

THE LADIES HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

Surprising Values in Women's Fall Suits

Fashionably made from Fashionable Materials, in every Fashionable Autumn Shade. Many of them trimmed in fur.

And while these Suits are unusual values, they appeal even more because of their smartness of style. Suits of fine Gabardine, Whipcords, Broadcloth, Wool Poplin and the new mixtures. Some with high chin collars and trimmed with rich silk braids.

$15, $17.50, $20, $25 Hub Dry Goods Co. "SMARTWEAR FOR WOMEN" Corner Broadway and Central Avenue. Phone 361

Social Activities

(Continued from page 3)

THIMBLE CLUB

Mrs. Lester Eaton of Bangor was the pleasing hostess this week at the meeting of the North Bend Thimble Club, at which time plans were made for the quarterly "clean up" day to be held next Saturday. A letter of condolence was sent to Mrs. C. H. Greves, an active member of the club whose brother died a short time ago. Special guests present were Mrs. C. A. Perkins, Mrs. R. L. Cavanaugh and Miss Caroline Howell, all of whom assisted the hostess in serving a delicious luncheon at the close of the afternoon. The members present were Mrs. A. E. Rose, Mrs. A. S. Hammond, Mrs. H. E. Barmester, Mrs. M. G. Coleman, Mrs. A. H. Derbyshire, Mrs. M. E. Everitt, Mrs. R. B. Hazer, Mrs. George Mandigo, Mrs. Elmer Russell, Mrs. Wm. Vaughan, Mrs. Chas. Williams and Mrs. I. B. Bartle. The club will meet again in two weeks but the place is as yet undecided.

A. N. W. CLUB

The A. N. W. Club was entertained this week at the home of Mrs. G. A. Bennett who was assisted during the afternoon by the special guests Mrs. W. J. Conrag and Mrs. Hirsch of Ukiah, Calif. The time was spent in sewing accompanied by the usual social chat, and at the close of the afternoon hours refreshments were served. Next Friday Mrs. Carl Evertsen will be the hostess. The members present this week were: Mrs. F. E. Allen, Mrs. Lily Friedberg, Mrs. F. E. Hague, Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mrs. J. T. Harrigan, Mrs. Frances Hazard, Mrs. Elizabeth Hyde, Mrs. Kate Lando, Mrs. E. Mings, Mrs. George F. Murch, Mrs. W. P. Murphy, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. Nancy Noble, Mrs. E. O'Connell, Mrs. H. Quist, Mrs. Chas. Stauff and Mrs. Annie Tower.

MRS. MARY THOMPSON ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Mary E. Thompson was the hostess at her home on South Fifth Street last Saturday afternoon to the members of the Minne Wis Club, the Eastport Dahlia Club and the mothers of the Eastport school. Excellent readings were given by Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Nagle, Mrs. Gosney and Mrs. E. A. Harris, each one responding to encores. At the close of a very delightful social afternoon, the hostess assisted by Miss Ella Weiss, served a delicious luncheon in cafeteria style. Those present of the Minne Wis Club were: Mrs. A. z. Downs, Mrs. E. A. Harris, Mrs. F. H. Dresser, Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Mrs. W. E. Hoagland, Mrs. Charles Davis,

SOCIAL CALENDAR

- SUNDAY Band Concert at 3 o'clock in the Orpheum Theater. MONDAY Progress Club with Mrs. Otto Schetter. Alpha Delphian Society with Miss Ellen Rudnas. TUESDAY North Bend Mothers and Teachers meeting in high school building. Ladies Guild in Guild hall. Eastside Social Club special meeting with Sarah Jordan. North Bend Library Board Tea with Mrs. C. F. McCullom. WEDNESDAY North Bend Episcopal ladies entertain Union Aid at Presbyterian church. D. M. C. Club with Mrs. N. G. Hames. Priscillas with Mrs. Amos Simpson of Bunker Hill. Presbyterian Auxiliary in church hall. Mrs. J. H. Flanagan entertains at third of series of auction bridge parties. THURSDAY Minne-Wis club with Mrs. O. W. Briggs. A. N. W. Club with Mrs. Carl Evertsen. FRIDAY Past Matrons Society with Mrs. E. G. Flanagan. Kensington Club with Mrs. C. S. Hoffman. Dahlia Club with Mrs. H. E. Reanier. North Bend Catholic card party and dance in Loggie's hall. Pastime Club evening party at home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Surbeck in North Bend. Ladies Art Club with Mrs. F. L. Sumner. Trio Card Club with Mrs. T. S. Harvey.

