WEST POINT IS WINNER AGAIN

Scores the Third Successive Victory Over Annapolis Football Team

PRESIDENT THERE

Army and Navy Officers and Members of Congress Gather to See the Game

OLIPHANT IS THE HERO

Former Purdue University Star Does All the Scoring for the Army Cadets—Twenty-five Thousand Visitors See Game

POLO GROUNDS, New York, Nov. 27.—West Point defeated Annapolis at football here today, 14 to 0, giving the soldiers the third successive victory over the sailors.

More than 46,000 persons saw the game, including President Wilson and his fiancée, Mrs. Galt. Rain fell during most of the game.

Oliphant, former Purdue University star, was the hero of the game. He scored all of the cadets' points—two touchdowns and two goals.

The touchdowns were made in the first and third quarters. At the end of the second quarter President Wilson changed from the navy side of the field to the army side, while the band played.

In President's Party President Wilson and party arrived at the field in automobiles shortly before the game began. The party included Mrs. Galt and her mother and sister, Mrs. William H. Bolling and Miss Bertha Bolling, Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo, Mrs. Anne Howe, the President's sister, Mrs. Anne Cothran, daughter of Mrs. Howe, and her little daughter, Josephine Cothran, Secretary Tumulty and Dr. Grayson.

Everybody Cheers The game while not brilliant, was desperately fought as the army and navy games always are. A heavy mist hung over the field and the players had difficulty following the ball.

A spectacular demonstration followed the game. The army cheered the navy and the navy cheered the army and everybody cheered the big red, white and blue flag planted in the center of the large circle formed by the army squad.

Army Kicks Off. In the first quarter the army kicked off. Craig punted to the army's 20-yard line and the ensuing enhance of punts placed the ball in the navy's possession close to their own goal. Here the navy fumbled and the ball was recovered by Weyand of the army.

The ball was entrusted to Oliphant, and he went through the navy's left tackle for a touchdown. He kicked goal.

Makes Long Run. The navy braced in the second period and carried the ball out of their own territory, but lost on the army's forty-yard line. A long run by Oliphant and forward passes then brought the army back close to the navy's goal.

In the third period the navy attempted a forward pass which was intercepted by Craig who carried the ball to the navy's 25 yard line. Oliphant broke through the entire navy team and scored a touchdown and kicked goal.

Both sides resorted to punting in the last quarter. The navy tried many forward passes, one of which was intercepted by Gerhardt, who carried the ball 15 yards. The game ended with the ball in the army's possession on the Navy's 30-yard line.

OFFICIALS ATTEND

Generals, Admirals and Other Big Men See Game

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Men who govern and guard the nation are here in thousands to see the annual football game between West Point and Annapolis today. The streets and hotels are gay with the gold and gray of the army and the blue and gold of the navy.

Admirals, generals, cabinet members, senators and representatives, are as much in evidence as police-
