SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Friday November 5.—Sun rises at 6:58 and sets at 4:52.

Brought Down Injured.—Charles Swanson, a hook tender at the McDonald and Vachan camp was brought down today suffering from injuries but these are reported not to have been serious.

Sends Some Corn.—J. E. Noah, of Coos River, has sent some corn to be placed on exhibition at the corn show to be held here soon. He sent samples of ensilage and also several large good looking ears.

Chamber to Meet.—The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held at eight o'clock this evening. An invitation is being sent to all members to attend as there are several matters of importance that will be up for consideration.

Buys Fine Team.—W. A. Luse has purchased a fine span of black horses from W. S. Chandler for $400. This is the team that Tom Coke made a tour of the Willamette Valley last year to buy and is one of the best teams that has ever been brought to the county.

Case Up Tuesday.—Ben Fisher, white slave officer in this district, left on the morning train, going to Roseburg and thence to Portland where on Tuesday opens the case of William Shook, of Marshfield, charged with white slavery. The case will be heard before the federal court there and three witnesses have received orders to go north on Monday.

Fletcher Mighty Sore.—"Gee, I was sore when that letter came today," said F. D. Fletcher, of the Sperry Flour company this morning. "What letter?" and he exhibited a bit of correspondence from the company in Portland. It said they were very sorry, but would be unable to ship 1,000 sacks of flour and 15 tons of feed on the Santa Clara. "Gee, believe me, I was some sore when that came," he said—and he grinned.

BENJAMIN OSTLUND, Special Observer U. S. Weather Bureau, Marshfield, Oregon.

Will Talk to Children.—Miss Beulah Stebno, of the high school staff, will talk at the children's hour at the library tomorrow. Her subject will be "Children in Germany."

Will Move.—The Pugsley Candy company is taking a lease on the Gow Why building on South Fourth street as quarters for its candy factory. This will give it much needed room. Gow Why is closing the branch grocery he had there.

Will Visit Wreck.—Sunshine or rain, several picnic parties are intending to leave Sunday morning early via boats for Charleston Bay and from there will walk over the trails to the scene of the wreck at Bastendorf beach. An early start would allow parties to have several hours on the beach. There are several boats that will be making regular trips to the lower bay and from there it is only about two or three miles to Bastendorf.

Corn Show Progress.—J. L. Smith, county agriculturist, says that all indications point to the most successful corn show ever held in the county. From all sections displays have come in. While he was here on Wednesday he built a rack in the Chamber of Commerce on which the corn that comes in may dry so that none of it will become mouldy before the date of the show, November 18.

Truck Runs Away.—Coming down the hill on Central avenue this morning with two loaded wagons in the rear, one of the logging trucks began slipping and started at such a rate of speed that the driver attempted to turn down 13th street and get off the hill. The wagons, loaded with heavy logs, broke loose at the turn and went crashing into the curbing, smashing it in two. No one was injured. One wagon came near crashing into Frank D. Cohan's home.

Are Still Absent.—Chief Carter received a wire this morning from Ed Brossard, of Everett, anxiously making inquiry as to whether or not Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Ballard were on the Santa Clara. He was telegraphed they are safe. C. I. Reigard also got a wire from his daughter in Des Moines asking if Mr. Reigard had arrived home yet. Harry McKeown, at the Chandler, received a wire from the company of D. I. McGee, in San Francisco, and also from a brother.

Help Ambitious Youths.—The Curtis Publishing Company is now conducting a free correspondence course in salesmanship for the boys that sell its publications. Later after the youths have progressed beyond the point of selling magazines the company is now seeking to find them advanced positions with other companies where they will have a chance to make good in different lines they may choose, but especially in the salesmanship departments of big houses. Copies of booklets explaining their system has been received here and there are several youngsters qualified to take the courses.

Listen To This.—Marshfield city fathers say it's a good thing they don't live in Albany or they would probably have shocked the good people of that town most scandalously. For two years none of the Albany councilmen have smoked in the council chambers. The other night, during a short recess, Mayor Curl is said to have given the city dads permission to smoke. Criminal intent was shown by the fact that each and every one of the councilmen produced a stogie right on the dot and started a smudge. In the local council chambers the dads say they need the weed to aid in conducting the city's business.

AMONG THE SICK

Mrs. Grace Williams is confined to her home by an attack of la grippe.

O. E. Sulley is reported better by the doctor today. Worg from the hospital this morning said that he was able to sit up, but he is by no means yet out of danger and is considered in a critical condition.

Don't forget the Band Masquerade dance at Eagles Hall Saturday night Nov. 6. Prizes at Busy Corner Drug Store.

COPPLE TO RUN

ANNOUNCES THAT HE WILL ACCEPT NOMINATION

Issues Statement on Eve of Primaries — No New Candidates Have Announced Themselves

R. A. Copple today issued the following statement: "To the Citizens of Marshfield—If the people so elect at the city primaries to be held next Monday, November 8th, I will make the race for Mayor. Signed, R. A. Copple."

This formal announcement puts an end to the speculation as to whether Mr. Copple will run. No other candidates have formally announced themselves, although it is expected that W. A. Reid will be a candidate. Carl Evertsen and D. L. Rood are the only avowed candidates for Councilmen, but a number of others will probably be brought out between now and Monday.
