EUROPEAN WAR ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

OCT. 15, 1914

The Germans marching on Ostend have taken Bruges and appeared at the North Sea about twelve miles northeast of Ostend.

The field action on the left wing of the allied armies extends from the region of Ypres to the sea.

The bombardment of Rheims by the Germans continues and the cathedral is subjected to another shelling.

The headquarters of Emperor William have been moved into France.

The Belgian government before moving to Havre ordered all males between the age of 18 and 45 to join the army within two days or be considered traitors.

The British cruiser Hawke was sunk by a German submarine.

JUDGE COKE

THE following editorial appeared in the Polk County Observer, published at Dallas and of which Lew A. Cates, formerly of Coquille is the editor:

"The announcement that Judge John S. Coke will be a candidate to succeed himself on the circuit court bench for Coos and Curry counties should be received with no small degree of satisfaction by the people within that judicial district, where he has presided two successive terms, and where he has made a splendid record as a jurist. It has been Judge Coke's intention to return to his private law practice, which was more remunerative than his present position, and his announcement therefore may come as something of a surprise to his constituency. It is possible that the bar of Coos and Curry counties, appreciating his worth on the bench, may have prevailed upon Judge Coke to stand as a candidate to succeed himself. While his election must come from several adjacent counties, as well as Coos and Curry, that he will be continued in office is a foregone conclusion.

NOT REPRESENTED

THE Manufacturers' and Land Products Show to be held in Portland beginning October 25 is a big exposition. There will be great opportunity to exhibit products of all kinds. Already twenty counties in Oregon have arranged for space to exhibit. Coos County is not in the list and so far as is known, has not done anything toward exhibiting at this show. The county is certainly overlooking an opportunity to advertise the community when it fails to make some kind of a showing. There are plenty of fine products here to be shown.

BEYOND REASON

THERE is a reason for all things unless it is feminine fashions. Furs in summer and peck-a-boos waists in winter are beyond all reason.

WITH THE TOAST AND THE TEA

GOOD EVENING

Nothing can work me damage but myself; the harm that I sustain I carry about with me, and I am ever a real sufferer by my own fault.—St. Bernard.

THE LESSER ROLES

Just play the part in which you're cast. With all the skill that you possess, be firm and faithful to the last. This much in time brings you success.

Though humble now your part may be. Despise it not because it's small. Some watchful eye is sure to see if into it you put your all.

To greater roles you must ascend. If in the lesser you are great; Success is certain in the end. For those who bravely work and wait.

There are lots of ideal husbands and ideal wives on Coos Bay but they are seldom married to each other.

When he is single a Coos Bay man has every drawer in the chest-drawer packed with his stuff and is crowded for room. But after he gets married he is lucky if his wife lets him have a half drawer to stow away what little he owns.

Some Coos Bay men are like a busy bee, every man they touch gets stung.

YOU KNOW HIM

He is a liar most uncouth; And he talks an awful lot. He says he aims to tell the truth. But he's a darn poor shot.

Sometimes a Coos Bay man who selects the "only girl for a mate" finds later that she is a "skipper."

Speak, teacher, to the lit-tle boy and beat him when he sneezes. He only does it to annoy, because he knows it teases.

HELP!

He hooked a monster fish. He'll state, And yet he can't tell you its weight; The blamed fish didn't get a weigh. Because it leaped and got away.—JAY TOWER

A MODERN PROVERB

Thrice armed is she who forth does float, with virtue, modesty, and a vote.

A Coos Bay single man has to have a conscience to tell him when he has done wrong. But a married man doesn't need a conscience. He can rely on his wife telling him all about it.

If women are bound to daub and streak themselves with powder why don't they put it on some place where it won't show.

You never heard of a man working himself to death when he was working for another man.

Tell a Coos Bay girl that she looks cute and she will want to kiss you. Tell a Coos Bay man that he looks cute and he will want to kill you.

QUESTION FOR THE DAY

What has become of the old fashioned man who used to worry for fear the bicycle would make us a round shouldered race?

Before she gets him she always wants to see the color of his eyes. After she gets him all she thinks about is the color of his coin.

When they are first married she greets him with passionate showers of kisses. But about ten years later, she greets him with passionate showers of plates and cups and saucers.

THE BACHELOR GIRL SAYS:

THE kiss which a man remembers longest is the kiss he couldn't get. You can't make trouble and keep out of it, nor make love without some time falling into it.

When a woman insists on loving the wrong man the gods sometimes punish her by letting her marry him.

When a man has good shoulders and a classic profile it is so easy for a woman to mistake his bravado for bravery and his gall for gallantry.

The wife who forgives her husband for one flirtation is a diplomat; the wife who forgives him twice is an optimist; the wife who forgives him three times is a saint, and the wife who forgives him oftener is a lunatic.

When a man begs a woman to be logical it is equivalent to asking her to stop being in love with him.

Success in flirtation, for a man, consists in the ability to appear in love when he is indifferent; for a woman, in the ability to appear indifferent when she is in love.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—All hope for the Beavers has been abandoned; for they are playing the last of the season without any heart, without the "pep" that marked the start and the mid-season of the series.

Judge McCredle is now figuring on a new schedule for the Beavers next year, to retain them in the Coast League. He expects to keep them at home for 15 weeks and send them abroad for another 15, thereby greatly reducing the high cost of transportation every week.

OREGON'S PRODUCTS WILL BE DISPLAYED

Big Show at Portland This Month Will Give Every Locality Chance to Exhibit

PORTLAND, Oct. 13.—Oregon's display of soil products at the Manufacturers' and Land Products Show to open here October 25, will be greater than at the Lewis & Clark Fair of 1905.

Already more than twenty counties of the state have space at the exposition and by the time the exhibition throws open its doors, it is expected, twenty-five out of the thirty-five Oregon counties, will have attractive displays.

Counties to make displays, booths for which had been reserved to October 4, were Morrow, Polk, Hood River, Malheur, Umatilla, Klamath, Wasco, Crook, Clackamas, Baker, Columbia, Multnomah, Union, Linn, Wallowa, Jackson, Washington, Lincoln and Wheeler. The various Oregon counties to exhibit at Portland, several being prize winners at the recent State Fair, are going after the gold medal and prize of $200 for the best county display. The second best exhibit in this class will receive a silver medal and $100 in cash. The best exhibits from each county will receive cash from $50 to $100.

SHIPPING OUT TIES

The Myrtle Point Enterprise says: W. B. Myers, one of the South Fork tie contractors, has about 6,000 ties left in the woods and the teams employed are getting them out at the rate of about 500 per day.

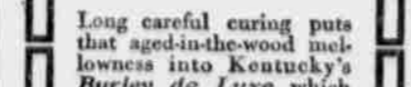

USING LOCAL GRAVEL

The Myrtle Point Enterprise says: Two road districts are now using gravel that is being brought down from the South Fork gravel pits. Supervisor Laird of the Myrtle Point district has his crew busy finishing the road between this city and the North Fork bridge, and Geo. Mullen of the North Fork district started a crew to hauling gravel on the road northeast of town.