LADIES' ART CLUB

The Ladies' Art Club was entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. D. McArthur, who had as special guests Mrs. C. T. Waugh and Mrs. Harris. At the close of the afternoon spent in sewing and chat, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Harris and Mrs. H. G. Hoy, served dainty refreshments. The members out were: Mrs. Blanchard, Mrs. Blatt, Mrs. Jas. Cowan, Sr., Mrs. W. B. Curtis, Mrs. F. M. Flye, Mrs. W. E. Hoagland, Mrs. A. L. Houseworth, Mrs. Hoy, Mrs. C. LaChappelle, Mrs. L. G. Lang, Mrs. J. O. Langworthy, Mrs. Ross Smith, Mrs. O. S. Torrey and Mrs. R. H. Walter.

The club will be entertained next Friday at the home of Mrs. F. L. Sumner.

LIBRARY TEA

Next Tuesday afternoon the ladies of the North Bend Library Board will entertain at a public tea at the home of Mrs. C. F. McCullom.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

Jay Doyle entertained a party of friends last Monday evening at a smoker and general good time. His guests were the Messrs. Claude Thompson, Roy Gill, Wilbur Welsh, A. Y. Myers, J. E. Montgomery, Del Bengtson and Walter Butler.

B. Y. P. U. SOCIAL

The social given last evening by the Baptist Young People's Union at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Rood was one of the most delightful affairs of its kind ever held, there being in attendance between forty-five and fifty young people. The entertainment was planned by the following committee: Misses Alice Tickell, Esther Whitney, Alpha Mausey, and Messrs: George Doll, Ernest Harrington and S. J. Leland, and the delicious refreshments were the result of the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Rood, Mrs. Alva Doll, Mrs. J. C. Doane, Mrs. J. H. Lupton and Miss Lois Simmons. The home of the host and hostess was very prettily arranged with large bouquets of choice chrysanthemums from their own garden, and clusters of greens. A short program was given during the fore part of the evening with the following numbers: Piano Solo..... Miss Lois Simmons Reading... Miss C. Esther Whitney Vocal Duet—Miss Mabel and Alpha Mausey. Reading..... Mrs. G. L. Hall All numbers responded to hearty encores.

At the game of Congress, the side captained by Mrs. G. L. Hall was declared victorious over those under the leadership of Walter Hinman. This occupied the time of the guests until a late hour when the hostess assisted by the refreshment committee and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brown, served the delectable dainties. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Alva Doll, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hinman and son, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hinman, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lupton, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Rood, Mrs. J. C. Doane, Mrs. G. L. Hall, Mrs. Daisy Anderson, the Misses: Madge and Winifred Simpson, Myrtle Tripp, Steenberg, Stalley, Alice Tickell, Lois Simmons, Ruth and Helen McLaughlin, Mabel and Alpha Mausey, Elsie Baker, Louise Phillips, Miriam and Clemeace Wright, Bernice Patchett, Alice Richardson, Esther Whitney; and Messrs: H. B. Foskett, G. W. Leslie, Kinney, Lawyer, Fred Hill, Chas. Tidland, E. Harrington, Whitford Hall, Ed Dolan, George Doll and Quartermass.

The evening closed with a big "sing" by everyone with Miss Simmons at the piano.

GUILD HALL SOCIAL

Tastefully decorated with autumn leaves, and with an audience that taxed its capacity, Guild Hall last evening was the scene of a most enjoyable and interesting social, arranged under the auspices of the Superintendent and teachers of the Sunday School of Emmanuel Parish. Great credit is due to Mrs. C. E. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Payne, the parents of the children who appeared in costume, and also to those who volunteered their talent in various ways, in making the affair a rousing success. Something was doing from beginning to end.

