SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Saturday
November 13—Sun rises 7:09 and sets at 4:43.

BORN

TERRY—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Terry, of Blue Ridge, at the Maternity Home on Eighth street, this morning, Saturday, Nov. 13, 1915, an eight and one half pound boy. This is their second child. The mother and son are doing very nicely.

WINGO—To Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Wingo at their home at Eastside, a son, their first child. Mother and child are doing nicely. Mrs. Wingo is a daughter of W. R. Foote.

Service At Eastside.—Rev. G. Le Roy Hall has announced that there will be a service tomorrow night at 7:30 in the school building at Eastside.

Revenue Inspector Here.—L. W. Nesmith, of Portland, internal revenue inspector, is on the Bay making an investigation of local conditions. There is nothing special under investigation, this being one of his regular trips in here.

Wild Berries Ripe.—Geo. Roos, who was down from his Catching Inlet ranch today, stated that this week he picked a lot of ripe wild blackberries. This is the first time in his long residence in Coos County that he has found the berries ripe.

Bank Officers Here.—S. G. Sargeant, state Superintendent of Banks, and Commissioner of Banks Stewart are here today. This is a regular trip for Mr. Stewart but the first time Mr. Sargeant has been here and he wanted to see what this section is like.

Wreck In Movies.—K. B. Westler, with his movie machine, was at the wreck yesterday, taking the picture of the waves washing over the charged and still smoking hulk. He was widely called for at the time of looting but said he could not come then.

Flag Is Returned.—R. O. Graves this morning was told by Post-office Inspector Neil that he had charge of the American flag sent to the Coos County Circuit Court, and which was taken from the wreck. Mr. Neil said that the flag will be given to Mr. Graves. It was first thought the flag had been lost with other goods taken.

Always a Booster.—From Couer d'Alene, Idaho, comes a letter from S. Driscoll, a former resident of Coos Bay saying, "I have answered dozens of inquiries about Coos Bay. I have answered them as best I can; now I need some literature." He will be sent some booklets and pictures by the Chamber of Commerce. Driscoll says he expects to return here soon.

To Receive Bids.—Bids for the furnishing of the Moose lodge rooms on the second floor in the Bargell building will be opened Tuesday noon. There will be a library, gymnasium, card room and big lodgeroom fitted out. Plans for the furnishing have been made and it is said they are beautiful and will make some of the finest equipped lodge rooms in the county.

Football Men Return.—The football team of the Coquille high school left on the morning train for Coquille, having come here for the game of yesterday afternoon and to participate in the high school dance last evening. Those who went over are: Keith Leslie, Phillip Johnson, F. O. Bither, William Downs, William Peart, J. B. Hershey, J. J. Leslie, Hugh Harlocker, Howard Pike, Marc Shelley and J. W. Crites.

Optimistic Anyway.—Mr. and Mrs. John A. Blatt have just received a letter from a relative of their's in Brussels, Belgium, commenting, as much as the censors will allow, on the war situation. The capital was not bombarded to any extent. He believes business after the war will be better than ever before. Because all letters must be read by the censors and because there are many letters to read, the Germans have cut down the size of communications to one page.

New Match Scratcher.—Most men scratch their matches on their "patches" or the sidewalk, the wall or a box, but Sheriff Johnson goes them all one better. He scratches his matches on the butt end of his revolver, carried very conveniently for the purpose in his rear pocket. Friends had noticed, several times, that he always reached in under his coat for a light and the garment was pulled back to disclose the secret. However the Sheriff is a privileged person in this respect.

More Corn Comes.—C. G. Stadden, who is on the Lew F. Price ranch at Sumner, has brought to the Chamber of Commerce some large and well formed ears of corn to be entered in the corn show here next week. There has been a hearty response from the farmers roundabout Coos Bay and next Thursday here there will be some very good looking corn on exhibition. All farmers who have not yet brought in their corn exhibits are being cautioned to have it here at least by Wednesday.

Caught Big Bear.—W. J. Fellows came from Ten Mile yesterday to bid farewell to a sister and niece who are returning via San Francisco to their home in Erie County, Pa. While guests at Ten Mile they saw Mr. Fellows kill the biggest black bear ever killed in Coos county. He caught it in one of his traps and later shot the brute. It weighed 450 pounds, was over nine feet long and measured three feet from the shoulder to the footpads. This makes the fifth bear he has caught in the same locality within a short time. The hide was one of the finest ever secured in this section. Mrs. Fellows and her daughter left on the Speedwell yesterday.

PERSONAL MENTION

W. W. HOLLAND is here from his Parkersburg ranch for a short stay.

W. C. SELLNER, the Bandon moving picture magnate, is spending a couple of days on the Bay.

MIKE GOLDBERG of Blue Ridge Tiger fame returned yesterday from a trip to the Exposition.

HENRY SENGSTACKEN left on the morning train for Coquille, where he transacted business today.

P. L. NEIL, Post-office inspector, left on the Kilburn this afternoon, returning to Portland.

F. P. NORTON and Miss Edith Preston returned yesterday via Eugene from a few weeks trip to the San Francisco Exposition.

CAPTAIN AUGUST LOFSTEDT, of the ill-fated Santa Clara, left on the Kilburn this afternoon for Portland.

WM. KAISER is in today from Hauser, where he is interested in the trestling work of Hauser & Hauser Company.

C. W. CUMBERS returned this afternoon from a business trip to Gold Beach in the interest of Standard Oil products.

SWAN BENSON came in yesterday from Portland and left in the afternoon for North Lake to look after the trestling work being done there.

DR. W. HAYDON has returned from San Francisco, where he has been visiting the exposition for several weeks past. He made the trip up on the Adeline Smith.

DAN McKINNON returned today from a business trip to Bandon. He said that the Elizabeth and Brooklyn arrived in Bandon yesterday after a rather rough trip from the south.

LINN NESMITH, of the U. S. Internal Revenue Department, is here from Portland checking up the local liquor dealers and seeing if they are complying with the war stamp provision of the law.

HENRY MILLER, a Myrtle Point merchant, was here yesterday investigating the possibilities of recovering some of his freight that was lost in the Santa Clara wreck.

NELS NELSON, an employee of the Smith mill returned home this morning on the Adeline Smith from Oakland where he went to do some repainting on the electric crane at the Oakland dock of the company.

CHAS. L. HANSON, of Jacksonville, Oregon, Southern District Sealer of the Oregon Department of Weights and Measure, arrived here yesterday from Roseburg. He is making a tour of this section examining scales and seeing if the law is being complied with. Just now they are doing educational work, informing the people what the law requires. They do not intend to make any prosecutions for minor violations unless they find someone who has been wilfully violating the law.

One firm at Akutan, Alaska, announces that this year its crews have killed 307 whales, yielding some 15,400 tons of fresh meat. It is said to be highly nutritious. The dealers say the only reason it has not been on the market extensively is because the people are ignorant of its flavor.
