Styles change rapidly, but we keep a little ahead of all others. And we have never for one minute forgotten "Comfort."

We believe that comfort outlives style in nearly every woman's memory. No matter how stylish a shoe may be, if it hurts the foot it gives the wearer no pleasure.

It is a rare art to combine style and comfort, but we have accomplished it in the Queen Quality Shoes.

COPPLE MAY RUN WIRE

INFORMS FRIENDS HE WILL ACCEPT NOMINATION

Expect That Race Will Be Between Him and Carl Evertsen—Little Talk Today

EVERTSEN IS NOT CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR

Councilman Carl W. Evertsen said that he appreciated the honor of being mentioned for the position but that his personal affairs and business would not permit him to devote so much time to public affairs. He said that he had given the city much of his time during his term as councilman and thought that others should do likewise.

However some of Mr. Evertsen's friends were insistent that he at least remain on the council and he finally consented to take this under consideration.

R. A. Coppie was quoted today by several of his friends as stating to them that he would be a candidate for mayor if he was nominated in the city primaries to be held November 8. Coppie left early today for Bandon and could not be seen personally. However his friends declared that his statement was certain and that he would accept the nomination if it was tendered to him.

Friends of W. U. Douglas were still urging that he be brought out in the primaries but he has not made any statement.

Chas. I. Reigard informed some of his friends today that he was undecided but that he might announce his candidacy for mayor.

Nothing new has developed as to the candidates for councilmen except that some friends of Chas. Powers said that he would be a candidate.

Talk of Reid

Late today there was strong talk of W. A. Reid becoming a candidate for mayor.

There was also some talk by some who had urged Carl Evertsen to run, when apprised that he would not be a candidate, of trying to bring former Mayor Straw out for the place.

WESTERN UNION BUILDS OVER RIGHT OF WAY

SIX WEEKS WILL SEE TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION VIA WILLAMETTE PACIFIC TO EUGENE, SAYS FOREMAN

Erection of the Western Union Telegraph poles and the stringing of the wires between North Bend and the Umpqua will start on Monday. On the same date a crew of men will begin working south from Cushman, on the Sluslaw and in six weeks Coos Bay in all probability will be connected by wire over the Willamette Pacific right of way with Eugene and the outside. This is the word announced this morning by H. B. Lincoln, of Seattle, construction foreman, who arrived last evening.

Material and Crew

Twenty miles of wire and poles for the same distance arrived via the Breakwater yesterday and were unloaded at Old Town, to be scowed across to the north side of the bay.

A crew of 10 to 15 men will work from this end, said Mr. Lincoln. They are now at Cushman and are coming down tomorrow or on Sunday. Every effort will be made to give Coos Bay excellent telegraphic service over the new line to the outside this winter.

Troubles Past

During previous winters Coos Bay has suffered considerably because wires have been down and there have been long stretches before the workmen could make repairs and there would be no communication with the outside, a fact that has been a handicap to the newspapers as well as to other business.

"Now that the right of way is complete and the rails laid part of the way, there seems no reason why the company should delay further in putting in its wires and poles," said Mr. Lincoln this morning.

TAXPAYER OBJECTS

SAYS COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS ARE NOT CLEAR

Cannot Understand Printed Reports of Proceedings of Claims as Published in The Times.

The following letter received by The Times is self explanatory:

"Editor Coos Bay Times: I am not a chronic complainer about public matters and the way in which they are run, but I have, since the newspaper criticism arose, been trying to get at the source of various complaints about the County Court. To do this I have been trying to follow up the various expenses as they are supposed to be enumerated in the proceedings of the County Court each month, and I now believe I have a just complaint to make against The Times, because when I tried to read the proceedings the last time, I could not make out what many of the items set forth were for. The printer had abbreviated some words that, I will wager after the type got cold, he could not tell himself what the abbreviation stood for. In fact, it looked to me as though the printer was not very particular about the way he set the type up and the proof-reader was even more careless. I should think the County Court would object to paying for such reports as they can serve no good purpose. Next time you print the County Court proceedings, please try and do better.

JUDGE CALKINS PASSES ON MOTION IN ROGUE RIVER CASE

DISMISSES ACTION BROUGHT BY MACLEAY AGAINST ALFRED MILLER, WHO CLAIMS CANNERY LAND

Motion of the defendants in the case of Roderick Macleay versus Alfred Miller to dismiss the suit in equity regarding boundary lines on the Rogue where the Seaborg cannery is located has been allowed by Judge Calkins. His decision reached here today in a letter from Collier H. Buffington, of Gold Beach, to the office of John D. Goss, whose members were associated with Buffington for the defense.

Alfred Miller claims ownership of the land on which the cannery is situated. He leased the land to P. A. Seaborg who put up a building and started work. Roderick Macleay had a surveyor run the lines and claimed that the cannery lapped over onto his land, claiming a certain boundary line. Miller claimed another line. The suit was brought for the purpose of establishing a boundary line.

Turn on Technical Point

The claim put forward by the defense was that there was no dispute as to boundary lines, but Macleay claimed one line and Miller another, and therefore there exists two distinct lines. The defense contended, rather, that the case was one of adverse possession and there should be decided which men owned the strip between the two lines.

Up to Judge Coke

There was another suit, that of Macleay versus Seaborg, in which a demurrer of the defendant is sustained, by Judge Calkins, and he says, that now Judge Coke is back, it will be up to Judge Coke to strike out amendments to the complaint.

Judge Calkins was at Gold Beach this summer to preside at the term of court during the absence of Judge Coke.

Probably there will be extra police on Sunday night to watch over the peace and dignity of the city.

But this does not mean that Willie and Little Sister Mary can not show the ghosts away and parade forth with their jack-o-lanterns. "Coppers" say that all this goes, but "nix on the rough stuff."

One Crowd Fined

The memory of about six years ago still remains when the police rounded up about a dozen and a half prominent youths of the city, on mischief bent, and put them in jail over night and the judge next morning fined them all $10 a piece just for luck. That put the "crimp" in Hallowe'en tactics in Marshfield.
