WILL GOODRUM WINS BIG RACE

and Money in Sensational Race at Track Taken By Will Knowles

AT TIME MADE

Crowd of People Present and Enjoy Half an Hour of Excitement

FOR TWENTY MILES

Make Forty Laps Around the Track—Ray Campbell Comes Third—Percy Phillips Makes Fine Showing

THE WINNERS

First—Will Goodrum, prize $100, time for 20 miles, 29 minutes 25 1-4 seconds. Second—Will Knowles, prize $60, time 30 minutes and 51 seconds. Third—Ray Campbell, prize $40.

Will Goodrum won the auto race in Marshfield Sunday afternoon. It was a great race and there was a large attendance. It was arranged Saturday with but little time to write but the boys who were invited went all over Marshfield and in Bend and delivered bills and announcement cards and there was a crowd.

There was nothing else going on Saturday afternoon excepting the band concert. The race waited until this afternoon so that those attending could see the race. Over 1,000 persons gathered at the track. The grand stand filled and there were scores of automobiles. The races during the day at North Bend had created an interest. Percy Phillips and Knowles, the two winners of the first races, were the favorites and there was a good deal of money bet on the Sunday event.

Sensational Race The race was a sensational one. Five starters were lined up and off five seconds apart. By the last man was off the first was coming down the home stretch. From then on it was a close cloud of dust and someone was every minute at a breakneck speed. The excitement kept up for an hour and the crowd throughout enjoyed it.

Was First Starter Will Goodrum was the first starter. He took the inside of the track and made most of the time to the finish. Will Knowles drove a fine car. He kept his head and maintained the lead as the two miles was sure to be the winner. The 27th lap it was almost certain he would take the race with drum second, but just at that his engine gave out and he had to pull up to one side and have repaired in the machine. Then he did not start at once and he lost at least two or three minutes. This was Goodrum's lead and brought him in as winner. Knowles however did not stop but as soon as his engine would work he was back again in the race and took the money.

Made Fast Time Percy Phillips was the fifth starter. He got pocketed in behind Campbell and Gurnea and for a good many laps could not get around them. Knowles and Goodrum were in the lead. Finally when Phillips did get past the other two, who were slower drivers than Knowles and Goodrum, he made terrific speed. He made in 40 seconds then the lap in 27 1-2 seconds. At this time he looked like his speed was going to overcome his handicap of the part of the race but he broke a wheel in his machine and had to pull entirely toward the last.

Chanted Positions Gurnea also broke down and was out of the race when it was about over. When it seemed sure that Knowles was the winner he stopped in his engine and Goodrum took the lead. Finally when Phillips did get past the other two, who were slower drivers than Knowles and Goodrum, he made terrific speed. He made in 40 seconds then the lap in 27 1-2 seconds. At this time he looked like his speed was going to overcome his handicap of the part of the race but he broke a wheel in his machine and had to pull entirely toward the last.

Works All Night Will Goodrum today said that he came near not going in the race yesterday, because M. L. Curry, of the repair shop in the Goodrum Garage, had to work all night on the strips and the bearings were tight. These were loosened up through the morning and the machine worked perfectly in the afternoon. Three of the machines entered in the race afterwards had to be towed into town.

SNEDDON ARRESTED

POLICE RESPOND TO MIDNIGHT HURRY-UP CALL Pleads Guilty to Being Drunk and Disorderly—Caused Trouble on South Broadway

Hugh B. Sneddon appeared in the police court this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk and disorderly. He was arrested on Saturday before midnight for making a disturbance in the street in front of his home on South Broadway and spent the night and most of yesterday in jail. Judge Butler annexed to him a sentence of 15 days in jail, suspending this during good behavior, he said.

After 11 o'clock on Saturday night there came a hurry up call to the police station and Officers Shoup and Richardson responded in a machine. Officer Richardson claims that Sneddon was drunk and causing domestic trouble.

He was locked up and yesterday afternoon was released when Otto Edlund deposited a $50 cash bail. Sneddon today told the judge that he would go away for a month's vacation, if released.