The program was opened by a most patriotic tableau entitled "The Nations" or "Help for our Sisters," in which the various nations whose parts were taken by children of the Sunday School classes of Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Payne. Beautiful and variegated costumes made the picture one which brought forth several curtain calls from the audience. America, standing in the midst of her sisters of the nations dressed in the stars and stripes was represented by Dorothy Baker. In her hand she held the Bible, the emblem of light. To her the hand of the messenger, Violet Swanton, was pointing the sisterhood of the nations. The following members of the classes represented the different nations: Margaret Stauff, Turkish woman; Virginia Coke, Siamese Flower Girl; Louise Lockhart, Indian woman; Elizabeth Swanton, Chinese woman; Marie Rogers, Moorish woman; Margaret Luse, Persian woman; Grace McKeown, negro woman, Audrey Lyons and Dorothy Barry also having part in the tableau.

Passing from this there was an interesting acrostic given by the pupils of the classes of Mrs. A. C. Vestal, Mrs. Payne and Mrs. Elliott. It represented the words "Sunday School," each pupil holding aloft a great red letter and reciting their verse appropriate thereto. The following took part: Frederick Schetter, Joey McKeown, Melville Johnson, Joe Stoll, Raymond O'Mara, Bennett Swanton, Edwin Swanton, Herbert Lewis, John Butler, Ira Jones, Richard Jones, Marshall Perham. All did well and the audience listened intently to each inspiring verse as it came from each individually and then from all in unison.

Miss Isabel Macgenn, of Empire, a pupil of Mrs. Bugge, was next on the program, and to illustrate the imaginative powers of childhood, she recited: "Billy Brad and the Big Lie." The audience was not content with one recitation, and when Billy finished by wanting to be the garbage man, he was called back and a shorter but just as interesting a number was given. Miss Macgenn shows native powers of expression which bid fair to make known in this line the future.

The boys of Mr. Fred Payne's class sang a song with such energy that all agreed there need be no fear about a future choir for Emmanuel Parish. Then came a dialogue by two boys of the same class, Howard Lewis and Francis Szechi, done in a most natural way. It was entitled "Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother" and represented the influence a boy who attended Sunday School had on one who spent his Sundays with the fishing rod, and the dialogue concluded with the dramatic destruction of the road amidst the laughter of the audience. Both boys showed originality in their parts.

Another interesting feature of the program was the propounding of a number of instructive and difficult biblical questions in the game of forfeits. Many of them were answered by those who received the questions on a slip of paper, but other questions were posed and the unfortunate victims were assigned to the penalty bench, which was presided over by Hugh Barclay, who meted out dire punishments to the culprits, among whom were E. P. Lewis who was brought forward to tell a funny story, and he was found equal to the occasion, also Fred Payne, in conjunction with Madame Mojaska, was allotted the penalty of having to reach each others minds. The powers of the occult were demonstrated by the wierd discovery of an article known only to the audience. The following music numbers were interspersed in the evening's program, Mrs. Charles Stauff, accompanied by Miss Clara Myren, Mr. Herbert Buserud, accompanied by Miss Mary Kruse and Mrs. E. Stanley Henderson with Miss Myren at the piano. Each one was forced by the demands of the audience to give a second number and all were listened to with deep interest. Many had not previously heard Mr. Buserud, whose full rich tones made every one feel that Marshfield is gifted with male as well as feminine talent.

Mr. E. Lothard McClure acted as general superintendent behind the scenes and to him is due in a large measure the mathematical precision with which the curtain rose and fell and also the toning down of any undue hilarity on the part of the youngsters. After the program the audience partook of refreshments and mingled together for friendly chats until warned by the lateness of the hour that it was time to depart.

Among those who helped to dispense the good things were: Alice and Helen Flanagan, Marion Horsfall, Helen Merchant, Gladys Ferry, Kathrine Nicholson, Abbie Ledward, Florence Flanagan. Delicious candy was made for the affair by Miss Evelyn Flanagan.

Thus, with general good cheer and abundant satisfaction, ended the first of a series of socials which will take place in Guild Hall from time to time, and all voted it a huge success from start to finish.

INFORMAL CHAT

Mr. and Mrs. Matt L. May returned this week from San Francisco and have taken an apartment in the Hague apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hanson and children left yesterday morning overland for Boise, Idaho, where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Hanson having taken a position there with the Boise-Payette Company.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sherwood and daughter Clara passed through here from Coquille this week en route to the exposition in San Francisco.

ELKS ANNUAL SMOKER

Wednesday evening, Anyone wishing to invite friends notify committee.

J. W. HILDENBRAND, Exalted Ruler F. V. CATTLEMAN, Chairman.

Say, girls, go after that 5-pound box of candy given away by the Eagles at their dance tonight.

