SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Thursday November 11.—Sun rises at 7:06 and sets at 4:44.

Aid Lodge.

Geo. E. Cook, Robert Dillard, O. E. Torrey and Mel Duncan left today for Coquille, where they will assist the Coquille Moose Lodge in initiating a new class and getting the lodge work started properly.

Rain Holds Up Work.

The work of paving Front street between Central and Anderson avenue has been held up on account of the rain. The big concrete mixers have been brought up and are laying there, waiting for the time when the weather will clear up.

Church Social.

Tomorrow evening at 7:30 in Guild Hall Fourth and Market there will be a Church Social and an enjoyable program has been arranged, to which all are looking forward with interest. A tabeau: "The Nations", will be the opening number of the program.

Lumber Higher.

According to a report received here from San Francisco, the wholesale price of lumber has jumped from fifty cents to one dollar per thousand in the last few days. The demand has been stronger for some time and the advance was not unexpected. It will be gratifying news to the entire coast.

Choir Rehearsal.

The choir of the First Baptist church will meet for rehearsal this evening at 8:15 o'clock in the church parlors. Special music will be rehearsed for the Union Thanksgiving service which will be held in the Baptist church this year.

Girls to Meet.

The Girls' Missionary Guild of the Baptist church will meet to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. M.

Wright, 920 South Fifth Street. After the meeting the Guild will attend the B. Y. P. U. Social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Rood, 210 Birch Avenue.

No More Candidates.

It was said at the city recorder's office this afternoon that no more petitions for city candidates have been taken out. Tomorrow at 5 p. m. is the last hour for filing them with J. W. Butler. Unless others appear in the field there will be but one man to be voted on to fill two council offices.

Work Must Be Scarce.

Work in Portland has been reported scarce by several from Coos Bay who have come home unsuccessful. In a want ad carried this week in a Portland paper a young man, 28 years of age, offers timber land worth $500 to anyone who will give him permanent employment.

Ducks Coming In.

It was reported that on account of the heavy rains that the duck flights are lower and that many of the fowls are landing on the bay and the nearby lakes. There is a heavy southwest wind blowing outside, a fact that will add to the landing of the ducks in time for the Thanksgiving shooting.

Slow Mail.

Geo. N. Bolt says that he has just discovered the slowest mail service he ever encountered. While in Coquille last month he wrote a letter to Mrs. Bolt in Marshfield, putting it in the Post-office there October 12. The letter reached here the day before yesterday, November 9, being almost a month. Where the letter was, where it traveled, etc., is a puzzle to Mr. Bolt.

Leg Badly Broken.

Just before the steamship Breakwater left yesterday for San Francisco Carl U. Carlson, seaman, was working in the hold, aiding in loading some ties, when a rope caught about his ankle, the which started and he was hauled up by one leg through the hatchway before the hoisting machine stopped. Dr. Barthe and Mingus were called hurriedly. It was found the big bone in the ankle was broken besides several smaller ones and many dislocations. Carlson is now in the hospital. He may be permanently lamed.

Hold Union Service.

The union Thanksgiving services will be held this year in the Baptist Church and the Rev. Foskett will deliver the address. The service will be in the evening and many arrangements are being made now for the decorations and the special music. The change of time to the evening will allow the housewives to prepare huge dinners for their families and company and at the same time be able to attend the service.

CAPTAIN JAMES POLHEMUS left this morning for Coquille and Bandon, where he will look after the jetty work now being done there.

A. J. SHERWOOD and wife and daughter, Clara, passed through here yesterday en route home to Coquille from San Francisco where they spent several weeks at the Exposition.

J. S. HANSON, wife and family will leave tomorrow morning for Boise, Idaho, where they will make their home in the future. That they are leaving is regretted very much by their hosts of friends and acquaintances in this city.

JAMES COWAN came over yesterday from Bandon on the Speedwell which took on part of a cargo of poles there and is finishing her load with lumber at the East-side mill. This makes Mr. Cowan's third trip from Bandon to Marshfield on the Speedwell and he says that he thinks he is now qualified as an able seaman.

