

WE'RE not finicky about price or profit

We don't measure our success on the basis of an extra dollar or two it might be possible to make on a suit or overcoat, just because the quality is there to justify it . . . We're after friends first and having won them we want to keep 'em—always.

Take for instance our new Fall and Winter styles from the House of Kuppenheimer. As a judge of good clothes, we wager you would say $30 or $35 would be about right . . . You're wrong. The price is

$20 to $30

Boys Stock.—R. A. Copple has purchased the H. Finnell dry goods and furnishing stock on North Front street at a sale conducted by the receiver, Tom Bennett. It was conducted as an auction. The stock inventoried about $1,800.

Check Is Garnished.—Constable Cox went to the saloon of John Burke this morning and garnished a $51 check belonging to James Barnes, who is being sued by William M. Cox for a $11 liquor bill. Barnes works up at Powers.

Brings Deer Back.—"Midge" Welch and Jay Doyle returned last night from 17 miles beyond Powers where the former brought down a 125 pound, four point buck. Jay Doyle had hard luck and was unable to wing one of the elusive animals.

Big Duck Flight.—Jay Tower and Frank Denning who were hunting ducks on the Bay yesterday got five and nine, respectively. Mr. Tower says that the big flight of ducks has just started, there being more blue-bills on the Bay yesterday than he ever saw before.

Will Leave Monday.—Father Cartwright, the Paulist missionary who has been here conducting the Catholic mission, will leave Monday for Portland where he has a parish. He has two assistants and they take turns conducting missions at the churches throughout the northwest.

Suit for Sums.—Suit was started in Justice Court by J. Albert Matson this morning against Howard Savage for the collection of $60.65 claimed to be due since June 14, 1913, for goods purchased. Also suit was brought by Mr. Matson against W. H. Smith for the sum of $48.70 alleged to be due for goods.

Home From Mountains.—William Dungan, Charles Stauff, J. W. Flanagan, Fred Bentz and Walter Dungan have returned home from their homesteads in the Eden Ridge country. They went out to fix things up for winter and report everything in fine shape. Mr. Dungan says that he has wild grass on his place which is growing fine and that the homestead will make a fine natural range for stock. They did not waste any time hunting but were on the watch for deer but did not succeed in bringing in any meat.

More Bogus Money.—A spurious half dollar coin was brought to the First National Bank this morning. In everything but the ring it seemed a perfect bit of change. The date of 1915 and it is possible that this coin is one put into circulation by the two counterfeiters caught here by secret service men several months ago.

PERSONAL MENTION

FIVE TO BE ELECTED

EASTSIDE WILL HAVE MUNICIPAL CAUCUS NOVEMBER 15

Terms of Mayor Kittson, Councilmen Whitty, McLaglan and Nelson Expire

Eastside will have a city caucus November 29 at the city hall to nominate candidates for the municipal offices to be filled at the December election. The terms of Mayor Kittson, Councilmen Whitty, McLaglan and Nelson, Recorder Keating and Marshall McGriff will expire. So far no candidates have been brought out against them and all may be elected unless the Cooson district springs some candidates.

Will Pay Warrants

Recorder Keating of Eastside announces that all of the outstanding city warrants up to No. 452 will be paid at once. This brings up the warrants to about June and only about forty small warrants will remain unpaid.

AMONG THE SICK

Mrs. W. J. Hill who has been ill at her apartments at The Chandler is reported much improved.

Mrs. J. H. Mills is reported doing nicely at Mercy hospital and will be able to return home Monday or Tuesday.

A. L. Evans, of First Addition, is confined to his home with an attack of ptomaine poisoning.

Merle Cramer, of the C. A. Smith mill, is laid up with two fractured bones in his hand as a result of getting caught in the log carriage. Allan Nichol's quick work on the shift is said to have been all that saved Cramer's arm.

MR. AND MRS. DAN BROWN, of Bandon, are here for a week-end visit.
