CAPTURE JOE FISH OLD CHARGE ALIVE

"NO FUND" CHECK MAN CAPTURED BY SPOKANE POLICE

Cashed Papers for $14 and $20 in Marshfield—Left Via Auto Stage Two Weeks Ago.

Joseph R. Fish, wanted here on the charge of issuing no fund checks was captured yesterday in Spokane, according to word telephoned here by Sheriff Johnson. Already the Sheriff's office is having District Attorney Liljeqvist draw up the necessary papers that the man may be extradited and brought back here for trial.

On the 26th of September, Fish, who is a former automobile driver of Bandon, cashed a $14 check in Marshfield with the Myrtle Point, Roseburg auto stage line, talking half of the amount out in transportation to Roseburg. It developed later that Fish had also, according to Marshal Carter, cashed a $20 check in the Bohemian bar. Both checks were drawn on the Bank of Bandon and were returned "no funds."

It is said that Fish formerly drove a machine for the Coach family. He had lived in Bandon for some time and, according to the Coos County Directory, was a married man.

With the extradition papers granted, a deputy from the Sheriff's office will probably be sent to Spokane to bring Fish back to Marshfield.

WHITE SLAVERY RUMORED

Deputy Sheriff Laird late in the morning said that it is highly probable that charges of white slavery will be preferred against Fish on his return to Coos. He said that Fish was married and two or three months ago his wife left him. Fish is said to have come here with a woman who registered as his wife at a local hotel on September 25.

Word was received from Bandon that Fish never at any time had as much as $34 in the bank the aggregate of the two "no fund" checks.

NOTHING LEARNED HERE

Case of Coos Bay Visitor Said to Have Been Robbed

Nothing locally has been learned of Mrs. Clarence Weikel whom a Portland paper says is a Coos Bay visitor and was robbed of her money while in that city. The Portland Journal of Sept. 27 said of the case:

Having lost $120 in bills at the public market this morning, Mrs. Clarence Weikel, a Coos Bay visitor, living at 206 1-2 First street, is temporarily destitute here. Report to this effect was made to the police this morning by Mrs. Weikel.

Mrs. Weikel went to the public market at 10 o'clock this morning carrying the money, six $20 bills, rolled inside of the cuff of her waist. She went for several blocks before she noticed the money was gone. She hurriedly retraced her steps, but could find no trace of the bills.

FRANK MATSON DIES

SUDDEN ATTACK OF PNEUMONIA PROVED FATAL

Was in Hospital and Today Would Have Come Home—Was Born and Raised in Marshfield

Frank A. Matson died suddenly at Mercy Hospital about 4:30 this morning. Two weeks ago he was taken to the hospital and had so recovered that today he was to have been brought home, but last evening pneumonia set in and, in his weakened condition, he was unable to stave off its ravages. The end came so quickly that it was impossible to get all of his immediate relatives at the bedside before he died.

Native of Marshfield. The deceased was 29 years of age, having been born in Marshfield, September 26, 1886. He leaves his parents, Captain and Mrs. Alfred Matson, three brothers, J. Albert Matson and Ralph Matson, of Marshfield, and Leo Matson, of Portland. There is one sister, Mrs. E. S. Bargelt.

Was a Fireman. Despite the fact that he has never been strong constitutionally Frank Matson for six years had been an active member of the Marshfield Fire Department. Just a few days ago he was talking about his service and said that he had but one more year before he would be exempt. Every member of the department had a warm word for him today and said that there never came a call but what Frank Matson was there if it was possible for him to be and he was always an active worker when there was work to be done.

Son of a Veteran. Also the deceased was a member of the Sons of Veterans, his father, Captain Alfred Matson, having served four years in the Northern Navy during the Civil War.

Two weeks ago he was taken to Mercy Hospital suffering from kidney trouble, but it was believed that he had entirely recuperated, until he developed the fatal attack of pneumonia last night.

It is expected that the funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from the Episcopal Church.

Funeral Tomorrow. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the Episcopal church and will be in charge of the Rev. Robert E. Browning. The Marshfield Fire Department and the Sons of Veterans will be in attendance.

DRAW OUT BIG SUM

C. R. SMITH MAY TAKE $167,000 OUT OF ESCROW

Money Put in Southern Oregon Tax Case—Decision of $2.50 Sales Voice Appeal

One hundred and sixty seven thousand dollars belonging to the Southern Oregon Company and held in escrow pending a decision in their tax case will probably be drawn by C. R. Smith, head of the big concern. The money was not put up for delinquent taxes, explained District Attorney Liljeqvist, but as a guarantee. He states it was an effort on the part of the land company to become exempt from penalties for taxes past due. Title to the land was in the meantime being fought out in the courts.

