HENDERSON FREED

SHERIFF AND DISTRICT ATTORNEY PLEAD FOR LENIENCY

Was Employed in Doing Duty When Arrested, Claims Sheriff—Matter Under Adjudication

Britt Henderson appeared before Judge Coke today to answer the charge of breaking his parole. With him came Sheriff Johnson to plead for leniency and District Attorney Liljeqvist to ask that Henderson be given another chance.

Employed by Sheriff Sheriff Johnson said that Britt Henderson was in the employ of his office when he was arrested. He said that Henderson was given $70 expense money to take a trip to eastern Oregon in an effort to run down suspects in the Empire saloon robbery more than a year ago and had just returned a short time before he was arrested.

Accounted for Money Every cent of the $70 was accounted for on Henderson's return, said Sheriff Johnson. In September a bill of $297, claimed to be for Henderson's salary was disallowed by the County Court.

And while he was waiting to appear before the grand jury with his evidence he was employed to investigate North Bend rooming houses, a complaint having been in the meantime received from Governor Withycombe, saying that North Bend people had complained.

The sheriff testified that he felt Henderson, in the performance of his duty, that of seeking evidence, was getting himself ready for the occasion when he slipped a trifle too far and became intoxicated.

District Attorney Liljeqvist said too that he felt in no way like pushing the revocation of the parole.

Case Unusual One In his statements Judge Coke said that in seven years on the bench, only once before has he extended leniency for the second time. He said that the case is an exceptional one and so took it under advisement. Henderson was liberated from custody at least for the present.

SUIT OVER BAKERY CLASSIFIED ADS ALEX RINNE BEGINS SUIT AGAINST EMIL HELMO TODAY Says Helmo Ows Him $510 on Note From Old Deal—Attachment Served Today Deputy Sheriff A. P. Davis today served attachment on the Marshfield Bakery as part of the proceedings in a suit instituted by Alex Rinne against Emil Helmo. The petition recites that Helmo has just disposed of the bakery to C. A. Hames who is consequently made a joint defendant. Rinne alleges that sometime ago Helmo and Peters had trouble over their partnership and in the settlement, Helmo desired a note for $510 which Rinne held against Peters. Rinne gave this to him on the understanding that Helmo was to pay $25 per month on it. The bakery was the only security that Rinne had, he says, and consequently he started the suit when Helmo transferred it to Hames. Arrangements will probably be made to take care of the business as it would seriously handicap the new proprietor, Mr. Hames, who is incidentally involved, if it were allowed to tie up the business.
