"700 Orders Behind"

"I am 700 orders behind because of newspaper advertising."

"I have never tried to reach customers by other mediums."

Thus writes an automobile manufacturer in the presumably dull August of 1915.

He has found more business than he can take care of in these disturbed times. There are others like him and their names will be found among the newspaper advertisers.

Business comes to those who go after it.

EASTSIDE HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The Parents and Teachers Association of Eastside, gave a delightful Halloween party last Monday evening in the school house, to which all the parents and school children were invited. Chrysanthemums, Jack 'o lanterns and greens gave a Halloween atmosphere to the affair, which was attended by over one hundred people. A short program was enjoyed, including the following numbers:

- Song, by class of girls.
- Recitation, Ned Willey.
- Vocal Solo, Anna Foote.
- Vocal Trio, Mrs. Jean Brown, Miss Wickman and Mr. Wilde.
- Motion Song, class of boys.
- Song, Primary Department.
- Song, class of girls.
- America, by all.

A general good time was enjoyed after this, and delicious refreshments were served.

C. W. B. M.

The Christian Women Board of Missions met Wednesday afternoon for study at the home of Mrs. R. A. Copple and Mrs. E. L. Hopson in charge of the program. The topic was "Mexico" and several papers were contributed pertaining to the subject, making the study an interesting and instructive one. Those taking part were Mrs. W. B. Cox, Mrs. H. W. Painter, Mrs. W. A. Reid. Then followed a general discussion. Little Viola Scaife entertained the guests with a very pretty vocal solo. The ladies plan to take up a chapter of the Bible at each meeting for a short study. Leviticus was the chapter taken up this week. Towards evening Mrs. Copple served refreshments to Mrs. A. T. Custer, Mrs. W. B. Cox, Mrs. S. J. Immel, Mrs. W. A. Reid, Mrs. D. C. McCarty, Mrs. H. W. Painter, Mrs. E. L. Hopson, Mrs. Rose Gregg, Mrs. Irving Smith, Mrs. L. E. Hendryx, and special guests Mrs. T. J. Scaife and daughter Viola.

NORTH BEND MEETING

At the meeting of the North Bend Mothers and Teachers' Club last Tuesday afternoon in the Central School building, it was decided to turn their books over to the public library for an indefinite loan. There was a small number present and so little other business was transacted. The next program will be held on November 16 at the high school at 3:30 o'clock.

NARCISUS CLUB OF EASTSIDE

Miss Hilda West, of Eastside, extended her hospitality on Wednesday afternoon of this week to the members of the Narcissus Club, who sewed and chatted away the afternoon hours in a delightful manner. Dainty refreshments were passed by the hostess to the following: Mrs. Ingle Pederson, Mrs. Lloyd Prescott, Mrs. S. F. Bock, Mrs. H. Johnson, Mrs. Carl West and Misses Stella Pederson, Blanche Tellefson and Anna Lund. Miss Blanche Tellefson will be the hostess in two weeks.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Miss Mabel Brown, daughter of L. E. Brown, of North Eighth street, gave her Sunday School class a delightful party last Saturday evening. The guests were escorted to the Brown residence "midst ghosts and Jack-o-lanterns." Upon arrival there they were met by two little elves in ghostly robes and a witch with squeaky voice and ghostly face. The decorations were artistically arranged to suit the occasion. Halloween games, music, fruits and nuts contributed to the pleasures of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Brown joined the young people in the general good times, and at the close of the evening served delicious refreshments. Those present were Helen Perkins, Gwendolin Hedges, Irene Woodworth, Gertrude Stubblefield, Maxine Jones, Elizabeth Jones, Eleanor Hansen, Walter Slein, Jeanette Brown, Mrs. A. B. Woodworth, Billy Brown, Mabel Brown and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Brown.

KENSINGTON CLUB

Mrs. G. L. Dindinger very delightfully entertained the Kensington Club at her pretty home in Millington Thursday afternoon of this week instead of Friday the usual meeting day, for the convenience of several of the members. In the absence of Mrs. J. S. Lyons the president, the vice-president, Mrs. C. F. McGeorge called the meeting to order. Mrs. Mair Dano was added to the membership of the club. The rest of the afternoon was spent informally in sewing and light refreshments were served. The membership of the club is now complete.

Those present were: Mrs. R. E. Laraway, Mrs. W. H. Kennedy, Mrs. A. O. Rogers, Mrs. C. S. Hoffman, Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist, Mrs. A. B. Loud, Mrs. N. S. Mattson, Mrs. C. W. Cumbers, Mrs. George Stephenson, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, Mrs. E. M. Barry and Mrs. McGeorge.

On Friday, Nov. 19th, Mrs. C. S. Hoffman will entertain the club.

