

Protecting You

The contents of the can and the can itself are your protection. Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate is made of the finest cocoa and pure sugar, so proportioned and blended that its "imitators" have never been able successfully to imitate it.

The hermetically sealed can locks in the distinctive Ghirardelli flavor and locks out the many things that tend to injure chocolate not so well protected.

The suggested topic was "Are All Great Periods of History Dominated by Some Powerful Personality?" The members out were: Ellen Rudnas, Alice Curtis, Grace Johnson, Myrtle Downer, Dr. Mattie B. Shaw, Kate Lando and Myrtle Miller. Next Monday, the Society will meet with Ellen Rudnas.

M. E. BROTHERHOOD MEETS

Last Wednesday evening the Brotherhood of the Methodist church met in the church hall for their regular monthly meeting, and after dispensing with the usual business, listened to two very good addresses by R. O. Graves and Judge John F. Hall. The meeting was both a profitable and interesting one. The men present were Messrs.

"700 Orders Behind"

"I am 700 orders behind because of newspaper advertising." "I have never tried to reach customers by other mediums." Thus writes an automobile manufacturer in the presumably dull August of 1915. He has found more business than he can take care of in these disturbed times. There are others like him and their names will be found among the newspaper advertisers. Business comes to those who go after it.

KLOSTER CLUB

The ladies of the Kloster club were very pleasantly entertained on Thursday afternoon of this week at the pretty apartments of Mrs. N. H. MacMillan on Elrod Avenue. The parlor was prettily arranged with greens and choice sweet peas. The ladies chatted over their fancy work, and towards evening, the hostess served a delicious luncheon. The ladies out were Mrs. J. Q. Jarvis, Mrs. C. E. Ash, Mrs. F. L. Grannis, Mrs. R. W. Morrow and Mrs. J. B. Tower.

EPISCOPAL LADIES' GUILD

The subject of a Better Bibles Contest was again discussed at the meeting of the Episcopal Ladies' Guild last Tuesday afternoon in Guild hall, and the committee reported that plans were progressing for such a movement in Marshfield in the near future. A picture show portraying wild life of Oregon will be given on the evening of November 23rd at the Noble Theater under the auspices of the guild ladies, and the reels will be furnished by William Finley, State Biologist, who has made a wonderful collection of these features. After the business session the hostesses, Mrs. George Ayre, Mrs. F. A. Sacchi and Mrs. Nancy Noble served light refreshments. The visitors present were: Miss Mae Olesman, Mrs. F. R. Anthony and Mrs. A. O. Rogers, and the members out were Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., Mrs. J. A. NORTH BEND MOTHERS AND TEACHERS CLUB

The Mothers and Teachers Club of North Bend will meet next Tuesday afternoon in the high school building at 3:30 o'clock. The program will consist of some music and an address by Representative C. R. Barrow, of Coquille, on "The Invisible Government; Machine Made." The talk will pertain to the interest and welfare of women and children along legislative lines, the prohibition law, property rights, jury duty and children welfare. There will also be an important matter of business brought up before the meeting, the revising of the constitution and the paying of dues.

ELKS DANCING PARTY

The Elks dancing party given in the lodge rooms last Wednesday evening was attended by about 40 couples and was a big success socially. Music by Martin's orchestra was excellent; the crowd congenial and the "eats" delicious, in fact everything contributed toward the success of the affair, which is the second of a series which the lodge will give this winter.

LEAGUE OFFICERS ELECTED

At a recent meeting of the Methodist Junior League, the election of officers was held with the following results: Pres., Guendolen Hodges; Vice Pres., Helen Perkins; Treas., Bessie Spade; Sec., Irene Onimette; Organist, Irene Onimette; Assistant Organist, Helen Perkins; ushers; Irene Woodworth and Vernon Ford. Mrs. J. W. McInturff is the superintendent of the organization. The league will meet at the hall next Thursday as usual.

PLANS NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT

The North Bend Order of Eastern Star is planning an entertainment for the members and their families for the evening of November 18, Thursday. The affair promises to be something new and interesting.

AUCTION PINOCHELE

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Powers entertained a few friends at their home Tuesday evening with "Auction Pinocchle." Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the pleasant evening. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Horton, Mrs. T. L. Lawhorne, Miss Anna Cox, Mr. L. A. Woodworth.

CONCERT MUCH ENJOYED

The concert at the Noble Theater last Sunday afternoon, given by members of the faculty of the Henrik Gjerdrum Conservatory of Music, was thoroughly enjoyed by a good sized audience.

The soloists were Miss Edna Larson, pianist, Mr. Gerald Hunt, baritone, and Mr. Jeno Sevely, violinist. Mr. Henrik Gjerdrum played the accompaniments. The quartet from "Rigoletto" was sung as a closing number by Mesdames R. E. Miller and Earl Henderson, and Messrs. Benj. Ostlund and Gerald Hunt, and was so well received that its repetition was enthusiastically demanded. All the soloists, also, were given hearty encores.

This was the first of a series of concerts to be given during the season, and introduces here a practice almost universal among conservatory faculties throughout the country, whereby the entertainment and educational value of good music is placed within easy reach of the music loving public. The initial effort was a success in every way, and the concerts will be looked forward to with pleasure throughout the winter.

COMMUNITY SING

Miss Volz, music instructor in the Marshfield schools announces that on one night during Thanksgiving week, there will be held in the high school auditorium a real Community Sing, free for everybody. The pupils of both the high school and central school building are now being drilled and as the songs are to be the old, old songs "Our Mothers Used to Sing," the public is asked to "brush up" on them and come prepared to take part in this delightful evening of music, the exact date of which will be announced later.

ENTERTAIN MUSICIANS

Last evening, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kaufman entertained a number of Marshfield's best musicians at an informal social evening of music and were served. The evening hours were delightfully spent by the following guests: Mrs. Gjerdrum, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gidley, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Miller, Mrs. Hobeln, Misses Edna Louise Larsen, Mary Kruse and Messrs. Henrik Gjerdrum, Gerald Hunt and Jeno Sevely.

ATHLETIC BENEFIT DANCE

The dance given last evening in Eagles hall under the auspices of the Marshfield High school for the benefit of the high school Athletic Association was a great success both financially and socially. The affair was attended by about eighty couples under the chaperonage of Mrs. F. A. Tiedgen, Mrs. A. J. M. Robertson and Mrs. F. L. Grannis. The excellent music was furnished by Martin's orchestra, and during the evening delicious punch was served.
