Locates Here.

John Nolan, who recently came here from Eureka, has purchased the Howatt place and some adjoining lots in Eastside from Henry Sengstacken and will make his home on the Bay.

Port to Make Up Budget.

A special meeting of the Port Commissioners is called for this evening, the purpose being to make up the Port of Coos Bay budget for 1916. From statements of the Commissioners at the last meeting it seems that the tax levy in the Port this year will again be four mills.

Found Ring.

While crossing Front street, George Gilbertson picked up an Eagles' signet ring. He will turn it in to the officers of the local Aerie of Eagles and it will be restored to the owner. It is quite a valuable ring and it is remarkable that it was not run over and destroyed.

Couldn't Plant Garden.

W. R. Foote, of Eastside, was over this morning making the rounds of the city in an effort to secure seeds with which to plant his fall garden. He was surprised to find it impossible to get enough even for a 10-foot square tract and was told that early in the fall the merchants return their seeds to the wholesale houses.

Gets Shipping Data.

Henry Diers is busy getting together the shipping data of incoming and outgoing cargoes on Coos Bay during 1915. He expects to have the information ready early in December for the Port Commissioners. He has found that 2,200 tons or 12,000 sacks of cement were received here in the building of the big North Bend bridge.

Smiling Dutch Leaves.

"Smiling Dutch" engaged passage south on the Kilburn today, going to San Francisco, where he will meet Pete Pappas in a wrestling match and later go to Los Angeles to spend the winter at the wrestling game. He says next spring he will return to again open his athletic club in Bandon. Sam Wilson, too, is leaving, though he is going north to Portland and will spend the winter in coast cities following the wrestling game.

Visited Swedish Colony.

Rev. B. F. Bengtson returned Friday evening from Melrose, Douglas County, where he visited the large Swedish settlement that has colonized on a 4000-acre tract at that place. They are making a success of their work and are reported prosperous and happy in their home. Rev. Bengtson was accompanied on his return by Rev. J. A. Edlund, of Astoria, who is secretary of the Swedish Lutheran Conference in this district, who will make a visit to the congregations in

Autos Scraped on Curve.

Driving his machine to Coquille yesterday afternoon A. S. Hammond, of North Bend, says that a driver coming this way, tried to pass him and on the slippery curve the two machines scraped together. He claims there was little damage done though the women in the car, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. Catterlin and Mrs. Ida Conrad, returned home on the next auto and the auto was taken to Coquille for repairs on some springs.

Orchestra Welcomes Couple.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gagnon engaged the Fenton five piece orchestra last evening and went to the residence of the couple in Bunker Hill and for two hours played while friends dropped in to welcome the bride to Coos Bay and to wish them both success and good luck. At the same time a charivari raged on the outside and the din was quieted by a draft of candy for the kiddies and a keg of beer for the grownups.

Logs are Attached.

Constable Cox went down to South Inlet this morning to attach logs and piling in a suit brought against David Weaver and Betty Piate for the collection of $34.30 he claims is due him in wages. The papers state that the wages are coming from Weaver who a few days ago is said to have disposed of his holdings to Betty Piate. The original sum was $112.50 but part of this has been paid.

Open Bids Monday.

William G. Chandler has completed the plans and specifications for the concrete W. P. Murphy building in North Bend and expects to receive bids on Monday and if possible to open them on Wednesday morning. The building will be about 100 by 30 feet and will contain only a moving picture house. Mr. Chandler will get away on the next Adeline for San Francisco if he is in through in time, going for a ten-days' visit there.

Changes Territory.

A. M. Wallman, who succeeded Archie Johnston in this territory for the Pacific Hardware & Steel Company, will leave soon for the South. He will be succeeded here by Mr. Bue.

Endorses the Plan.

The North-Bend Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the plan suggested by Eureka citizens to have the mail between Coos Bay and Eureka carried by boat so that it will not be so long delayed.

To be a Lawyer.

Many former University of Oregon students here will be glad to learn that Arthur Geary, first graduate of the University, has returned from New York after studying three years at Columbia and has taken the bar examination to practice in this state.

To Preach Here.

The Rev. J. A. Edlund, of Astoria, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran Church and secretary of the Columbia Conference of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, will speak at the services in the Swedish Lutheran Churches of Marshfield and North Bend, Sunday, October 17th.

Makes Assignment.

H. Fimmel, of North Front street dry goods store, has made a common law assignment to his creditors, with Arthur McKeown as assignee. No amounts owing have been made public and under this form of an assignment it is possible the matter will not be brought into the bankruptcy court. It is said there is some real estate that may be turned over for the creditors.

Quartet on Pantages.

Two members of the University of Oregon Glee Club quartet that visited Coos County this spring and gave a series of concerts, belong to the present University quartet that has just signed a four-months contract with the Pantages' circuit. The two singers who were here were Henry Heidenreich and Paul F. Sprague, and the other two members now are Larry C. Mann and Ray W. Stanton. They expect to return to college for the second semester. Two of the boys are well known here.

Keep Ward at Fair.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Coos and Curry exhibit at the exposition this morning it was found the finances would allow the keeping of J. A. Ward in San Francisco as manager possibly until December 12, after the closing of the fair. The officers are Hugh McLain, president; H. W. Young, of Coquille, secretary, and Wm. Grimes, treasurer. An effort will be made to sell the big myrtle-wood central booth in San Francisco. A full report of finances will be published after the exhibit has been closed and all accounts taken care of.

Returns Empty-Handed.

Deputy Sheriff W. C. Laird was to arrive back in Coquille today, said Sheriff Johnson this morning, from Spokane and Vale. In neither place was he successful in getting his man. In Spokane the police had turned John R. Fish, wanted here for alleged passing of no-fund checks, loose just four hours before Laird's arrival there. Roscoe Jesse, formerly of Bandon, three years ago charged with the theft of a horse from his wife from whom he is now divorced, was sought in Vale, but the authorities, said the Sheriff, decided not to bring him back on the old charge.

PERSONAL MENTION

H. L. SAVAGE is back from Portland after a visit in that city.

F. E. CONWAY left yesterday for Portland and Seattle for a short stay.

MRS. E. W. SMITH, of Catching Inlet, was a Marshfield shopper today.

W. C. SWAIN, of Powers, came down this morning for a day's visit in the city.

COUNTY SURVEYOR McCULLOCH, of Coquille, was a Marshfield business visitor yesterday.

GEORGE BLAKE returned today on the Kilburn from Portland, where he has been attending the Knights

SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Saturday
October 16—Sun rises at 6:29, and sun sets at 5:24

Sunday
October 17—Sun rises at 6:31 and sun sets at 5:22.

Did Not Wait for Wire.—District Attorney Liljeqvist said today that his understanding is the Spokane police turned John R. Fish loose up there after they had received Sheriff Johnson's wire saying a deputy was on the way. He said that in spite of habeas corpus proceedings the officers could re-arrest the man immediately, or he could be held as a fugitive from justice.
