

MODART CORSETS

Front Laced

No, Madam

The boning in MODARTS will not rust or make a permanent bend in the waist line. It is made of clock-spring steel—the most perfect corset boning ever produced.

Feel how light and flexible the corset is—note the special features which insure absolute comfort over diaphragm and bust.

The Lindsey supporter used on MODARTS has a felt button which does not injure the hosiery. The supporter clasp is rust-proof—just another reason why MODARTS are quality garments.

HALLOWE'EN EVENTS

Hallowe'en season promises to be a busy one this year, many of the clubs as well as individuals making preparations for celebrating the occasion and e'er long the proverbial black cats will be seen lurking in dark corners, the witches flying on brook sticks, and Jack-o-lanterns, grinning at you from every conceivable nook and corner. Following is a list of some of the coming events:

This evening, Miss Franse and Mrs. Eleanor McMullen are entertaining the teachers of the Marshfield schools with a Hallowe'en dance at the Myrtle Arms.

The Alpha Delphian Society will celebrate Hallowe'en with a party at the home of Miss Ellen Rudnas, on Monday evening November the first, each member having the privilege of inviting two guests.

The Eastside Social Club for some time have planned a Hallowe'en celebration, and this will be in the form of a party for their families and friends at the new school house on Friday evening, Oct. 29th.

The Library Association of North Bend will give a Hallowe'en dance at Eckhoff hall Saturday evening Oct. 30th, and as many as can, are urged to come in costume, although this feature is not imperative.

Misses Madge and Winifred Simpson of Bunker Hill are planning a party to be given at their home on Friday evening Oct. 29th, and this also will be in keeping with the Hallowe'en season.

The Eastern Star lodge will observe Hallowe'en with a party Tuesday evening, October 26th, in the lodge rooms.

Miss Helen Sprague will be hostess at her home on Commercial Avenue, Friday, Oct. 29th, at a Hallowe'en party for the teachers of Marshfield and vicinity.

The High School pupils, Senior class in charge, are planning a Hallowe'en party for Saturday, Oct. 30th, to be given at the High school.

The ladies of the Sumner Social Club will entertain their husbands and friends on Saturday evening, Oct. 30th, with a Hallowe'en party in the Sumner hall.

ALERT CLUB

The Club had an unusually pleasant, busy meeting which took the form of a house warming at the recently completed bungalow of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nowlin of Allegany. Messrs J. C. Beattie and V. K. Rood furnished boat service for the day.

After a short time, spent in chatting and needlework, the following program was enjoyed with Mrs. Eugene Terry as leader.

Roll call—Responded to with a quotation on Truth.
Topic—The elements of fear causing untruthfulness in children—Mrs. Mahaffy.

Topic—What is the relation of Imagination to Untruthfulness by Mrs. F. B. Rood.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY SESSION

The ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church enjoyed an all day session last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. T. Haines. A Cafeteria luncheon was served at noon, and a number of the husbands and other guests came in at this time to enjoy this part of the day's program. The ladies plan to hold a bazaar sometime in December, and most of the time Wednesday was spent in preparation for this event. This was a special meeting of the auxiliary.

EVENING CARD PARTY

Last evening, Miss Ruth Allen pleasantly entertained a few friends at an evening of five hundred. Autumn leaves were used very effectively in the parlor decorations. At a late hour Miss Allen served a dainty luncheon to the following guests: Misses Wolverton, Margaret Shaw, Iva Stokes, Ethel Reese, Edna Louise Larsen, and Messrs: Roy Gill, Kenneth Barragar, John Noble, V. A. Johnson, J. T. Brand, and Jay Doyle.
