

DID YOU see the big crowds out buying, Saturday and Monday--Dollar Days?

We advertised Friday that THE HUB would be remembered as the greatest DOLLAR DAY STORE.

The crowds we had Saturday and Monday, and the packages leaving our store proved this.

We are highly gratified over the response to our "Dollar Days" bargain sale. We offered unusual values for this occasion, carrying out our well-known policy of never announcing a special sale unless we are giving real bargains, in fact doing even a little better than we advertised to do.

The "Dollar Days" prices end tonight. We are prepared to take care of all your needs, giving you the right style, the best qualities, and the fullest measures of value for your money.

PATRIOTIC SOCIETY GIVES EMBLEM FOR DISPLAY

R. O. Graves Will Make Presentation Address — To Instill Patriotism in New Citizens

Endeavoring to instill a firm patriotism in the hearts of newly naturalized American citizens, the Sons of the American Revolution in Oregon has purchased American flags for each Circuit Court in the state.

The balliff will hereafter be instructed to show the flag in a conspicuous place on court days when naturalization papers are granted.

R. O. Graves this morning received a letter from Wallace McCamant, of the society in Portland, asking him to make the speech of presentation before the Circuit Court. Mr. Graves has accepted, though he says the delivery probably will not be made until December, unless there is a session before that time and it may be possible on that date to have members of the G. A. R. present.

OBSERVE THE DAY

GERMAN CLUB OF MARSHFIELD HAVE A CELEBRATION

Occasion One Which is Observed Throughout the United States—Speeches and Banquet

The members of the German Club of Marshfield and their ladies celebrated German Day yesterday afternoon and evening at the Odd Fellows Hall. This celebration commemorates the landing of the first German colonies in Germantown, now a part of Philadelphia, in 1683, and is observed by German Societies all over the United States.

The festivities began at 4:30 p. m. with a reception and address by E. B. Gehrke, the president of the club. This was followed by a banquet where speeches were made in German by A. Hagemeyer Sr. and Alex Petersen, and in English by Carl Albrecht. Poems in German were recited by Miss Gertrude Krommunga and Mrs. Alex Petersen.

At the conclusion of the banquet the members and their guests enjoyed an amateur theatrical performance which was most creditably carried out, and which brought forth much applause and well deserved praise. The rest of the evening was passed in dancing and conversation.

The banquet room remained open during the dance and German dishes and liquid refreshments were dispensed in the regular German way.

This, the first celebration of German Day in Marshfield was a great success, and will prove to be, it is hoped, by the members, the precursor of many more where the German-Americans of the city will celebrate this interesting and important event.

BIG CROWD ATTENDS SATURDAY NIGHT AT NORTH BEND

Three Dances in Progress at Once and All Are Crowded—Will Meet Expenses

The Bridge Carnival at North Bend closed Saturday night with a big crowd. There was a parade of people in mask and fancy dress headed by the carnival queen, who was crowned by the largest crowd that has ever gathered at North Bend for any previous occasion. In fact it was about as big a carnival crowd as Coos Bay has ever had.

Everybody enjoyed themselves and the crowd was well behaved. Chief Anderson and Night Policeman Smith had six good men helping them keep order. It was not necessary to make any arrests and the whole affair passed off without any troubles.

Dancing was the main feature of the entertainment Saturday night. There were three different dances in progress, one at Eckhoff hall, another at the Simpson pavilion and the third in the big tent which was erected for the occasion. Probably never before were there as many people dancing at one time on Coos Bay. The dances continued as long as the people wanted to stay.

The Carnival was a marked success and the money taken in ample to meet all expenses.

Prizes Awarded
Prizes were awarded for the most comical costumes shown in the carnival parade at North Bend Saturday night. Charles Cronkite, who represented the carnival king, and Walter McLeod, who was dressed as a comic queen, were awarded $15 as the most comical couple. Jack Palmer was given a $10 prize as the most comical man. He was dressed as an Irishman. Mrs. Geo. Taylor was awarded a $10 prize for having the most ridiculous costume among the ladies. The judges were Mrs. H. E. Burmeister, M. J. Coleman and A. H. Derbyshire.

SONG MAKES A HIT

TWO BEAVER HILL BOYS ENTERTAIN CARNIVAL CROWD

Ode to Coos Bay is Given With High School Band Accompanying, the Singers

One of the features of the closing night of the carnival was the singing of a song which was written as a Coos Bay ode. The North Bend High School band played the music and the song was sung by C. O. Loyles and Warren Lavine, two of the boys from the Beaver Hill logging camp and who are members of the Beaver Hill quartet. They sang splendidly and made a great hit. The song was to the tune of "America" and the words are as follows:

Coos County 'tis of thee
Land of Prosperity
Of thee we sing,
Land where our hopes abide
Land of our honest pride
From every road and tide,
Let progress bring.
Yon bridge that spans the Bay
We greet with pride today
Of thee we sing,
We love thy lofty sight
Thy rails and girders bright
They span structures might
Let progress bring.

To those men of nerve and strength
Who've built thy height and length
Of them we sing,
To those men of brain and skill
Who've lent both hand and will
Through mountains' heart and fill
Of them we sing.

