

Thanksgiving!

THANKSGIVING has ever been home-coming time, a day when all of us turn toward the family hearth, pledging again in the bounties of nature those ties we hold most dear.

Truly, this has been a strenuous year, a year of tremendous activity, of events crowding one upon the other with startling rapidity and as we pause amidst the tumult, one great thought must come home to all of us. Peace and the bountiful blessings of peace are ours. Let us be thankful.

This great store of service is moving steadily ahead upon the highway of progress. Old friends remain steadfastly with us, new friends, in greater numbers, are coming to know our greater values, and the satisfaction which comes only from faultless merchandise, satisfaction which makes for true thanksgiving on their part and ours, satisfaction made possible by such good merchandise as and our line of Men's Furnishings.

TO-NIGHT

Daniel Frohman presents HAZEL DAWN in the fanciful comedy "NOVA" — A humorous blending of the ancient and the modern — A comedy that begins three thousand years ago and ends today. This Paramount picture has been shown in North Bend and Bandon and is pronounced to be one of the finest we have had for some time.

THE LADY KILLER—Selig comedy. A regular gloom chaser.
GOLD DUST AND THE SQUAW—Selig Western drama.
A splendid show—and one that should be seen by everyone in Marshfield.

Will Preach Sunday.—Rev. G. LeRoy Hall will preach Sunday morning at Broadbent and in the evening will speak at Powers.

Plan Opening.—The Marshfield Moose Lodge expect to have their new hall in the Bargelt building ready for the formal opening about December 7. They are planning a big banquet and general good time for the occasion.

New Home Here.—C. K. Perry's new home on North Eighth street, Perham Park, was completed this week and he expects to move in the first of next week. L. J. Post completed the carpenter work last week and the painters have been giving it the final touches. It is one of the most modern and attractive homes erected on the Bay this season.

Back from Curry.—E. E. Dyer of Daniels Creek arrived home yesterday from Harbor, Curry county, where he has been superintendent of construction of the Chetco river bridge for which E. G. Perham had the contract. He went to Daniels Creek to spend Thanksgiving with the family.

Honor Bride-to-be.—Last evening, Miss Agnes Kunkel was tendered a miscellaneous surprise shower by the Alpha Delphi Society of which she is a member. The affair was held in the apartments of Miss Kunkel and Miss Smith in the Myrtle Arms. This afternoon, Miss Kunkel will become the bride of Dwight Wolcott.

Have Hard Trip.—Coming here to attend the funeral of their brother, W. S. Turpen, yesterday Mrs. C. M. Byler and Mrs. B. Langford found they were unable to get through from Gardiner via the beach stage. They came in overland through Lakeside and after an exceedingly hard trip arrived here in time for the funeral.

SUNRISE AND SUNSET
Thursday
November 25 — Sun rises at 7:25 and sets at 4:31.

Two Others Are Judges.—In The Times last evening City Recorder C. P. Keating, of Eastside, announced the names of R. T. Whitty and L. S. Wilde for two of the judges on the election board. These men were on last year and Albert Heas and Thomas Plainstone are on for this year.

Settlement is Made.—L. K. Gray, former cashier at the depot, arrested yesterday on a charge of jumping a $29 board bill at the Snyder Hotel, was brought here last evening by Deputy Sheriff Laird. He settled the bill, all but nine dollars, which he promised to pay later and was released from custody and the charge dismissed.

Luck is Changed.—Gordon Smith, at the fire station, says he's never going to do another thing to change his luck. Last Saturday he turned the big horseshoe, that hangs over the doors to the hall, upside down. At the same time the department acquired a green parrot with a black bill, that yelled huskily all day. That very night there was a fire and yesterday there were two more.

All Creditors Same.—Judge Coke in circuit court has decided the case of the First National Bank of Bandon to establish its right as a preferred creditor in the Manassa bankruptcy proceedings. He held that that bank had no prior claims and must share the same as the other creditors. The Manassa failure has been in court for a long time and the litigation has cost about as much as the assets of the Manassa estate.