NORTH BEND AID

Mrs. John Olson, at Bangor, entertained the Ladies Aid Society of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of North Bend, at her home on Thursday afternoon. The time was very pleasantly spent in sewing and social chat, and at a late hour the hostess served luncheon to the following: Mrs. Sandeen of Kentuck Inlet, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. L. Strommen, Mrs. J. Jacobsen, Mrs. Fremdahl, Mrs. O. Olsen, Mrs. F. Lillebo, Mrs. F. Nelson, Mrs. O. Jaren, Mrs. L. Lillebo, Mrs. L. Knudsen, Mrs. L. Oxnevad, Mrs. J. Olsen, Rev. and Mrs. R. O. Thorpe, and the Misses Louise Lillebo, Sevena and Thelma Olsen.

GUILD HALL SOCIAL

The Social which was to have been held on Thursday of this past week and was postponed owing to the wrecking of the Santa Clara, will take place on Friday evening of next week at 7:30 in Guild Hall. A highly interesting program has been arranged, part of the evening's entertainment consisting of unique and original features, the like of which has never before been seen on the Bay. In the list of musical talent is Mrs. F. E. Conway, who will sing: "When I was a Child of Three," from Merry Monarch, by Morse, being accompanied by Mrs. Earl Powell. Mr. Ben Fisher will also take a leading part in stirring songs, accompanied by Miss Zimmer on the Piano. A pupil of Mrs. Bugge, Miss Isabel Macgenn, of Empire, is scheduled to appear for the first time before a Marshfield audience. She is gifted with native powers of a high order and many are looking forward to the pleasure of hearing her. Other interesting features will form a part of the evening's enjoyment. Miss Evelyn Flanagan assisted by several of Marshfield's best known young ladies, will assist in serving refreshments. The affair will start promptly at 7:30 by a tableau, entitled "The Nations." No one should miss this. The children of one of the classes in the Sunday School will appear in this.

MARRIED IN TENNESSEE

Announcements have reached here of the marriage of W. L. Sisk to Miss May Margrave on Oct. 25th, at the home of the latter in Harriman, Tennessee. Mr. Sisk will be remembered by a number of Coos Bay people, as one of the instructors in the business college which was started here three or four years ago by A. E. Stossmaster, but which ran for only a few months.

NORTH BEND GUILD

Mrs. I. B. Bartie was hostess Thursday afternoon to the North Bend Episcopal Guild, and on account of so few attending, not much business was transacted. Plans were formed for the silver tea at which the Episcopal ladies will entertain the Union Aid at the Presbyterian on Wednesday Nov. 17th. Mrs. Dennis Hull is general chairman in charge of this affair. Alfred Fleisberg of Marshfield has been engaged to conduct the Episcopal Sunday School in North Bend at 9:30 every Sunday morning in the church chapel. The ladies then hustled themselves with their own sewing for a time, after which Mrs. Bartie assisted by Mrs. C. A. Metlin served dainty refreshments to the following: Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Browning, Mrs. Earl Powell, Mrs. Dennis Hull, Mrs. George Everitt, Mrs. A. E. Shriver, Mrs. John Lannan, Mrs. L. C. Reynolds, Mrs. R. E. Morten, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. R. H. Marshall, Mrs. Ashby. The guild will not meet again for one month.

POWERS PARTY

Last Sunday evening an especially delightful Halloween party was given by Mrs. Shehan and Mrs. Weaver at Mrs. Shehan's bungalow at Powers. The fore part of the evening was spent in card games, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Landers winning the prizes. Halloween pranks and games were indulged in. During the evening, Miss Jewel Shehan and Ben Davis entertained with several vocal selections which were much appreciated by the guests. At the close of this delightful social affair, the hostess served a delicious supper luncheon.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Landers, Mr. and Mrs. Coffin, Dr. and Mrs. Manser, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Burch, Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Treghown, Mr. and Mrs. Shehan, Misses: Hensen, Lillebo, A. Lillebo, Farber, Misses Matthews, Eleanor, Jewel and Grace Shehan, Burch, Miller and Messrs: Spires, Ben Davis, Larsen, Gordon, Brady, Nelson, Matthews, Culver, Butcher, Ernest and Arthur Lee and Dr. McClellan.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY

Henry Walter, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Walter was the recipient of a pleasant surprise party last evening at his home on South Fourth Street, in honor of his birthday. At eight o'clock, his mother served the guests a delicious chicken dinner, following which games, dancing and music were enjoyed.

Those present were: Misses Virginia Clarke, Lillian Seaman, Wilma Hoagland, Mary McArthur, Helen Rees, Irene Fourier, Wilson, Clara Ferguson, Evelyn Fourier and the boys: Harold Haines, Loren Davis, Herman Glossop, Esmond Glossop, Henry Walter, Howard Kelley, Fowler, Albert Powers.