'Mid days of war and strife
Yon bridge has come to life
Of thee we sing,
Long may your rails be bright
Progress us by thy might
Guide traffic day and night,
Great Bridge Our Pride.

BOATING PARTY VISITS COAST GUARD STATION

Alice H. Takes Crowd of 30 to Lower Bay Yesterday, Returning in Evening

There were 30 people aboard the Alice H. yesterday in an excursion to the Coast Guard Station in the lower bay. The day was very enjoyably spent about the station and in the afternoon, on the beach. The party returned early last evening. Those on the excursion were Mr. and Mrs. Hobain, Mrs. R. E. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Thayer Grimes, Misses Nora Tower, Edna Beebe, Grace Griffin, Ethel Reese, Larson, Wolyerton, Eva Dresser, Alice Curtis, Hall, Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ash, and Messrs. George Murch, Jay Doyle, Midge Welch, John Ferguson, Claude Thompson, William Curtis, Roy Gill, Ben Fisher, Gordon Rasmussen.

Parties having bills against the auto race Sunday are notified to present them to me on or before October 15, 1915.

PORT WOULD HAVE MICHEE REMOVE CHANNEL SHOALS

Work During Winter Weather—Commissioners Hold Monthly Meeting This Morning

Use of the Government bar dredge Colonel P. S. Michie on the inner harbor during the winter weather when storms and winds forbid bar working, is being asked by the Port Commissioners of the government engineers in Portland. Secretary Henry Sengstacken this morning, at the regular Port meeting, was instructed to write for their opinions and later data and maps would be sent forward.

There are small shoals forming in the lower bay, said the Commissioners. They saw no reason why the Michie could not be used to take them out during the periods that she might remain inactive at Empire.

May Use Dredge in North
Already from Portland has come the report that the dredge may be taken north to Grays Harbor to be used during the coming winter though this information has not been substantiated.

Hereafter, all reports of the Port Commission will read from December 1 to December 1, the idea being to have all information ready for the first meeting of each January. Henry Diers, of North Bend, will be asked to again get up shipping statistics of the year on Coos Bay and have them ready for December 1.

Must Publish Budget.

Under a new law the Port Commissioners must publish their budget at least 20 days before the tax levy is made, according to C. R. Peck, one of the Port attorneys. For this reason the Commissioners will hold a special meeting next Saturday evening.

It is said that the tax this year will again be four mills, the same as the last year.

Tender Checks

C. E. McKnight, appearing for George Loggie, tendered a check for $1536.56 for a North Marshfield dredge fill, but this could not be accepted until the recorded mortgage is released.

The Port has given Julius Larson its note, payable in one year, for $5000 to apply on an $8000 bill for dredging.

Claude Nasburg, appearing for the Nasburg Land Company, asked that they be allowed to execute a note for their fill of some $4500 and release the mortgage against the waterfront property, leaving it free and unencumbered for a sale at any time.

Propositions Made.

Two propositions were agreeable to the Port and are now being considered by the land company, one being to allow Claude Nasburg and Mrs. Nasburg to sign notes individually for the amounts, or to allow the company the privilege of executing a mortgage and releasing certain lots as soon as they are paid for.

TRAVEL IS HEAVY

BIG CROWD CARRIED BETWEEN THE TWO CITIES

Transportation Arrangements Well Handled by Auto Line Saturday Night During the Carnival

The transportation arrangements during the North Bend carnival were particularly good. Gorst & King had all the available extra autos on the run between Marshfield and North Bend. Saturday night there was a continuous stream of machines going in both directions between the two cities. No one had to wait when they wanted to go as there was enough machines to take care of the crowd.

There was never a time before when as many people traveled between the two cities and with it all there were no accidents or delays. It was clearly proved that Coos Bay is well equipped to take care of transportation of any sized crowd between the two cities.

MOTOR CAR HOODOOD

The Southern Pacific Motor car, over which there has been so much talk in connection with the franchise, because it has been losing money, was out of commission Saturday but was able to resume the run Sunday. Saturday was one of the days when it seemed that the motor car would have earned good money and to have it laid up seemed like a real hoodoo was attached to it.

NAME ON BALLOT

JUDGE COKE ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY IN EUGENE

Portland Telegram Carries Word—Term Expires Last Part of Next Year—Vote in November

Judge John S. Coke, in Eugene has announced his candidacy for reelection to the circuit court bench on the Republican ticket. His name will appear on the ballot of next November, though his term of office does not expire until December 31, 1916.

It was about February 1, 1909, that Judge Coke first took office, having been appointed when the first district was divided and a new district made. His term of office was for four years and he has been through one election.

Under a new state law circuit judges hereafter will hold office for a term of six instead of four years.

SALT LAKE, Oct. 11.—Poor Beavers. They lost three straight to the Bees in the week-end series, all of which put the Mormons up second in the league, dropping Los Angeles to the rear. The Angels since they have lost their chance at the pennant, seem to have fallen into evil ways for the past week has found them in a deep slum with the Bees booming along in great style.

There still persists in the South the talk that Portland never year will ally herself with the Northwest League. This has been a hard season to make both ends meet. Manager McCredie, however, still persists in denying the constant rumors.
