to the Curry line. The meeting was under the auspices of the Coquille Commercial Club and President C. A. Hoard acted as chairman.

At Bandon on Monday evening resolution were adopted, said Mr. Hall, that Bandon would favor the bond providing she obtained an equitable share of the money. By this was meant, according to Mr. Hall, a good gravelled road to Curry, a distance of 12 miles.

SURF INVADERS CARS IN LONG BEACH TRIP

Curly Waves Break 300 Machines and Women Climb Seats on Trip Yesterday

The surf broke into the cars that yesterday came down the beach from Florence, according to passengers who arrived here late yesterday afternoon. The incoming tide drove the machines too far up the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dotson, accompanied by their son Walter Dotson and wife, arrived home via the beach route from a visit in Sprague, Washington. Mr. Dotson said that the women in the cars were forced to stand on the seats out of the water.

Should Show Hand

By voting now for the $370,000 bonds, said Mr. Hall this morning, Coos would be able to in part dictate to the state for a share of the $10,000,000 state road bonds that will later be voted on.

With a showing put up here that the people are really interested in good roads to the extent that they will bond for them then, he says, will the people here be able to demand their share, and to get it.

HORTON IS MARRIED

MISS FLORENCE REAMER BRIDE OF PROMINENT MAN

Ceremony Performed Last Evening And Couple Hurry Away On Honeymoon

Frank G. Horton and Miss Florence Reamer were united in marriage last evening by the Rev. Mr. Stubbfield at the Presbyterian parsonage. This morning they left in their machine for a trip through Curry county, expecting to be gone for several days on their honeymoon.

A little note tucked under the door of Mr. Horton's office early this morning was his manner of announcing the happy event to the expectant world.

The note was found, as it was expected it would be, by the men at the office when they opened up this morning and immediately the news was proclaimed broadcast.

Old Shoes on Top

Old shoes were tacked in the doorway together with American flags, all floating gaily until it looked like a Fourth of July celebration and the sidewalk was strewn with rice, "so that all who run may know." And to further enliven the occasion the "long smokes" were passed with a pleasing rapidity.

Denies Many Rumors

News of the impending event has leaked out several times in the past three weeks. Everytime there has been a judicial denial and Mr. Horton yesterday told friends he expected to go down to Bandon today, signing up flour contracts.

Mrs. Horton is from Minneapolis and came here from Portland in February and until yesterday has been in the office of the Coos County Tax Association.

Mr. Horton needs no introduction to the public. He is one of the prominent business men here, the representative of the firm of Allen and Lewis, wholesale grocers, on the building committee of the Elks, a Good Roads enthusiast, in fact, is in practically every public spirited movement. He has a host of friends who wish Mrs. Horton and himself the best of success and good luck always.

Following their return from Curry Mr. and Mrs. Horton will take up their abode in the Hague Apartments.

SCULPTOR IS DONE

JOEL OSTLIND FINISHES WORK FOR BANDON BUILDING

Has Carried Out Artistic Designs for Decoration of the New B. B. Block

Joel Ostlind is just completing the sculpture for the decorations on the new B. B. Block which is being erected by Biggs and Buckingham at Bandon, and which is to be one of the finest business buildings in the county. Architect Benjamin Ostlind designed the building and Joel Ostlind, who studied art and sculpture in Sweden, is doing the sculpture work. He has just completed working out in the clay the large arch and keystone which go over the main entrance of the building.

Artistic Design

The arch is a tasteful design showing a vine and foliage. From this will be made a plaster cast and from the cast will be made the concrete piece. This piece will be moulded in black granite. The building is white but this arch and the stones used in the entrance will be black, giving a distinctive touch to the whole building.

On each corner of the building will be a large laurel wreath with the initials B. B. in the center. Mr. Ostlind has made the cast for this end from the cast will be moulded four of the monograms in concrete.

Sixteen Brackets

He has also made the mould for the sixteen brackets which will extend around the building. This was quite a difficult piece of work. On account of the many details of the design, it was necessary to make the mould so that it would come apart in a number of places. These pieces all fit together with absolute perfection, so that when they are put together the mould is practically like one solid piece.

Will Go to Bandon

The casts will be taken to Bandon some time this week, for the concrete men to use in making the parts. It will be quite a difficult undertaking to transport them and if he can catch one of the small boats going into the Bandon harbor Mr. Ostlind will take them down by water rather than risk an auto or the train.

The work which Mr. Ostlind has done is a fine piece of sculpture and reflects great credit upon his artistic ability. When Benjamin Ostlind drew the plans for the building Joel Ostlind made the designs for the decoration which he has worked out in the clay.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

PORTLAND, Oct. 1.—Talk of dropping the Beavers from the Coast League has stirred Portland, President John F. Powers, of the Angels, has said he favors such a move and the taking in of Seattle and Tacoma. The local fans would not stand for such a procedure and Walter McCredie says there "is no chance" of dropping.

The Coast League has been an expensive one this year. It is said that none of the teams, with the exception of Salt Lake, now having its first trial of the class AA baseball, have been making any money this season and often have been playing a week straight to $700 crowds.

The Bees continue their winning and yesterday clinched four straight from the Seals.

The scores of yesterday follow:

PLAN RUMMAGE SALE

Episcopal Guild Members Arrange Event for This Month

At a meeting last night the members of the Episcopal Guild decided to hold a rummage sale on October 13, 14 and 15. As an event of that kind has not been here here for a long time, it is believed that it can be made a success. Committee were appointed to solicit from families of the city to secure anything that they have about the house and do not care to keep. The collection will be sorted and all offered at a very low price.

The store room on Front street near Central, which was formerly occupied by the Orpheum Theater, has been secured, in which to hold the sale. The city will be laid out in districts and a committee will solicit in each district. Household-ers are requested to look about and see what they have to give away and be prepared when the committee calls.

WOUNDED HEROES FREQUENT RESORTS

Take Place of Usual Horse Race and Pleasure Seeking Crowd of Peace Time

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

TROUVILLE, France, Sept. 30.—

The horse show, horse races and other social attractions which have brought the elite of society here at this season every year are lacking, but the famous resort is still lively with a throng on the boardwalk that is made largely of convalescent soldiers and their nurses.

Some of the biggest hotels are hospitals, some of the elegant villas also, but there are enough children to prevent the beach from being submerged in gloom.

The sands of Trouville are the scene of interesting recreations. All along the beach from Dieppeville to Trouville are most uninterrupted walks, built by the volunteers to 1915, now in their second year, who are working in the direction of convalescent soldiers. Mothers are obliged to give their own risk and their own are labyrinth everywhere. The west wind fills the sea water, recalling the pain along the Yve. The joy of the five to the "bus" who jump into the bathing suits and make more than over.
