WEATHER FORECAST

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) OREGON — Fair except increasing cloudiness, probably showers in the Northwest. Warmer Tuesday with southerly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD

For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., October 11, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorologist:

- Maximum 63
- Minimum 32
- At 4:43 a. m. 34
- Precipitation 0.0
- Precipitation since Sept. 1, 1915 1.39
- Precipitation same period last year 11.31
- Wind: Northwest, clear.

Assistants Principal.—Mrs. Clarence Ash has been elected assistant principal of the Central School, taking up her duties this morning. The attendance required an additional teacher there.

No Council Tonight.—There will be no meeting of the city council this evening. The body at their meeting last Tuesday evening adjourned until October 25, providing special business does not come up before then which would necessitate a special meeting.

Ladies' Guild Tuesday.—The Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal Church will meet tomorrow afternoon as usual in Guild Hall, when Mrs. Herbert Lockhart and Mrs. E. P. Lewis will be hostesses.

Club to Elect.—A special call is being sent out by President John Kendall, of the Fellowship Club for all members to attend the annual business meeting and election of officers tomorrow evening. Reports of committees that have acted through the year will be read at the same time.

Auxiliary to Meet.—The ladies' auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. T. Haines for an all day meeting.

For Fish Market.—The quarters on Front street recently vacated by Henry's Union Repair Shop, are being fitted up for a fish market.

Do Away With Teams.—The McDonald and Condon logging company is now bringing out its logs in west Marshfield without the use of teams, the logs being snaked along by means of the big wire cables to the head of Central avenue. This makes the handling of the logs much quicker.

Council to Meet.—In spite of the fact that the council adjourned last Monday night for three weeks there will be a short meeting this evening, the city fathers state, to consider some street matters.

Will Entertain.—Mrs. L. J. Simpson will entertain the Marshfield bridge club next Wednesday at Shore Acres, instead of the Wednesday following.

Examine Bankrupt.—In Judge Sehlbrede's office tomorrow will be examined the accounts of W. C. Young, North Bend bankrupt who formerly was in the grocery business but now lives in Springfield.

To Have Game.—Coach Niles, of the high school, says that his football warriors are plugging themselves for another battle, a week from next Friday. It will probably be with Myrtle Point, and will be staged at Marshfield, he said.

Get Store Ready.—Carpenters today are putting a new front into the Bargelt building, corner Broadway and Market streets, in preparation for the moving there of the Wolcott grocery. An entrance will be made at the corner and large display windows put in.

Eastside Accident.—William Karne, of Eastside, while doing some repair work on the roof of his house yesterday, slipped and fell off. He struck on his back across a log and sustained some bad bruises. He and friends say that it was almost miraculous that his back was not broken.

Preparing for Sale.—The ladies who have charge of the rummage sale are busy today marking the goods which will be offered and are getting ready to open the sale on Wednesday on Front street. They have a large amount of goods on hand and expect to keep the sale open until the end of the week.

Horse Runs Away.—There was considerable excitement on Commercial Avenue this afternoon when a horse hitched to a Coos Bay laundry wagon started galloping down towards the bay. Near Broadway a man almost stopped the animal and the next attempt, on the very edge of the dock, was successful and no damage resulted.

Remembers Old Enforcement.—That the Sunday closing law was rigidly enforced when it was first enacted is the statement of J. W. Watt, of this city. He said that when he was living in Salem in 1895 that a man named the Moores was fined $20 for digging potatoes in his back yard on Sunday.

Motion is Upheld.—A motion was argued before Judge Pennock this morning by R. J. O. Graves on behalf of the North Pacific Steamship company against the complaint of the Union Meat Company for the collection of $63.50 meat bill, the argument being that the papers did not state the company headquarters are not located in this state. The motion was upheld and the money was paid, each side splitting the costs.

Barber Shops Unite.—The Antiseptic and O. K. Barber Shops have been consolidated in the latter place. Messrs. Busby and Hullin started the Antiseptic barber shop together a few years ago, later separating and are now back in together, making a strong team. Part of the Antiseptic fixtures will be taken to Powers, where Mr. Crawford, who has been employed in Busby's shop, will start a second barber shop.

Grabs Wrong Lever.—A Hansen, to move his auto truck away from the curbing in front of the Holmes Grocery, on north Front street, where it had been backed up, grabbed hold of the wrong lever. Instead of the machine moving forward the machine went backwards up over the curb and crashed through the plate glass windows of the grocery. The glass was shattered all over the sidewalk though no one was injured.

Many Enjoy Concert.—There was a large attendance at the concert given yesterday afternoon in the Orpheum Theatre by the Coos Bay Concert band. The building was well filled and much appreciation voiced for the music by the band. Later the musicians repaired to the race track where they garnered $63 for their selections.

Coos Bay Wins.—There was a baseball game late Saturday afternoon between a pickup nine on Coos Bay and Beaver Hill in which the former "brought home the bacon" with a three-to-five score in a spirited and well-played game. There was a small attendance. Beaver Hill finished next to the top in the Coos Bay League this summer.

