TWO THANKSGIVING WEDDINGS HERE THIS SEASON

Wolcott-Kunkel Nuptials Tomorrow—Herbert Gorr to Wed Miss Marie Galbraith

The announcement of the approaching wedding of Miss Agnes Kunkel and Dwight Wolcott which appeared last night in The Times, was a genuine surprise to the many friends and acquaintances of the young couple. The affair will be solemnized tomorrow at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wolcott, on Park avenue, the Rev. R. E. Browning, of the Episcopal Church officiating.

Miss Kunkel for the past year has kept the books of the Chandler Hotel, and just recently resigned her position, expressing her intention of visiting a sister in the East. Cupid kept his secret well until last evening when the announcement appeared. Mr. Wolcott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wolcott, well-known pioneers of Coos Bay, and is with his brother, C. Wolcott, in the grocery business.

The young couple will leave immediately for San Francisco and perhaps San Diego, where they will spend their honeymoon, after which Mr. Wolcott will return here and Miss Kunkel will go East for a time as had been planned.

Another marriage

Also tomorrow will occur the marriage of Miss Marie Galbraith and Herbert Gorr at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jennie Galbraith, of Eastside. Miss Galbraith is a sister of Mrs. Ben Wright and Mrs. I. Hadlock and is well known in Eastside and Marshfield. Mr. Gorr is a brother of L. L. Gorr, of this city. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom will leave on their honeymoon for parts unknown, the place being kept a secret from everyone. On their return they will make their home on South Fourth street.

COMMUNITY SING TO BE FOLLOWED BY "POP" UNCORKING

High School Auditorium To Ring This Evening—Players of Both Teams Announced

"Old Black Joe" and "My Old Kentucky Home" and "Down on the Swanee River" will positively "come back" and vie again with "Ben Bolt" and "Annabel Lee" in the community sing, at eight o'clock this evening in the high school auditorium. Following this the students and the football fans will gather in one big noise, fittingly uncorking the "pop" for the game on the morrow.

To every one, whether or not he or she can sing, the invitation for this evening has been extended. The singing will be in charge of Miss Anna Volz, instructor in art and singing in the local schools.

It is expected by that time the U. of O. freshman football team will have arrived. Speeches are slated from the coach, Leo Malarky, and also by Dr. John Straub, of the University, who will be here for the occasion.

Talks to be Given

Principal Walte, of the high school, will be master of ceremonies. There will be other talks by Supt. P. A. Tiedgen, by A. T. Haines, of the school board, R. O. Graves and Ben Fisher. The boys' quartet will sing.

Lineup of Teams

By wire last evening was received the lineup of the freshman team for Thanksgiving day. It follows, together with the lineup of the locals and the numbers that have been assigned each player, so that he may be followed through the game on Thursday:

Marshfield	Position	Freshman
(10) Lyons	Center	(21) Downard
(11) Painter	Right Guard	(28) Moritt
(12) Dresser	Right Tackle	(25) Miller
(13) Burrows	Right End	(26) Cook
(9) Merchant	Left Guard	(23) Brown
(8) La Chapelle	Left Tackle	(22) Pell
(7) Hongel	Left End	(32) McKinney
(1) Watters	Quarter	(27) Wilson
(3) McDonald	Right Half	(30) Jensen
(5) McDuffey	Full Back	(20) Holsyington
(4) Chapman	Left Half	(29) Mast

Subs for Marshfield will be (2) Seaman, (6) Eack, (14) Walters, (15) Storgard. Subs for Oregon will be (24) Madden, (32) Barbour.

BOY ORATOR SPEAKS

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 24.—Lawrence P. McGraban, 18 year old son of a former West Virginia saloon-keeper, and who is walking around the United States, a distance of about 10,000 miles in the interests of prohibition, arrived in this city and spoke in three churches.

SMITH MILL STARTS MONDAY ON FIVE-DAY RUN

Means Twenty-five Per Cent More for Employees—Closed Down for Thanksgiving Season

The Smith mill will close down this evening for Thanksgiving and remain closed until Monday. Last week the mill operated five days, the men being given the extra day so the plant could be closed for the Thanksgiving season.

Next week, however, the mill will start on a run of five days a week instead of four. This will, of course, be welcomed by the employees as it will give them 25 per cent additional income over what they have been receiving under the four-day week run.

Extra Day Added

Superintendent Merceen has for some weeks past been trying to bring about conditions whereby the extra day could be added and affairs are now so that the extra day of work can be given. It is expected that operations will continue this way during the winter and as soon as the lumber market gets better and market conditions warrant, the mill will be back on full run again.

Dropped This Year

The custom of presenting Thanksgiving turkeys to the employees which was inaugurated personally by C. A. Smith, was not followed out this season. It was decided under present conditions not to follow out the practice this season.

