Ostlund, special government meteorologist: Maximum . . . . .66 Minimum . . . . .40 At 4:43 a. m. . . . .40 Precipitation . . . . .14 Precipitation since Sept. 1, 1915 . . . . .3.22 Precipitation same period last year . . . . .16.10 Wind—Southwest, partly cloudy.

Powers Wedding.—Joe O'Laughlin of Powers is erecting a new home for himself there. The date of his nuptials has not been announced.

Has Accident.—L. T. Matthews is in from his South inlet ranch. He is nursing an injury to his eye, sustained while working in the timber on his place the other day.

Won Game.—Geo. N. Bolt has received word that Lebanon High school defeated the Brownville football team 13 to 0 last Saturday. His son, Eric Bolt, is in charge of the Lebanon high school and coached the football team there.

On Road Now.—J. H. Rabskopf of Coquille was here today. He recently retired as assistant postmaster at Coquille and is representing the Newbauer Wholesale grocery company in this section. Mr. Bender, formerly of Myrtle Point, has taken his place in the Coquille postoffice.

Goes to Texas.—Rexford Starr, who for a long time has been employed at Herman Hillier's cigar store, and who is well-known in the city, has left for Sanger, Texas, his old home where his parents reside. He will remain there for some time and may return to Coos Bay later.

Gets Auto.—W. H. Bunch, former Coos county superintendent, was here yesterday from McKinley where he is just completing a road gravel contract. He will assume charge of the Gravel Ford Academy again soon and expects this will be his last year in educational work. While here, he purchased a Ford auto. He says that the road from Gravel Ford to Myrtle Point and Coquille is now practically all plank or gravel so that he can use a car to advantage.

Shoe Talk

Simply can't resist speakin' out in meetin' about our new shoes that have just come in. Years ago we found out that if you save people money, they will give you their trade. Every pair of our shoes saves the wearer money, not speaking of the style, comfort and satisfaction that is thrown in. Here are some of the new numbers: No. 457—Ladies Bobby Boots in tan calf, lace, crocose sole, rubber heels—a fine shoe for every—$3.95 day wear. No. 504—Ladies' patent leather, cloth top, lace, well sole, latest style and only—$4.00 No. 506—Gun-metal, cloth top, lace, well sole, up to date last, $4.00 fine for winter wear for the lady. No. 515—Viel kid, cloth top, plain toe, latest style, best low-priced shoe on the market. $2.95 Special No. 521—Viel kid, button, cushion sole, made especially for $4.00 women with tender feet. Very little more for us to say—You will do the talking when you see the style and quality we are talking about. Take a peep at our little show window.

SUNRISE AND SUNSET Wednesday October 27—Sun rises at 6:45 and sets at 5:05.

Battles Is Out.—R. S. Battles, charged with being drunk and resisting an officer, was released from the city jail late yesterday afternoon after being held there since early Sunday morning. He was unable to pay a $25 fine on Monday and went back to jail again. He paid $25.

Buys Home.—The Marshfield Aerie of Eagles has purchased the home of James Christensen in Ferndale. Mr. Christensen is a member of the Order and has been incapacitated by a stroke of paralysis. The lodge purchased the place partly to assist him in getting ready cash and also as an investment.

Says Country Is Good.—Milton Glass, of the Judell company, likes Coos Bay. He says that between here and the Exposition he has seen nothing like Coos and finds business better here than in other places. He took a trip up to Powers and along the line yesterday and declared he likes us here.

Married Coquille Couple.—Rev. J. E. Knotts on Saturday night at 10 p. m. in the Methodist Episcopal parsonage united Edwin Aasen, of Coquille, and Miss Myrtle Norris, of Fairview, in marriage. There were present the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Norris, of Fairview. The young couple visited here over Sunday, returning to Coquille yesterday where they will reside. Mr. Aasen is a well-known logging operator.

Dunn Goes To Coquille.—William Dunn who yesterday while suffering from the "D. T.'s" ran amuck in Bunker Hill was taken to Coquille this morning where he will be tried before Judge Watson as to his sanity. Deputy Sheriff Laird returned last evening from Coquille for the man. After coming from under the effects of the quieting "shot in the arm" yesterday afternoon Dunn told the police that he wants to go to the asylum and be kept away from liquor for he feared he would kill himself. He was fairly rational in discussing his case saying that he is "all shot to pieces."

Wants Delegation to Go.—Secretary Earl Powell, of the Coos Bay Business Men's Association, is interested in getting a delegation of business men to go on November 16 to Bandon, there to attend the quarterly meeting of the Association. Nomination of officers to be elected at the following meeting will take place at that time. He has spoken to Supt. W. F. Miller, of the local railroad, to have the motor car make a special trip to Coquille about 4 p. m. on that afternoon and take the delegates to Bandon by special boat, returning in the same manner that night.

Grading is Started.—P. M. Tulley this morning put a crew of men at work tearing up the planking on Front street south of Central avenue, getting the road in shape for the grading that must be done before the paving and the laying of the concrete sidewalk can be started. This will be one of the most needed improvements in the city and presages the time when the block from Central avenue to Anderson and west to Broadway will be entirely paved. Passengers leaving the steamships have their first introduction to Marshfield over streets in which the planking is worn out and dangerous.

Has Resigned Position.—Max Tepper, for many years steward of the Millicoma Club, has resigned his position effective November 1 and expects to leave about that time for Brownsville, Texas. Mrs. Tepper accompanies him and will visit at the home of her parents in South-eastern Texas for a time. Mr. and Mrs. Tepper's many friends will genuinely regret their departure from Coos Bay and unite in wishing that good fortune may favor them in their new home. In his place in the Millicoma Club Mr. Tepper has come in contact with all the business men of the city and has made many warm friends among them who will wish "Max" an abundance of the good things of the world including "good luck" wherever fate and fortune may lead him.

WINNING NUMBER FOR THIS WEEK IS 2199

Parrot Stops Jitney.—Capt. Matson of South Marshfield was today telling a new joke on the Jitney driver on that route. He says that while they were coming down this morning, they heard a shrill cry of "Jitney" and the car stopped. They looked all around to see the woman who was hailing them but could not see any one. Finally they noticed that Mrs. James Rolandson's parrot was perched up in a tree and was repeating "jitney" in a mild tone. The bird had learned it somehow. Capt. Matson says that the parrot is sure a "bird" when it comes to picking up names. He passed there several times with his dog, which is named "Pickaninny" and he called to him. Now everytime Capt. Matson comes in sight of the bird, the parrot calls out "Pickaninny."

PERSONAL MENTION

FRED MARX is again on the Bay and is distinguishable by a new white hat, from underneath whose brim his cheery smile beams a welcome to all, whether they need a big order or not.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY MANN, of North Bend, leave today for Los Angeles to make their future home after several years' residence on Coos Bay. During their stay they made many friends whose best wishes will follow them.

HOMER RING left today for Tar Heel where he and some friends will camp for a few days, feasting on wild ducks, crabs, clams, venison and other dainties and preparing to give Cell Ireland a warm reception when the latter comes down on his honeymoon trip.

JUDGE FENSLER came in last evening from Powers to confer with the legal lights on the Bay on the proper rules of procedure in his court and incidentally to explain to A. J. Mendel why the Hub store at Powers is doing so much more business than some thought it was possible. He didn't have to explain long in the face of such prosperity before A. J. interrupted with "Money talks" that's sufficient.