Goes Through Courts. Both the circuit and the state supreme court decided against the Southern Oregon Company and then the case was appealed to the United States Supreme Court. But in the meantime came the decision of Judge Wolverton of the federal court in Portland, deciding that the Coos Bay Wagon Road grant, which belongs to the Southern Oregon company, was given under the Congressional agreement to be sold for $2.50 an acre to actual settlers. The enforcement of this decision is now up to the next Congress. The decision then is said to have automatically thrown the first appeal out of court, voiding it.

Is Not Tax Money. Mr. Liljeqvist said today that money is not tax money and is altogether apart from the sum due for taxes. He said that after the three years of the statute of limitation has run out that the county will proceed against the property for the collection of the money.

Will Decide Soon. On his return from Coquille today, where he went with Herbert Armstrong, C. R. Smith said that he would be here another day and in the meantime would decide about taking the $167,000 out of escrow.

SONS OF VETERANS NOTICE

You are requested to meet Thursday afternoon, Oct. 7th, at 1:30 o'clock at Wilson's undertaking parlors to attend the funeral of brother Frank Matson.

CELEBRATE EVENT

ARCH DEACON AND MRS. HORSFALL HAVE GOLDEN WEDDING

Married Fifty Years Ago in England and Were On Oregon Coast in Early Days

Arch Deacon and Mrs. William Horsfall of Bandon came to the city yesterday to celebrate their Golden Wedding with their son, Dr. William Horsfall Jr., and family. Last evening many of the friends of the couple called upon them to offer congratulations. They left for their home this afternoon.

Arch Deacon Horsfall is a pioneer in the Episcopal church on the coast and is widely known throughout Oregon. He is held in high regard by the Episcopalians of the state and on a number of occasions the clergy have paid him high tributes. Both he and Mrs. Horsfall have many friends in the southern Oregon coast country.

Enjoy Good Health. A pleasing feature of the anniversary is the fact that both the arch deacon and his wife, although old enough to have been married for fifty years, both enjoy good health and are wonderfully well preserved persons and hope to enjoy many more years of married life.

The venerable clergyman is a man of kindly and gentle nature and which together with the many good offices he has performed for his following has endeared him to the people with whom he has come in contact.

Arch deacon Horsfall this morning related some of his early experiences. He said that on October 6, 1865, he was married to Miss Sarah Howard in Lancashire, England. It was in 1870 that they moved to America and at the Theological Seminary in Kansas City he took his theological work.

Following his graduation Archdeacon Horsfall had charge of the Episcopal churches in Kansas, first as an assistant minister and later a rector. Later they moved to Miles, Montana, where he was missionary for the Yellowstone District and rector of the Emmanuel Church at Miles.

Moved to Oregon. It was in 1888 that the Horsfall family moved to Oregon. Mr. Horsfall was then in poor health when he became missionary for the coast district from Lane county to the Curry county line on the south. His headquarters were in Marshfield for 22 years and it was five years ago that Mr. and Mrs. Horsfall moved down to Bandon.

Covered Big Area. Via horseback, wagon stages and boat Mr. Horsfall covered his territory. The trip to Florence then took two days each way. There were no Episcopal churches at the start, he said, and the services were held in school houses and oftentimes in the homes. There were but 20 communicants in the entire territory in 1888.

The first services in Marshfield were held in the Lockhart building and at Empire in the court house.

First Church Here. The first Episcopal church of the district was built at Marshfield in 1889, said Mr. Horsfall this morning. A year later one was erected at Empire, at Port Orford in 1892, at Bandon in 1895, at Coquille in 1897 and at Gardiner in 1907.

Through all these years Archdeacon Horsfall labored well and today views his handiwork with pride for the church membership has well increased since he came here 29 years ago.

District Divided. In 1910 the district was divided and Rector Robert E. Browning was given Marshfield and the territory to the Siuslaw and Archdeacon Horsfall, the Coquille Valley and territory south to the Windchuck River on the California border.

Climate Beneficial. Life in southwest Oregon, he said, has been a happy one for both himself and Mrs. Horsfall. He came here pretty much an invalid and in the 29 years of residence, leading much of an out door life, he has become rugged and healthy until today he said he feels like a young man and good yet for many years of work.