J. M. WRIGHT is in from Powers for a short stay to recuperate from an attack of illness. He has about completed the new school house and has started work on the building for E. J. Loney's bank which will be moved to Powers from Port Orford early in December. Mr. Wright has been doing much fine work at Powers, the bank building making the fifth structure he has erected there this season.

FINDS UNIVERSITY TO BE GOOD ONE

Report of Dr. Caper of U. S. Board of Education Complimentary to Oregon Institution

EUGENE, Nov. 11.—The University of Oregon is a "sound and vigorous" institution. Its cost per student appears on the face of the figures to be very low in comparison with the institutions of like rank in other states. Its faculty is able, honest and hard-working, remarkable for the high proportion of higher degrees they hold and for the large amount of valuable research work they have done without encouragement from the state or financial assistance from the administration. The students are clean, intelligent, and, for the most part, well prepared. These are some of the conclusions set forth at length under the authority of the United States government in the report of Dr. S. P. Caper, specialist in higher education of the United States Bureau of Education. Dr. Caper conducted an extensive survey of the University in September, at the request of the president and regent, and which will be published entire and issued to the newspaper men of the state and others who may be interested.

SNOW IN EUGENE

Temperature There Is Lowest It Has Been This Year

The Eugene Guard says: The minimum temperature in Eugene Sunday was 36 degrees above zero, four degrees above freezing and the coldest day for Eugene this winter, according to H. M. Mayo, Eugene weather observer. The temperature of the rain yesterday was 38 degrees nearly to the temperature of snow. The maximum temperature yesterday was 46, making a difference of but ten degrees throughout the day. The first snow fell on a number of hills surrounding Eugene Sunday. The Coburg hills were covered, snow fell on the McKenzie in the vicinity of Leaburg and in the hills between the Mohawk and McKenzie rivers in the vicinity of Waltherville. Snow fell on the Coast range, in the western part of the county.

AMONG THE SICK

Little Otis Rogers, two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Anson O. Rogers, fell while playing in the basement of the residence on Second Street, and broke his collar bone. The injury is not serious.

Speedwell sails south Friday at 1 p. m. from North Bend. Tickets at Abstract office and Warren Printing, North Bend.

WATCH MUSHROOM

PROF. SWEETSER OFFERS TO EXAMINE SPECIMENS

Season Now At Height and Many Can Not Tell Difference From Toadstools, He Says

This is the height of the mushroom season. With mushrooms come toadstools; the one makes good eating; the other makes work for the undertaker. To distinguish the two varieties is sometimes a job that even experts some times fall down on. Prof. A. R. Sweetser, head of the botany department at the University, is sending out offers to set any one at rights regarding the difference between the toadstools and mushrooms.

Many Are Gathered

Many people have gone into the hills lately and have come back, during this damp weather, with hats full of mushrooms. There are often cases wherein they can not distinguish between the two varieties. Daily there arrive at the state university small and queer looking little boxes. These are coming from all parts of the state and they contain specimens for examination.

Prof. Sweetser asks that the roots of the fungus be sent and care taken to have everything wrapped in tissue paper so there will be no danger of its breaking.

Some Advice Given

In a letter here Prof. Sweetser, who is known here for his annual visits says:

"While many of the toadstools are good to eat, some make trouble in the digestive tract, some are dangerous, and some are actually deadly," said Mr. Sweetser. "Safety lies only in knowing a few unmistakable forms and sticking closely to them. In some cases the most attractive and innocent looking of the toadstools are the most deadly. One safety-first motto in gathering toadstools is to avoid absolutely all forms having a cup, or anything resembling a cup, on the lower end of the stem. All the deadly forms possess some sort of cup, a ring, white gills, and scales, although the scales and ring in some species disappear early. "This does not mean, however, that no species without these characteristics is deadly. We are glad therefore to make identifications for anyone in the state."
