

Shoe Talk

Simply can't resist speakin' out in meetin' about our new shoes that have just come in. Years ago we found out that if you save people money, they will give you their money. Every pair of our shoes saves the wearer money, not speaking of the style, comfort and satisfaction that is thrown in. Here are some of the new numbers:

No. 457—Ladies Bobby Boots in tan calf, lace, crepe sole, rubber heels—a fine shoe for every day wear. $3.95

No. 564—Ladies' patent leather, cloth top, lace, welt sole, latest style and only. $4.00

No. 566—Gun-metal, cloth top, lace, welt sole, up to date last. $4.00

No. 515—Vici kid, cloth top, plain toe, latest style, best low-priced shoe on the market. $2.95

Special No. 521—Vici kid, button, cushion sole, made especially for $4.00

Very little more for us to say—You will do the talking when you see the style and quality we are talking about. Take a peep at our little show window.

Noble Theater TO-NIGHT

Another Big Feature.
JANE EYRE

A remarkable picture based on the famous novel by Charlotte Bronte, produced by the Biograph Company, in three acts. A picture that will be liked. SHOWING TONIGHT ONLY. Positively will not be repeated.

"THE HUMAN CHAIN"—One of the Hazards of Helen railroad stories. Full of thrills as usual.

"CROSSED LOVE AND SWORDS"—Keystone comedy. Slapstick that we all like.

MR. JARR AND GERTRUDE'S BEAU—One of the famous "Jarr Family" series—Comedy that will please the kids.

Lower Floor, 15 cts.; Balcony, 10 cts.; Children, 5 cts.

Tomorrow night: The ninth chapter of "The Diamond From the Sky," and "The Scarlet Lady," a splendid three part Selig play.

Party Tomorrow Night—The East-side Social Club will give a Halloween party tomorrow night in the new school house which is rapidly becoming a civic center for the East-side people. There will also be held in connection, a pound social for a needy citizen of that locality.

Is Now A Pastor—At the quarterly meeting of the Methodist church here on Tuesday evening E. H. Campbell was licensed by Dr. J. T. Abbett as local pastor of the Coos Bay Circuit. He will have charge of the services hereafter in Eastside, Bay City and Bay Park.

Deer Meat Excellent—Frank Catterlin today treated some of his friends to real juicy steaks of venison, taken from the big animal brought back a few days ago from a Curry County hunting trip. At that time there were three deer and one bear killed. Mr. Catterlin is having the bear skin fixed into a rug.

Report On Convention—At 7:15 this evening in the Baptist church, the Rev. G. Le Roy Hall will make a full report of the Baptist State Convention in Eugene, from which he has just returned. A special invitation is extended to all who are interested in the large and vigorous mission work of the Baptist church in Oregon.

Two Cars Break Down—There was a long distance call from Joe Laird, of the Myrtle Point Roseburg stage line at noon saying that this morning on his way here he passed two cars of another local stage line broken down in the canyon and that he is bringing on the passengers on both cars late this afternoon. He said the two cars had returned to Roseburg.

Husband Pays Fine—William Bell charged yesterday by his wife with assault, was fined $23 in the Justice Court at five o'clock last evening after District Attorney Liljeqvist had changed the charge to that of simple assault. Bell paid the fine and was released from custody. The young wife had appeared before Judge Pennock with both her eyes blackened and her nose badly damaged as the result of a quarrel with her husband.

Going on Single Crew—On the first of the month the bar dredge Michie is going on single crew, according to Captain Bob Jones, who has been temporary pilot aboard here for several weeks. He is intending to leave in a few days for Portland though he has no plans for the immediate future. Captain Jones is well known on Coos Bay. He came here from the Sluslaw where he was captain of the tug boat Roberts.

Salmon Not Running—John La Mure, of the Tallant Cannery, said this morning that in the past week the run of the salmon has been lessening until now they are getting only about 350 Silversides a day and about a ton of Chinooks. He knows no reasons for the fish not running and says he hopes that later in the season will see them starting in again. The season will close on November 20.

Millicoma Club To Meet—An important meeting of this evening at eight o'clock by the notices sent out by Secretary H. A. Buserud. It is said that a steward will be elected to take the place of Max Tepper, resigned, and also that the matter of lowering the entrance fees will be up for discussion, though this was not confirmed by the committee.

El Kab Klub To Meet—E. I. Chandler is sending out notices today that there will be a meeting of the El Kab Klub of the Shriners on Monday evening, November 1 in the offices of C. F. McKnight in the Coke Building. The Klub is figuring on several social functions this winter and the members are asked to be present.

To Go to Central Oregon—Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Getty of Ferndale leave the first of the week for Lakeview, Oregon, where Mr. Getty has purchased a photo gallery, and will engage in business and make his future home. ### TIMES WANT ADS GET FINE RESULTS

LOST ARTICLES RECOVERED, OWNERS OF FOUND ARTICLES LOCATED, POSITIONS SECURED HELP OBTAINED AND STOVE OBTAINED

During the past two days, Coos Bay Times want ads have proved the big business agency of Coos Bay. Scarcely a day goes by but what the little agents of quick results turn the trick but in the last forty-eight hours they have even established a new record for themselves. Here are a few of the things they have accomplished.

Recovers Fine Pin
Chas. P. Mason found a valuable Eastern Star pin on the sidewalk and inserted a found ad in The Times. Yesterday Mrs. F. E. Conway claimed it and was overjoyed at recovering the valuable emblem.

Recovers Lady's Hat
Yesterday, the Bandel messenger service picked up a bundle containing a lady's hat. A found ad was inserted in The Times and the hat was claimed by Duncan Ferguson who had lost it off a load of goods which he was moving.

Woman Gets Position
Mrs. Myrtle Schroeder, who was advertising for work, secured quick results from a want ad in The Times.
Got Gas Stove
Frank G. Horton who is moving into Geo. E. Cook's new bungalow needed a gas range and inserted a want ad in The Times with the result that he obtained the offer of several and secured one they desired.

Secures a Girl
Mrs. A. E. Neff advertised for a girl to care for her baby and got many responses, engaging a girl for the work desired.
