Empire Change.-The schedule of the auto service between here and GEORGE RANKIN, a Coos River Empire and South Slough was changed today by Gorst & King. The early morning trip, leaving here at 7 o'clock, will only be to Empire and CLAUD H. GILES, attorney of Myrthe 11 o'clock trip will be to South Inlet. The afternoon trip will leave Marshfield at 4 o'clock instead of 5 o'clock, enabling the drivers to return the same night.

Off Cheap Dict .- It wasn't enthusiasm over dietetics or the fact that he has enlisted in the ranks of the "One Meal A Day" Club that kept Bill Callahan for five and one half days on bread and water. He left the Hotel de Carter this morning. Last night the officers took Callahan a sure enough, honest to goodness feed and they say he ate enough for any three ordinary men.

Come for Dunn .- Two traveling guards of the state insane asylum. Mr. McAllister and A. Cameron, of Salem, arrived here yesterday, and left on the train for Coquille this morning to take back with them William Dunn, who has just been adjudged insane. Dunn several days ago in Bunker Hill came forth with a knife, vowing to kill someone and was subdued only after five men had a lively tussle with him and a doctor had administered a quieting hypodermic injection.

Fight on Prinicple-Albany, New York, is determined in its fight for a deep water harbor allowing it to become a distributing point for western lumber. An issue of the Hudson Ship Channel Edition of the Knickerbocker Press, just received here contains some wonderful illustrations and figures. The paper writes that the issue contains no advertisements, the purpose being to make ne money on the issue but to "wage the fight on principle."

"Plug Ugly" Day Goes,-The many former Stanford students in this section will be interested to learn that 'Plug Ugly" day at Stanford Univer-· sity has just been abolished by a vote of the two upper classes. One of the arguments used against the annual 'hat breaking was that the upper classmen used the fight to settle grudges. The practice has gone on since 1898 and always the seniors have "broken in" the tall plug hats