His guests included: Misses: Anna Downs, Wilma Hoagland, Velma Ross, Mae Church, Myrie Cox, Bertha Davis, Mary McArthur and the boys: Harold Haines, Herman Glossop, Howard Kelley.

DAHLIA CLUB

The Dahlia Club of Eastport was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Oleman, the members responding to roll call with a current event. Mrs. Gosney and Mrs. Reanier gave interesting readings, and a few hours sewing followed by refreshments served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Oleman concluding the afternoon's enjoyment. In two weeks, Mrs. Reanier will entertain the club.

CHAMINADE CLUB

The rehearsal day of the Chaminaide Club has been changed from Friday morning to Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. W. S. Nicholson, and the members met there this week for the usual rehearsal. A very interesting paper was prepared and read by Mrs. George Watkins on "Development of Notation" with illustrations. The club will meet again next Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

FOR MRS. BLATT

Mrs. James Cowan Sr. entertained informally at sewing Monday afternoon for Mrs. J. A. Blatt and daughter Miss Louise who will leave on the Adeline for California and from there will go East to spend the winter.

A happy feature of the afternoon was the unexpected arrival of the hostess' sister, Mrs. Charles Perkins from Gardiner, who will spend a few weeks here.

After a very pleasant afternoon, Mrs. Cowan served delectable dainties to the following guests: Mrs. Ivy Condron, Mrs. F. L. Sumner, Mrs. James Rolandson, Mrs. E. L. Robinson, Mrs. George Ayre, Mrs. Faulkner, Mrs. George Deubner, Mrs. E. A. Anderson, Mrs. F. M. Flye, Mrs. A. S. Blanchard, Mrs. Blatt and Mrs. Perkins.

LADIES' ART CLUB

Mrs. A. L. Houseworth was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Ladies' Art Club who spent the afternoon pleasantly as usual informally in a social way. Dainty refreshments were served during the course of the afternoon. Next week Mrs. E. D. McArthur will entertain the club. Those out were: Mrs. A. K. Arkley, Mrs. J. A. Blatt, Mrs. Jas. Cowan Sr., Mrs. W. B. Curtis, Mrs. Falkenstein, Mrs. F. M. Flye, Mrs. W. E. Hoagland, Mrs. L. G. Lang, Mrs. Ross Smith, Mrs. F. L. Sumner and Mrs. R. H. Walter.

A. N. W. CLUB

Mrs. C. H. Dungan of South Coos River was hostess to the ladies of the A. N. W. Club on Thursday of this week at the home of Mrs. Frances Hazard. The afternoon hours were spent very pleasantly as usual in fancy work and chat. Jennie Lind, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McKnight, was special guest, this being her initial appearance at the club, and received the admiration of the ladies quite gracefully. At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Hazard and Mrs. Carl Evertsen assisted the hostess in serving a delicious luncheon to the following: Mrs. G. A. Bennett, Mrs. Lily Friedberg, Mrs. F. E. Hagne, Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mrs. Alice Hall, Mrs. J. T. Harrigan, Mrs. Elizabeth Hyde, Mrs. Alexandra Lando, Mrs. E. Mings, Mrs. George Murch, Mrs. W. P. Murphy, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. C. F. McKnight and Jennie Lind, Mrs. Nancy Noble, Mrs. E. O'Connell, Mrs. H. E. Quist, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Charles Stauff, and Mrs. Annie Tower.

Mrs. Bennett will entertain the club at her home next Thursday.

EPISCOPAL LADIES' GUILD

The regular meeting of the Episcopal Ladies' Guild was held Tuesday afternoon as usual in Guild hall. The business session was an interesting one and several matters of importance were talked of. Mrs. Harry Bradford, chairman of the baby show committee, and Mrs. J. W. Bennett gave helpful remarks along the line of Better Babies Contests. E. L. McClure was present and addressed the ladies on a business men's luncheon. This activity will be undertaken by the guild at a later period. Mrs. Charles Hall and Mrs. C. W. Cumbers were appointed on the entertainment committee of which Mrs. Claude Nasburg is chairman, and will assist her in seeing to this work. Mrs. George Montgomery of Millington was added to the membership roll. In the future, there will be three hostesses instead of two, owing to the increased attendance at the Guild meetings. The committee reported that the plans for the food sale and bazaar which the ladies are planning for the first Saturday in December, are progressing nicely. At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. C. Nasburg and Mrs. J. A. Matson served refreshments. The ladies out this week were: visitors, Mrs. D. J. Rees, Mrs. F. R. Anthony and Mrs. Doble and the members: Mrs. J. W. Bennett, Mrs. E. P.