SAYS OUTLOOK GOOD

PORTLAND MAN GIVES ENCOURAGING VIEW OF PROSPECTS

J. P. Carpenter Says Lumbermen Will Soon Enjoy Great Improvement in Business on Coast

Encouraging statements regarding the future of the lumber business are made by J. P. Carpenter of Portland who is now in the city on business. Mr. Carpenter represents the American Rubber Belt and Hose Company and is a man well acquainted with lumber conditions on the coast as he sells to many of the mills and has been making Coos Bay for the past eleven years.

Mr. Carpenter says that he is convinced that in a very short time there will be a marked improvement in the lumber business. In fact he goes so far as to say that the lumber mills will soon find themselves very busy with orders to keep them running full time. Mr. Carpenter bases his statements on conditions as he finds them in traveling about among the millmen and manufacturers.

RETURNS HOME

A Roseburg paper says: J. N. Hedden, of Scottsburg, passed through here this afternoon, en route home from a visit to San Francisco. He found the streets the same as in days of yore, but the buildings are all changed since the big fire. The exposition he found to be a big affair.

FOLDING PAMPHLETS ON COOS BAY ARE SOUGHT FOR

At Fair, 125,000 Have Been Distributed—Figures are Compact and Pictures Tell a Story

More than 125,000 Coos Bay booklets have been distributed from the Coos and Curry booth at the Panama-Pacific exposition. A shipment of 10,000 left a few days ago for San Francisco.

There are still approximately 175,000 of the booklets on hand. Some of these have not yet had the inserts printed on them and in these the reading will be changed to give a description of the railroad as though it were completed, the idea being to keep these for distribution months from now.

These booklets, gotten out by the Chamber of Commerce, are believed to have given more advertising to the Coos Bay section than all the other literature put together. They are small, compact and the pictures are good ones that tell more than pages of reading could do.

J. A. Ward, in charge of the Coos and Curry exhibits, writes that the booklets have made a decided hit and that everyone visiting the booth is supplied, and several call for booklets to carry away to friends and relatives somewhere back east.

TRAVELERS' CLUB

LOCAL REPRESENTATIVES OF WHOLESALERS ORGANIZE

Koos Kommercial Klub Is Name Chosen—Officers Elected and Plan to Enroll Traveling Men

The Koos Kommercial Klub is the name chosen for the new organization of the resident representatives of wholesalers and jobbers. A preliminary organization has been formed and a meeting will be held at the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce Saturday night to enroll all the other local traveling men as members.

The objects of the club are social and mutual assistance, probably extending themselves in a variety of ways as the organization grows older.

The qualifications for membership are being the duly accredited representative of reputable wholesalers and jobbers and residence in this vicinity, the latter being determined by the general election laws.

HELP RAILROAD SCHEME

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Nov. 24.—Bankers and blacksmiths, cattlemen and homesteaders, pledged support to Robert E. Strahorn, each in his kind, during an eventful four-days' trip through Central Oregon.

Cash, labor, terminal sites and rights of way were offered, and the railroad builder was assured that the terms he exacted would be complied with.

The strongest men of every community visited accepted the responsibility of undertaking the duties prescribed.

COOS BAY CATCH LESS THAN HALF WHAT IT WAS IN 1914

Send up About 5000 Cases, Counting Fish in Tierces—Carl Egenhoff Makes $700 on Season

Coos Bay's inducements to salmon failed to bring results this year. The catch of the Tallant cannery was less than half what it was in 1914, according to Manager John La Mure. The season has just closed for the cannery, though fishing will be allowed after December 10.

Approximately 5000 cases, counting what fish were pickled and put up in tierces, were shipped north from Coos Bay this year, according to Mr. Tallant. In 1914 something like 13,000 cases were shipped out of here.

Fishermen found the "pickings" poor. Most of them made very little this season, though Carl Egenhoff was able to garner in something like $700 for his snare of the two months' work.

Is an Off Year

Fishermen cannot account for any reason that would keep the fish away from here. "Just an off year" is their explanation. Down on the Rogue and up on the Columbia the fishing was good in the spring, but this fall it has not been up to the ordinary, though there were many fish caught off the Columbia's mouth.

The Japanese crew of the Tallant cannery will go back to Astoria aboard the Kilburn.

AFTER CIGARETTES

Claimed They Are Evil Which Must Be Removed

The Eugene Register says: Addressing the Patron-Teachers' association of the Geary school, J. M. Devers, County Attorney of Lane, who has been foremost in the movement to enforce the Sunday closing law, advocated the enactment of an anti-cigarette law. It is probable that some action will originate in this city looking to such legislation as a result of Mr. Devers' advocacy of such a law.

Mr. Devers spoke of the importance of the work undertaken by the patron-teachers associations of the city and pointed out that one of the big features that contribute to the defeat of their objects and one that is doing more than anything against their work is cigarette smoking.