LOCALS TAKE GAME

PRACTICALLY WIN COOS CHAMPIONSHIP BY VICTORY

Pigeon Warriors of Coquille Outbeat 55 to 0 By Marshfield On Local Gridiron

55 TO NOTHING

The sad, sad shade of a half back The wraith of a player, that's all, Enwrapped in gloom sat still as doom And watched the strawmen fall Their eyes were stark and staring, And palsy shook each hand— This was the most that any ghost, Was ever asked to stand! And then they wept all sadly, These men without a name, And I'll say right here let fall a tear A sad, salt tear of shame! And out of that a spirit In awful voice cried "hold!" In days to come, we'll make things hum"— But watch the Blue and Gold!

Marshfield won the football championship of Coos yesterday, shoving even the shadow of a doubt far to the rear, when they halted their mad rushes as the referee blew time at the end of the fourth quarter yesterday afternoon with the score of 55 to 0 in favor of the locals over the Coquille eleven.

They were all tired out, were the proteges of Coach Niles. Tired out from running back and forth to the two goals at different ends of the field.

Coquille Is Outweighed

There wasn't a time that the Marshfield goal was endangered. But despite all of this, it must be taken into consideration that the team from Coquille averaged but 140 pounds and they did their best from whistle to whistle. Had it not been for the fine defensive of Keith Leslie, the big red thatched full back, the score against them might even have been higher. He was always in the way to patch up holes made through his lighter men.

Touchdowns Happen Often

Each and every quarter saw two or more touchdowns. The locals advanced by leaps and bounds, first crumbling the defensive of Coquille and the next minute shooting a play around the end. It was noticeable though that often the Marshfield back field runner dashed out from behind his interference, trying his luck in the open. Sometimes he advanced and sometimes he didn't. Both sides worked about an equal number of forward passes. In last quarter Coquille got away with two almost in succession, the last netting about 12 yards. The big scores were directly responsible to Seaman, McArthur, Lyons and Chapman, though they were well backed up by every man on the team.

Scores by Quarter

Table with columns for Quarter, Position, and Name. Lists players like Seaman, McArthur, Lyons, Chapman, etc.

ROBERT KEHOE OF PORTER MILL RESIGNED

Has Been Superintendent of Plant for Past Twelve Years and Well Known

Robert Kehoe today resigned position as superintendent of Porter mill of the Simpson Lumber Company. Mr. Kehoe has been superintendent of the mill for past 12 years and is one of the known lumbermen of this part of the state.

Parcels are arriving daily in E. Ladies' Parcel Post Station. Wolcott's window.

PLAN to take your THANKS GIVING DINNER at CHAS. HOTEL. MAKE RESERVATIONS ADVANCE. Phone 20.

Walk-Overs

FORTY-ONE YEARS OF CONSTANT PROGRESS

have produced these greatest of values in all shoedom. Besides unexcelled style and leather values it is literally true that we stock a "Shape for Every Foot" and correctly fit uncommonly "Hard-to-Fit Feet" from our great stock of specialties. Let us demonstrate while our stocks are at their best.

$3.50 to $7.00

MATSON'S QUALITY STORE

Remember Your Friends at Christmas Time

A Fine Photo is Sure to Please One dozen will make twelve fine presents

QUATERMASS STUDIO North Front Street. Phone 106-L

Our Christmas Stock

is arriving and will soon be on display. We will have a larger selection of practical gifts this year than ever before. The stock was carefully selected by us as suitable to Coos County. It includes the best of the new novelties in Christmas gifts.

Optical Department RED CROSS DRUG STORE

Home grown Chrysanthemums See our window every day $1, $2, $3 DOZEN

Marshfield Florist Co. Edwin G. Scott Cut Flowers, Floral Designs, Plants. Phones: Store 259-J, Greenhouse 425-X

Santa Claus Has Arrived

Practically all of our standard Christmas stock has arrived and will be on display next week. We have arranged for additional shipments of the late Christmas novelties and will be prepared to furnish you with the very latest in the gift line. Every article we sell is guaranteed to be just as represented—and quality in jewelry is the greatest feature you can buy. We will be pleased to show you the new Christmas goods.

Wilson's Jewelry Store 78 Central Ave. Phone 151-L