Visits in Valley.—Congressman W. C. Hawley left on the train this morning for a visit of three days in the Coquille Valley, during which he will make stops at Myrtle Point, Coquille and Bandon. He expects to return here Wednesday in time to speak at the Methodist Brotherhood banquet on that evening. Mr. Hawley will probably leave the next morning for Salem.

Seine Gets Fish.—Fishermen say that the seine now being used by the Coos Bay creamery on Coos River is getting about 200 salmon a haul now. The Allee H each morning finds a load of from two to five tons of salmon waiting to be brought down to the Tallant cannery, where the Chinese crew is being kept busy with the production.

Goes Over Line.—C. J. Millis, assistant to President Sproule of the S. P. accompanied by C. H. Marsh and Supt. W. F. Miller, left on the early morning train for a trip over the line. The party stopped off between trains at Beaver Hill. They returned from Powers on the five o'clock train this evening. In the morning Mr. and Mrs. Millis are intending to leave in Lynn Lambeth's machine for Roseburg, returning then to San Francisco.

Autoist Hurt.—Ed Lindberg is able to be around today after being laid up for several days with a bad scalp wound. The other night he and Ray Campbell were coming down Front street with one of the Ford racers and when the car struck the railroad crossing near the Cold Storage plant, the wheel caught in the track, throwing Lindberg out on the pavement. Several stitches had to be taken in the scalp wound and he was also badly bruised.

Party Leaves Today.—Several Catching Inlet people left this morning for northern points. Mr. and Mrs. William M. Black left for Corvallis, where Mr. Black will take some agricultural work. T. M. Collier went to Portland to attend the K. P. convention and Miss Edith Kaino has gone to Salem, where she will enter the Capital Business College. Reuben Mattson, of Catching Inlet, is already a student there. E. P. Black will take his brother's place as tow-tester in the Coos River Association.

Frost is Heavy One.—The heaviest frost of this season occurred last night and this morning early in the ground and the walks were covered with a white coating that looked like a young snow storm. The weather prophets and oldest inhabitants were gleeful for already they have predicted this is to be a cold winter with very little rain. So far this year we have had but 1.33 inches of rainfall in comparison with a 19.48 inches of last year at this time.

Young Bomb Thrower.—Herbert Stephens on Saturday night in earnest argument over the European question and the methods of bomb throwing indicated the manner in taking the enemy's trench. A beer bottle, carefully emptied for the occasion, played the leading role of bomb and was pitched with care and accuracy into the middle of the street. It burst into a thousand pieces and Stephens was then rushed by the "coppers" and placed in the enemy's territory where he "looked out" for the rest of the night, the next morning punting over a "ten spot" indemnity. Erwin Larson was just plain drunk, and he too produced a $10 bill for truly the police were getting ready to enjoy Dollar Day.

HUSBAND NOT FOUND

Funeral of Mrs. Hibarger Will be Held Tomorrow

It has been impossible to get word to O. Hibarger, who is on a prospecting trip in Idaho to let him know of the death of his wife, so it has been decided to hold the funeral tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock from the Wilson chapel. The services will be conducted by Rev. Robt. E. Browning and the burial will be at Sunset cemetery.

AMONG THE SICK

George Torrey, who has been suffering from throat trouble, is reported much improved.

Officer William Shoup was confined to his home yesterday and last night on account of a severe cold.

TO-NIGHT

WILLIAM FARNUM, in the great Broadway success
The Gilded Fool

As played by NAT GOODWIN
A powerfully appealing, dramatic photoplay.
A compelling combination of love, high finance and the life of a "Gay White Way."
The plot deals with the progress of young Chummy Short, a typical "Gilded Fool," who spends his days in idleness and his nights in frivolity.
How he meets the "only girl" and through love of her is roused to a realization of his many short comings is a story that takes home to the hardest heart.
The climax comes when, after a fiercely fought battle of finance and erstwhile "Gilded Fool" thwarts the contrivings of a thieving scoundrel and saves his fiancée's father from ruin.

In Tire Satisfaction

There's one tire that carries with it not only the guarantee, but the proved test of having made good on Coos County roads under the hardest usage.

This tire is ONE you can bank on to do more than is claimed for it. There is no chance in FISK TIRES. They do the work, deliver the goods and make good every time. The prices—well, they are—compare them and then compare the tire value.

Bargains Go Fast

Our "Dollar Day" bargains drew an unusually large attendance and the remarkable values we were offering were rapidly taken.

In the lot of Dresses, Skirts, etc., which we were offering for $1.00 were many that had retailed as high as $27.50. They were not the late fall style, but they were of unusually good quality and wise shoppers quickly picked them up.

Our "Dollar Day" sale was in accordance with our established rule—that whenever we announce a sale we are offering real bargains, reducing the price far below the retail value.

We are now showing some very select Fall and Winter garments and are giving fine values in them.
