

Duke Wouldn't Stay By Himself!

World Color Printing Co., St. Louis, Mo.

Some boys sneaked into my pasture, Hallowe'en -

-and put a halter on me - then they took me up into the old church belfry -

It was mighty spooky and when I heard them say they were going -

-to leave me there I shut the trap door so - -we all had to stay. The boys broke all their knife blades trying to open the door, but - -there was nothing doing, so they went to sleep in disgust - and we caused quite a stir when folk woke up the next - -morning!

Dear Friends:—I think there's nothing like beginning things early so Sister Tot and I have begun making our Christmas gifts and then we won't be so rushed at the last minute. I'm sure you will find this a fine plan, too. I did the same thing last year and it was nice to be able to take a good rest before Christmas while most every one was rushing to get things ready in time. Tot can sew very well for her age, and although both of us only attempt to make simple things, mother says what we do make is nice. You'd better try this plan.

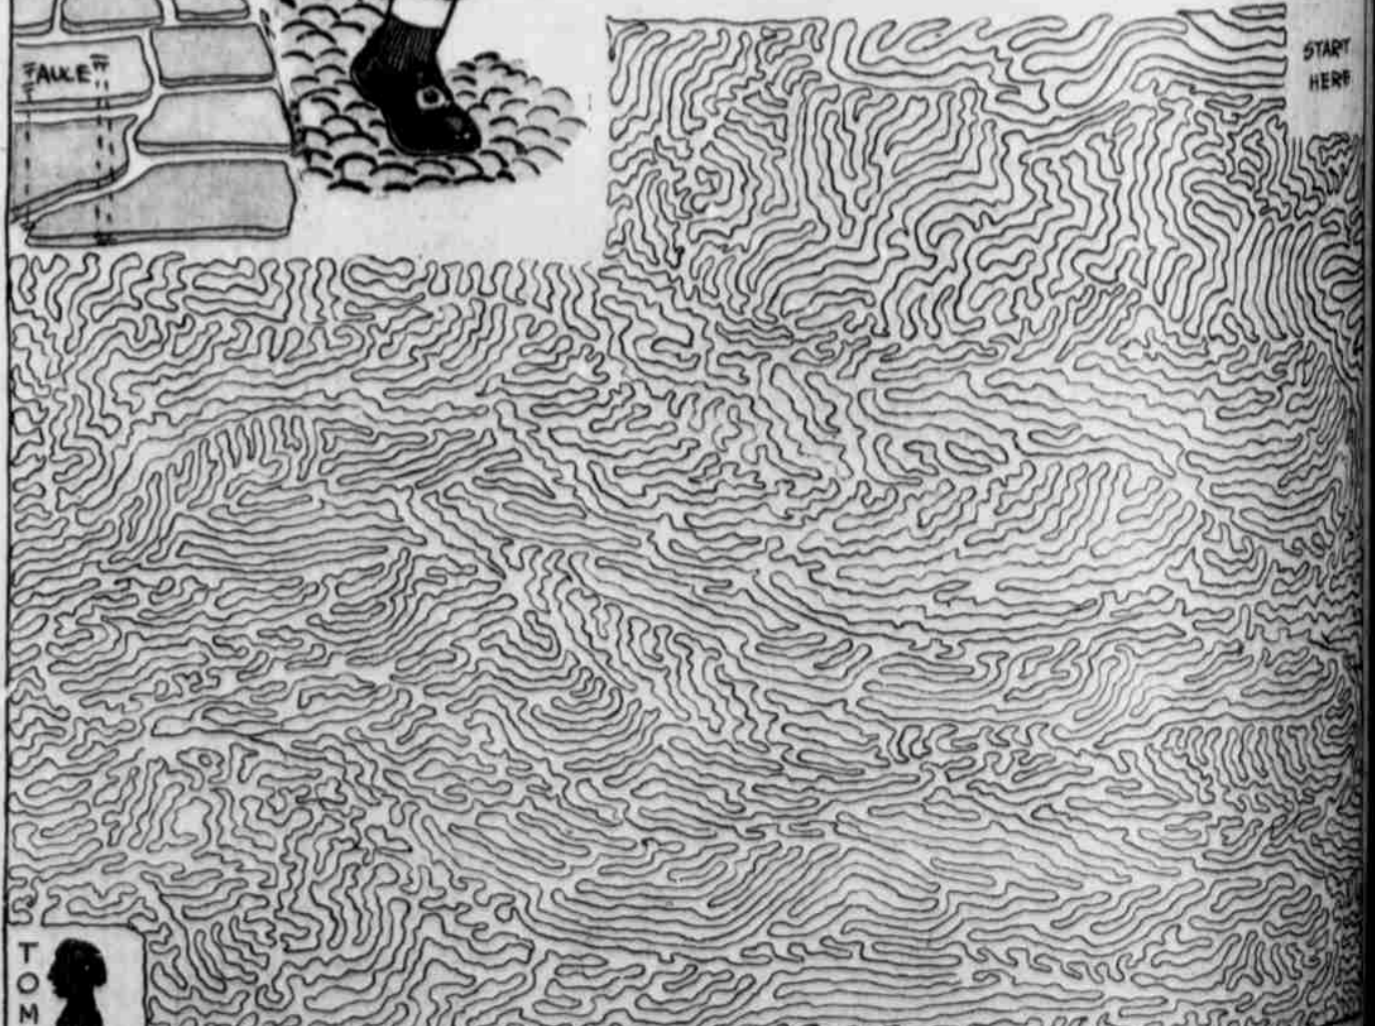

It won't be so very long before Christmas and we ought to try and make this one the happiest moments in the lives of all the poor boys and girls we know. Our SEWING SOCIETY can do a great good this year and I'm sure that we will be repaid by seeing their happy faces. If you haven't sent for your Certificate of Membership now is the time to do so. Just address me care this paper, enclose a two-cent stamp for postage and I'll be glad to send you one. Or, if you're an officer in your Society will send as many as you wish for yourself and members—Write me today. Lovingly,

Anna Belle
