Going Out of Business

The old saying that "a Dollar Saved is a Dollar Earned" applies with double force in these times of financial stress. You may not be able to "earn a dollar," but here is a chance to save many of those you have already captured. If a person were to throw dollars in your lap, you would grasp them eagerly. That's just what we are giving; we are literally throwing dollars in your lap. A glance at the prices below should convince the most skeptical that we mean what we say.

SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Friday November 19.—Sun rises at 7:17 and sets at 4:36.

Books Are Lost.—The Marshfield library has received word that a consignment of 20 new books were aboard the Santa Clara. They have been lost.

To Talk to Children.—Mrs. E. Kelley will conduct the story hour for the children at the Carnegie Public Library in the morning at 10 o'clock. The subject will be "The Story of Thanksgiving" and all children are invited to attend.

Are Returning.—Fred Wilson has written that he is intending to leave San Francisco on the next trip of the Kilburn for Coos Bay. He will be accompanied by his wife and his mother who has been under medical treatment there for several weeks.

Back From Curry County.—Will Erickson, who has been in Curry County for several months past running a big road engine, has returned. The roads became so muddy that further work was impossible. Erickson will remain here for the winter.

Comes For Man.—A. Cameron, traveling guard of the state insane asylum, came in last evening on his way to Coquille where he will take Alfred Machado back to Salem with him. The county court a few days ago adjudged Machado mentally inefficient. He is an elderly man.

Grows Good Cranberries.—At the Chamber of Commerce have been received two quarts of samples of cranberries grown on the ranch of Renben Lyons at South Inlet. He has there a new variety of berry, larger than the ordinary berry and much lighter.

Never Missed a Meal.—S. B. Cathcart has written to J. W. Watt, telling him of their safe arrival in San Francisco aboard the last Adeline. He boasts of the fact that he didn't miss a meal, though Mrs. Cathcart was a little sick on the journey down.

Visits Sister.—J. R. Tower who has been taking in the San Francisco Exposition has gone to Monrovia for a short visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Loring Leete Day, formerly Miss Nellie Tower. She will return to San Francisco with him to visit the Exposition after which Mr. Tower will return home.

Prowler Scared Away.—A prowler about the Neils Rasmussen home, 276 West Birch avenue sometime on Wednesday night was scared by the barking of the dogs about the house. Several bushes under a back window were found broken down and it was believed a man tried to raise the window which was locked.

Have Good Music.—The musical part of the services at the Baptist church is a most interesting feature. Mr. Hall is supported by a strong chorus and the first half hour each evening is given to a bright, inspiring, song service. Rev. G. Le Roy Hall sang last evening, "Jesus in Pilate's Hall." He will sing two solos this evening. He has a full, rich voice, his interpretation is perfect.

Hurt By Auto.—Lloyd Cornwall, son of Capt. and Mrs. N. J. Cornwall of Gardiner, sustained a broken arm when his auto "kicked back" at Gardiner while he was cranking his machine. The fracture is a compound one and extremely painful. Passengers on the stage auto say that Cornwall exhibited unusual nerve and never flinched while being taken back to secure treatment.

May Remain South.—R. N. Fenton, director of the Coos Bay Concert Band for the past three years, accompanied by Mrs. Fenton left this morning aboard the Adeline for San Francisco. He expects to remain there at least until the outcome of the municipal election here December 7. He has three other offers that he is considering in the band line, one of them being in Oregon. His household goods have been packed.

Few Fishermen Respond.—On November 10 the date closed for the time in which fishermen should have filed with the Master Fish Warden the size of their salmon catches the past six months, providing they do not use gill or setnets. Since that time only three have filed these records with Justice Penneck to be forwarded to Salem. These three have also paid the sums due, this depending on the variety of salmon and the number taken.

Its A "Horse" On The Police.—Two stray horses were picked up by the police late yesterday and placed in the city pond for safe keeping. Today Chief Carter's looking for the owners. The animals, one a dark bay mare with "LS" branded on the left hip and the other a light bay two years old with a bald face and wearing a halter, were picked up on south Sixth street where they were peacefully grazing on various front lawns and gardens.

Buys Property Here.—Harry F. Hinman, of Spokane, who moved here recently has just closed a deal with Mrs. Mary Nicola for the purchase of her property located on South Fourth street, 50 feet south of the Gow Why Grocery. Mr. and Mrs. Hinman will live on the premises. This deal was made by Alva Doll. He also this week sold to I. Metty, of Colorado, five lots and two houses in Bay Park, belonging to N. Lyon.

Sends Exhibits From Here.—J. L. Smith and Prof. Larsen last evening packed up in sacks and boxes some of the best exhibits shown here at the corn show yesterday and these were taken to Coquille this morning. They will be placed in the show there to illustrate concretely to the Coquille Valley that Coos Bay can raise corn.

Several to Corn Show.—Several of the farmers attending the corn show here yesterday were so enthused that they promised J. L. Smith to attend the show in Coquille either today or tomorrow. Saturday is the big day. A basket dinner will be served at noon and there are many races for the afternoon and evening that will be interesting. The corn exhibits there make up the biggest collection of any of the three shows in the county.

Buy Stock.—August Carlson who was in from his North Coos River ranch yesterday said that he was making the place a dairy as well as a garden spot. He has a big hot house in which to raise lettuce and has arranged with the Sanitary Food Store and the Model Grocery to handle his products. He bought four blooded Jerseys from Harry Thomas who is closing out his belongings on the Gage ranch. C. C. Wilson bought nine head of the Thomas stock. Mr. Carlson says he almost got a wildcat a short time ago. True Saling, near Allegany, recently killed a bear in addition to getting four fine buck heads during the season.

Want Coroner's Verdict.—A letter addressed to Coroner Fred Wilson, and in his absence presented to Judge Penneck, from A. H. Gage, agent of the Prudential Life Insurance Company at Salem, asks for the Coroner's verdict on the Santa Clara wreck. To him has been presented a claim of the heirs of Mrs. Sadie A. Caldbeck, a nurse who was drowned, for the collection of a policy made out to her. Mrs. Caldbeck was coming here to visit her niece, Mrs. C. W. Gibbs, of North Bend.