MAY BUILD A TANK

PLAN IS TO HAVE PLACE FOR STORING OIL

Would Be for Use of Bar Dredge Michie and Probably Located at Empire

The Willamette Iron Works will make a bid on the construction of a big oil tank, which may be built on the lower bay, probably at Empire, it is said, for the use of the bar dredge Michie. It is now necessary for the dredge to come up the bay to get oil and with a tank at Empire the dredge could take on fuel oil much quicker and a great amount of time would be saved. It is understood that the plan is to construct a tank which will hold 16,000 gallons of fuel oil.

GAGNON IS WEDDED

MISS KATRINA KOCH IS BRIDE AT EARLY CEREMONY

Under Showers of Rice Newlyweds Climb Aboard Adeline from Small Boat—On Honeymoon

Before a gathering of between 40 and 50 friends in the North Bend Catholic church this morning Miss Katrina Koch, of Portland, was united in marriage to A. E. Gagnon, superintendent of the Eastside Mill of the C. A. Smith company. Immediately following the ceremony the bridal couple were whizzed in a machine to the dock where they took a small boat and climbed up the sides of the Adeline Smith opposite the Porter Mill. They were accompanied on their honeymoon to the Exposition by the Rev. Father McDevitt.

Rice strewed their path from the church to the dock. Their car bore a big sign, "Just Married" and friends gathered to wave them a hearty good-bye from the water front as the Adeline passed.

Groom Stalled on Road

There came near to be a delay for close to eight o'clock, the hour of the ceremony, Dennis McCarthy, taking the groom and Father McDevitt in his car became stalled near the Porter Mill. It was but five minutes to the hour. The groom fidgeted about, looking anxiously at his watch. The timely arrival of the jitney saved the day and gaily the party went on to the church.

First Met in August

It was in August that the bride first met Mr. Gagnon. He showed her through the big mill and the acquaintance started then brought about a courtship that culminates today with their marriage. The groom is 73 years of age and the bride 36 years.

Taught in Schools

Mrs. Gagnon has been an instructor of French and German for some time in the Franklin High School in Portland. She is highly educated and has been connected with literary work in the north. Last year she was close to the top in a number of applicants for a language teaching position of $3,000 a year in a Los Angeles school.

Church Decorated

The church was simply decorated for the event of this morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father McDevitt and George Hennessey stood up with the groom and Miss Minnie Sheridan with the bride. Mrs. Hennessey is a niece of Mr. Gagnon and they have been living with him in Bunker Hill.

A change in time of the Adeline's sailing caused the hour of the marriage to be set forward from nine to eight o'clock this morning and this accounts for the fact that some of the invited guests were not present. Arno Meehan, of the C. A. Smith mill arrived after the ceremony was over.

To Stay Two Weeks

The bridal couple, accompanied by the Rev. Father McDevitt expect to spend a couple of weeks in the south before returning to take up their residence in the beautiful Gagnon Bunker Hill home.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6.—A statement to the press of the United States, contrasting the landing of the allied troops in Greece with Germany's action toward Belgium, was cabled to the Austro-Hungary embassy here today by the foreign minister at Vienna.

PRESIDENT OF PORTUGAL IN OFFICE

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] LISBON, Oct. 6.—Dr. Bernardino Machado took the oath of office as President of Portugal today. In an address he pledged the administration to devote itself to internal and external defense.

FOREST NOTES

Results obtained from the land classification work on the National Forests demonstrates the fact that practically all farm land has been excluded from the forests. According to figures compiled by the Government, water powers in the State of Oregon are capable of developing 3,500,000 Horse Power. In Oregon there are already developed 156,186 Horse Power and in Washington 408,000 Horse Power.

C. J. MILLIS HERE

WELL KNOWN S. P. MAN ARRIVES THIS AFTERNOON

Does Not Know What Became of the Others Who Were Expected To Come

C. J. Millis, assistant to President Sproule of the Southern Pacific, accompanied by Mrs. Millis, arrived overland this afternoon from San Francisco. He said he does not know what has become of the party composed of Chief Engineer William Hood of the S. P. lines, Attorney Moody and Engineers Hooy and Fontains, of the Willamette Pacific.

These men wired they were coming and later in the day cancelled their reservations at the Chandler Hotel. Supt. W. F. Miller says he has no word that they have been turned back or delayed on the line.

Freight Man Here

J. H. Mulchay, assistant general freight agent of the S. P. lines in Oregon, is on the bay for a few days on business. He said that nothing definite has been decided about putting a boat on the Portland-Coos line run to take the place of the Breakwater.