Charges Made According to the claim of Officer Richardson, who went to the scene, Sneddon first raised a disturbance at home with his family and later, when Mrs. Alice Sneddon, a sister-in-law, sought to quiet him, hit the latter in the face. It was claimed that a beer bottle was used in part of the procedure, but this could not be proven.

AGED PARENT DEAD

MRS. D. A. JONES RECEIVES WORD OF FATHER'S DEATH Succumbs in Hospital at Bismarck, N. D.—Mother Very Ill and D. A. Jones' Father Sick

Mrs. D. A. Jones received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of her father, G. C. Mudgett, of Valley City, N. D., at Bismarck, N. D., where he had just undergone an operation in the hospital. Mr. Mudgett was 73 years old and a pioneer of that section. He had been ailing for some time and was taken to Bismarck for the operation, but he was unable to survive the shock.

Mrs. Mudgett is also very ill, according to the telegram, suffering from nervous prostration. She is about 70 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Mudgett spent the summer on Coos Bay three years ago and made many friends among whom the news will come as a severe shock. Owing to the great distance, Mrs. Jones will probably be unable to go back. However, she is awaiting further word and possibly she and Mr. Jones may go back.

Mr. Jones' father is now in the hospital at St. Paul, where he is receiving treatment.

and 26 seconds behind the winner. Knowles lost at least that much time when his engine stopped so had it not been for the stop the race would have shown a neck and neck finish.

Prizes Are Paid The race was not arranged with the intention of making money. It was planned to divide the receipts between the winners. The band had been invited to come and furnish some music and after the regular concert attended. The band charged for each of three times for every man. The band was paid $63 which was demanded and there were some expenses in putting the track in shape.

There was enough money left to give $100 for first money, $60 for second and $40 for third money.

There were certainly a good many at the track who got in without paying as the fences around the track are in poor repair and it was no trouble for anyone who wanted to walk in without passing the gate keeper.

The total receipts were $290. Besides the prizes and the money paid to the band, $10 was paid the keeper at the race track and there were some printing bills and small incidentals.

Works All Night Will Goodrum today said that he came near not going in the race yesterday, because M. L. Curry, of the repair shop in the Goodrum Garage, had to work all night on the strips and the bearings were tight. These were loosened up through the morning and the machine worked perfectly in the afternoon. Three of the machines entered in the race afterwards had to be towed into town.

STOP THE DANCE

REV. A. S. HISEY OBJECTS AT NORTH BEND SUNDAY Policeman Says He Will Arrest Preacher if He Causes Any More Crowds

Rev. A. S. Hisey, pastor of the Methodist church at North Bend, created something of a sensation Sunday night when he demanded that a dance be stopped and clashed with the police authorities.

The dance was on the big platform which was erected with a tent over it for the carnival. Dick Rogers, one of the drivers of the Gost & King autos, hired the hall for the night and held the dance as an independent proposition. About sixty couples were dancing and a large number of persons were looking on when shortly after 9 o'clock Rev. Hisey appeared at the entrance and walked up to the ticket office where Will Anderson was selling dance tickets and demanded that the dance be stopped.

Threatened Arrest Anderson said that he would not stop it until the proper authorities told him to. A crowd of spectators gathered around and Dick Rogers, the manager, came up. Hisey threatened to prosecute unless the dance was stopped, claiming that it was illegal.

Night policeman Smith objected to the crowd gathering and Hisey went outside and the policeman declared that if the minister caused the gathering of any more crowds he would arrest him. Smith said: "If there is anything wrong with the dance I can stop it but if it is to be stopped I am the man to do it." This was applauded by the dancers.

Makes Statement Outside on the sidewalk Hisey and Rogers held a conversation. Quite a crowd gathered around. Finally Rogers called up the dancers and made an announcement. He stated that he had rented the hall to give the dance and had the permission of the city council to hold it and a written permit given by the chief of police. He said that one of the leading ministers of the city had objected to the dance continuing and that although he would lose money by doing so, he would close the dance rather than go on with it and cause any trouble. He said the dance would continue for fifteen minutes longer and that everyone could keep on dancing free from that time. Finally the dance was closed.

Had Permission Rogers in speaking of the matter afterward said that he had the proper permission to hold the dance and that many urged him to go on with it but he quit at a loss rather than to attempt to carry out his rights.