PERSONAL MENTION

W. C. LAIRD, Deputy Sheriff, came over last evening on official business.

H. J. McDIARMID was here from Bandon yesterday on business and pleasure.

MRS. ROY MOORE has returned from a short visit in Portland and other northern points.

H. J. McDIARMID is here today from Bandon to visit and take in the football game.

E. G. PERHAM has arrived home from Curry County, where he has spent several months on contract work.

PAT HENNESSEY and family came in from Delmar today to spend Thanksgiving at their Marshfield home.

C. H. GRAM, of the State Labor Commission, is back again from business in the Southern end of the county.

ANDY P. DAVIS came over from Coquille this morning to take his Thanksgiving turkey with friends on the Bay.

CHAS. FENSLE came in from Powers yesterday to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Fensler and daughter, Maxine.

MRS. E. DON McCRARY returned to her home at Bandon yesterday after a short visit at the home of Mrs. Chas. Fensler.

MISS McDONALD, a nurse at Mercy hospital, left yesterday for Bandon where she will spend Thanksgiving at the Merchant ranch.

N. A. NELSON, cashier of the Hauser & Hauser Company, at Lakeside, came in last evening to spend Thanksgiving Day in the city.

J. D. CLINTON, a well known dairyman of Norway, left yesterday to take in the San Francisco Exposition and visit at other California points.

JAMES WATSON, county judge, came over from Coquille yesterday to attend the funeral of W. S. Turpen. He remained over for Thanksgiving.

L. A. LILJEQVIST and wife and daughter, Cynthia, went to Coquille this morning to take Thanksgiving dinner at the A. J. Sherwood home.

J. H. BRIDGES, of San Francisco, owner of the Lloyd Hotel, arrived here last evening via Roseburg and will look after the recent fire damage to his property.

MR. AND MRS. J. W. M'INTURFF and little son arrived in last evening from Salem, where they have been visiting their parents. They had a hard trip down the beach, coming in the third stage from the north, the fourth one having to turn back after going through Ten Mile Creek four different times. Much baggage was lost, said Mr. McInturff.

WILL WED TONIGHT

DWIGHT WOLCOTT TO MARRY MISS AGNES KUNKEL
Ceremony Will be Followed by Thanksgiving Dinner to Members of the Family.

At four o'clock this afternoon will occur the wedding of Miss Agnes Kunkel and Dwight Wolcott at the home of the latter on Park Avenue, the Rev. R. E. Browning officiating. There will be present to witness the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wolcott, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolcott, Mrs. R. E. Browning, Miss Anne Smith and Frank Lowe. Following the nuptials will be served a wedding and Thanksgiving dinner.

The young couple will leave overland tomorrow for the exposition, where they will spend their honeymoon.

MRS. DYER HURT

HAND CARS ON McDONALD & VAUGHAN ROAD COLLIDE
Well-known Woman Severely Bruised—Mr. Ward, Driver of Second Car, Only Slightly Bruised

Mrs. Edward W. Dyer, of Daniels Creek, was quite severely injured yesterday in a hand-car wreck on the McDonald & Vaughn logging road. The car in which she was riding collided with one driven by one of the Ward boys and she was thrown over the handles and badly bruised, the worst bruise being on the side of her head, which was abnormally swollen.

Mrs. Dyer was coming down from their ranch to catch a boat for Marshfield. She was pumping the handcar herself. As she rounded a curve she saw another car coming up the grade. One of the Ward boys, who was pumping the other car, had his back turned to her and the noise of the car prevented her cries of warning being heard. The cars struck with quite an impact.

Luckily no bones were broken, but the injuries she sustained are quite painful.

AMONG THE SICK

Miss Ruth Knox, of First Addition, who underwent a serious operation at Mercy Hospital Tuesday evening, is reported as getting along nicely, much to the gratification of her many friends.

Miss Allee Tickell is suffering from a bruised hand and arm as the result of falling down the stairs of the O. E. Sulley home, the first of the week.
