

You like stylish clothes; see our new models in Varsity Fifty Five

You get style in a Hart Schaffner & Marx suit; real style, that comes from expert designing, expert workmanship and tailoring.

This is the thing that has made friends for these famous clothes; one of the big reasons why we carry them.

We know that plenty of firms make smart, well-cut clothes; we also know that only this one firm excels in this thing called style. They've made good ready clothes long enough to know the real thing and how to produce it.

Vestry Meeting Tonight.—There will be a meeting of the vestry of the Episcopal church tonight at 8 o'clock in Guild Hall. Bible Study at 7:30.

Lived in Coquille.—A Eugene newspaper tells of an auto accident in which a Miss J. Giblin, a nurse, was injured. This is believed to be Miss Jennie Giblin, formerly of Coquille, and who was in the Mercy hospital at North Bend for a time, and who went to Eugene.

Big Fruit Crop.—S. B. Cathcart received a letter this morning from his nephew F. O. Scarlett, of Suisun, California, explaining why he could not get away to come north on a hunting trip. He has a large fruit orchard and said that this season has had between 30 and 130 men aiding in taking care of 1,000 tons of fruit, 400 tons of which were apricots and 225 tons of prunes.

May Move Here.—Dr. L. M. Johnson of Myrtle Point was in Marshfield yesterday on business and pleasure, Chet Huling and a number of other Myrtle Point people left last Sunday via Roseburg to attend the San Francisco Exposition. Dr. Johnson has been urged by a number of his friends on the Bay to move from Myrtle Point here and he is said to be seriously considering the advisability of it.

Discuss Open Air Room.—There will be a meeting of mothers this afternoon in the room of Miss Corning, at the Central school to discuss results of the open air school room for the first grade. This is the first year that the pupils have been used to open windows, thus doing away with drafts and the resulting "sniffles" and colds, is the plan. The experiment is being watched with much interest here, though it is said to have been worked out successfully in other places.
