EUROPEAN WAR ONE YEAR AGO TODAY NOVEMBER 2, 1914

Battles are begun between the Russian and Turkish troops on the frontier near Trebizond. All Turkish subjects are to be expelled from Russia within a week, according to orders given.

MRS. STONER MRS. WINIFRED SACKVILLE STONER has a remarkable reputation for child training through splendid results she has obtained with her daughter.

Public school teachers deserve a place in heaven and all the stars they want in their crowns. It is criminal to let a baby cry and say it is good for him.

Never talk baby talk; treat the infant as though it were an intelligent being. Limber up your heels, loosen the pecker in your back and play with your kiddies and you'll keep young.

We need schools for parents more than for children. Children can diagram sentences beautifully, but they say "I seen" and "I done."

CAUSE AND EFFECT

MISS BOUSANQUET, probably the best authority in England on social settlement work, as Jane Addams is in America, has written a book on such work, the problems of which are much the same everywhere.

Parents experiment on their first child; it's a wonder most of them live. Mrs. Stoner has an interesting subject, a subject upon which there is multitudinous advice and the fact she has succeeded personally as a child trainer gives more than usual weight to what she says.

Our idea of a pretty girl is one who can look just like her photograph. OH! MY! "I'll write a honey song," said she "And sing it in the Key of bee."

QUESTION FOR THE DAY What has become of the old fashioned woman who had to stop and count up when you asked her how many children she had?

It doesn't matter how rich or how poor a Coos Bay man may be. Let him talk for awhile and he will inform you that he is getting all the worst of it.

STRANGE. You long to make her your own dove And quickly she discerns it. But when she wants to keep your love Why is it she returns it?

LUMBER IN IDAHO SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Logging Camps Near Lewiston Are Showing Activity and Sawmills Are Running

LEWISTON, Idaho, Nov. 2.—That the lumber industry is showing signs of revival, is evidenced in the activity in the logging camps near Bobil, which supply the logs for the mill at Potlatch. Several camps are now in operation, giving employment to hundreds of men.

Lumber shipments from the mill have been steady all Summer, most of the stock going to far Eastern points. Reports here indicate that the mill at Potlatch will be operated night and day for a time this season to catch up with the supply of logs, as from 30 to 40 carloads of logs are sent from Lewiston to that mill.

tons and tons of advertising matter into the short crop sections of the country. People have to buy some goods, so be sure to get your share of the business.

The steady drip will wear away stone. Careful, stick-to-it, information-full advertising will bring paying results.

With the big merchants of the country advertising is an asset, not a liability, and you can make your advertising one of the most successful features of your business.

WITH THE TOAST AND THE TEA

GOOD EVENING

Remember on every occasion which leads thee to vexation to apply this principle, that this is not a misfortune, but to bear it nobly is good fortune.—Marcus Aurelius.

WATCH THE CORNERS

When you wake up of a morning of a chill and cheerless day, And feel inclined to grumble, pout, or frown,

Just glance into your mirror and you will quickly see It's just because the corners of your mouth hang down.

Then take this simple rhyme, Remember it in time: It's already dreary weather, in countryside or town,

When you wake and find the corners of your mouth turned down. If you wake up in morning full of bright and happy thoughts And begin to count the blessings in your cup,

Then glance into your mirror and you will quickly see It's all because the corners of your mouth turn up.

Then take this little rhyme, Remember all the time: There's joy a-plenty in this world to fill life's silver cup If you'll only keep the corners of your mouth turned up.

If a Coos Bay man will work hard at it and spend ten years training his wife he can usually make her do anything she wants to do.

MERE MAN

Observe the stars there in the skies—Aye, cast your gaze afar— And maybe you will realize What little runts you are.

Maybe if work were silk stockings and fluffy lingerie more Coos Bay men would be in love with it.

Every day is a bad day to be poor.

Our idea of a pretty girl is one who can look just like her photograph.

OH! MY!

"I'll write a honey song," said she "And sing it in the Key of bee."

She's Six Today

She's six today. She climbed my knee and twined her arms about me so, And whispered to me joyously: "I bet you, dad, that you don't know What day this is." I feigned to think, though well I knew what she would say.

And shammed surprise when she exclaimed: "I'm growing up; I'm six today." What is it, when the years come on, that holds a man and makes his heart To soften toward a little child and make the tears so quick to start?

I had not noticed it before, I did not think until today. Her cozy corner strangely silent now, her paper dollies laid away.

The little finger marks we loved are gone from off the window sill, The "rattle" and the screecher toys are strangely still,

And silence hovers 'round the house, unbroken by her childish glee— She's six today, and growing up, no more a little babe to me.

You're six today! Come, kiss your dad, and hug him, too, you little elf, And romp with him, and play with him, nor ask him why he's not himself,

Just follow him where'er he goes, and let him take your little hand; Don't ask him what he's thinking of—you wouldn't know or understand.

Let's go together down the street, a-romping in your child-heart way. You cannot play like this for long. You're growing up—you're six today.

Stories of State Elections To be Held This Year

No. 6

MARYLAND Maryland will elect a governor, comptroller of the state treasury, attorney-general, a full house of delegates and half of the state senate. In addition four constitutional amendments will be voted upon, and local minor officers will be chosen in the counties and Baltimore City.

All Over Oregon

EUGENE—Edward Bailey, a farmer, was allowed $100 damages against the Oregon Electric Railway in a suit which was brought to recover for the loss of sheep killed on the road.

ROSEBURG—The Douglas County Fire Patrol Association in a report shows that the members who own timber were protected against fire at a cost of one cent an acre.

SALEM—The Commercial Club passed a resolution to the effect that any act on the part of Portland lumbermen to get a preferential rate over Willamette Valley points would be looked upon as a deliberately unfriendly act.

EUGENE—The total assessed valuation of all property in Lane county according to the assessor is $35,353,640.

FLORENCE—The city council will hold a meeting Monday, Nov. 8, to consider the preparation of the city budget for the next year.

MEDFORD—Governor Withycombe expressed himself as greatly pleased with what he saw of the Pacific highway when he made a trip to the State line with a party of Medford men.

EUGENE—Dale Guffey, found guilty of polygamy, was sentenced by Judge Skipworth to serve a term of from one to four years in the penitentiary.

PORTLAND—The Columbia river terminal rates was a subject discussed at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce when Joseph N. Teal was one of the principal speakers.

EUGENE—The railroad makes it possible for fishermen on the lower Siuslaw river to send their catch to Eugene on the same day the fish are taken out of the water and from Eugene the fish are shipped, to all parts of the Pacific coast.

MINNVILLE—The Pomona Grange for Yamhill county has gone on record as opposing military training in the schools on the grounds that parole in criminal cases. The referendum plan is practically the same as that followed in other states, except that the Maryland proposition includes a prohibition against the use of the referendum in any local option or license legislation. If the home rule amendment carries the legislature will be relieved of a vast amount of purely local legislation, which would be vested in the city and county councils; while the taxation amendment provides for the classification of all kinds of property for the purpose of taxation.

"The Shoe Tax" Father's income knows what it is and to mother it is also a very real thing. It means the high cost of keeping a growing boy or girl properly shod. When father and mother figure out all the new shoes they have to buy they are apt to conclude shoes are made out of paper rather than leather. Care in purchasing will cut down this tax—care in choosing the right shoes and care in buying at the most favorable time. And the first step in the right direction is a study of the advertising in THE TIMES that gives the helpful information.
